"Be Glad, You Nations"

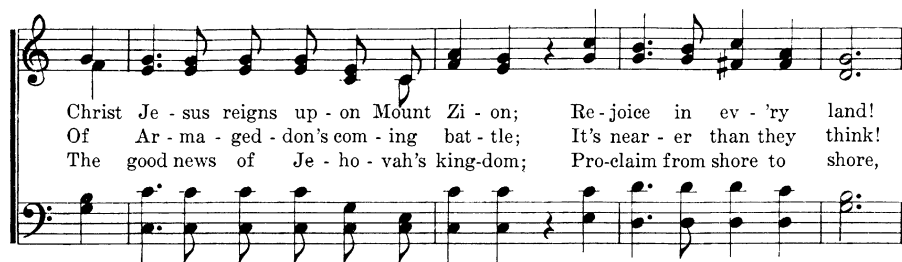

(Romans 15:10)

Jubilantly; with vigor!

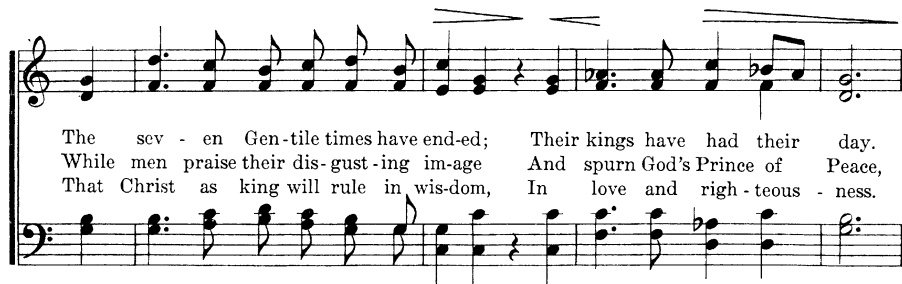

mf

1. Be glad, you na-tions, with his peo-ple! God's king-dom is at hand.
 2. Be glad, you na-tions, with his peo-ple! This sys-tem nears the brink
 3. Be glad, you na-tions, with his peo-ple! Go tell from door to door

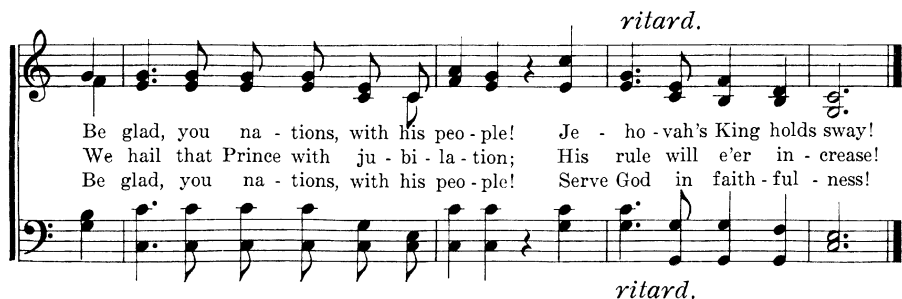

Christ Je-sus reigns up-on Mount Zi-on; Re-joice in ev-'ry land!
 Of Ar-ma-ged-don's com-ing bat-tle; It's near-er than they think!
 The good news of Je-ho-vah's king-dom; Pro-claim from shore to shore,

The sev-en Gen-tile times have end-ed; Their kings have had their day.
 While men praise their dis-gust-ing im-age And spurn God's Prince of Peace,
 That Christ as king will rule in wis-dom, In love and righ-teous-ness.

ritard.

Be glad, you na-tions, with his peo-ple! Je-ho-vah's King holds sway!
 We hail that Prince with ju-bi-la-tion; His rule will e'er in-crease!
 Be glad, you na-tions, with his peo-ple! Serve God in faith-ful-ness!

'Fear Them Not'!

(Matthew 10:28)

Confidently; with vigor!

1. Ev - er on - ward, O my peo - ple, Let the King - dom tid - ings go!
 2. Tho' your foes be strong and man - y, Tho' they threat - en and re - vile,
 3. Nev - er fear you are for - got - ten, I am still your strength and shield!

Trem - ble not be - fore your foe! Let all lov - ers of truth know
 Tho' they use fair speech and smile, The un - war - y to be - guile,
 Tho' you die up - on the field, Ev - en death to me will yield!

That my reign - ing Son, Christ Je - sus, From the heav'n's has cast the foe,
 Fear them not, my faith - ful war - riors; Fight, nor let your hearts grow faint;
 Fear them not, my Chris - tian war - riors; Tho' men's boast - ing threats may fly,

Soon will bind the Dev - il, Sa - tan, Let - ting all his vic - tims go!
 For I will pre - serve the faith - ful, Keep them free from all re - straint!
 I will keep all who are faith - ful, As the ap - ple of my eye!

"From House to House"

(Acts 20:20)

With a happy, flowing liltmp

1. From house to house, from door to door, Je - ho - vah's Word we spread.
 2. From house to house, from door to door, Sal - va - tion we pro - claim.
 3. Of course, it's not at ev - 'ry door We find a hear - ing ear;
 4. Then let us go from door to door To spread the King - dom news.

From town to town, from farm to farm, Je - ho - vah's "sheep" are fed.
 It comes up - on all those who call Up - on Je - ho - vah's name.
 At times there is a scold - ing tongue, And those who will not hear.
 And wheth - er they are "sheep" or "goats," We'll let the peo - ple choose.

"Happy Are the Mild-tempered"

(Matthew 5:5)

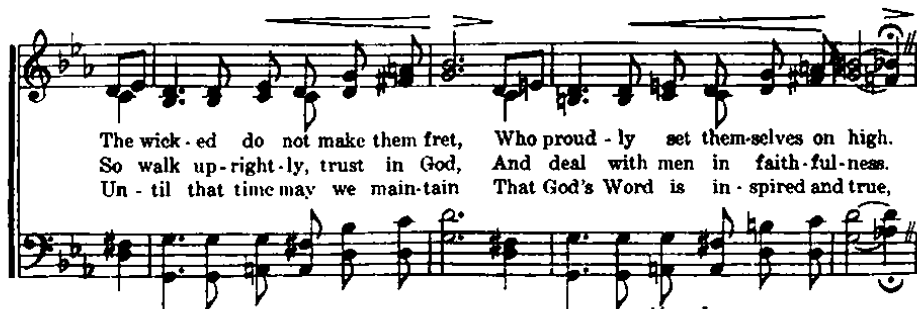

Happily; with feeling

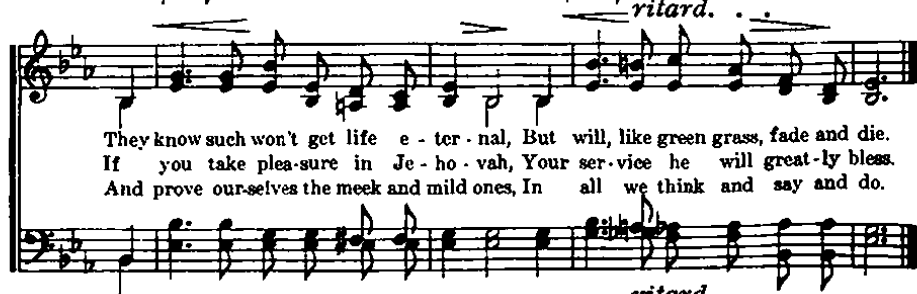

1. God bless-es those who are mild-tem-pered; Their hap-pi-ness is tru-ly great.
2. "There was a time when I was youth-ful, But now I'm old," King Da-vid said.
3. From earth the wick-ed soon will van-ish; There'll be no place for them to stand,

Tho' they may suf-fer, they're not chaf-ing, But pa-tient-ly on God they wait.
"Yet, nev-er did I see the right-eous For-sak-en or his seed beg bread."
While peace meek ones will be en-joy-ing And ev-er-more pos-sess the land.

The wick-ed do not make them fret, Who proud-ly set them-selves on high.
So walk up-right-ly, trust in God, And deal with men in faith-ful-ness.
Un-til that time may we main-tain That God's Word is in-spired and true,

Love's Excelling Way

(1 Corinthians 13)

With tender warmth; flowingly

1. God is love and there-fore bids us Walk in love's ex-cel-ling way,
 2. We may spend much time in preach-ing, Per-se-cu-tion too en-dure;
 3. Love is nev-er hard, re-sent-ful, In what's bad takes no de-light.

Let-ting love of God and neigh-bor Prompt all things we do and say.
 Yet what prof-it would it bring us, If our mo-tives were not pure?
 It is strong, all things en-dur-ing, And takes joy in what is right.

 For tho' we had faith and knowl-edge, Gifts of tongues and proph-e-ey,

In a beseeching manner

1. Hand in band with God Je - ho - vah, We would hum - bly walk each day.
 2. Walk - ing with our heav'n - ly Fa - ther Is the safe course, tru - ly wise.
 3. Help to us God has pro - vid - ed Thru his spir - it and his Word,

O how un - de - served this kind - ness That he grants to men of clay!
 We're be - set by ad - ver - sar - ies Who would rob us of the prize.
 Thru his Chris - tian con - gre - ga - tion, And thru pray - ers that are heard.

Since it's on - ly by ap - point - ment That we thus can take God's hand,
 There are Sa - tan and his de - mons, And the snares of fall - en flesh,
 As we walk with God Je - ho - vah, May we just - ly do what's right.

We be - gin with ded - i - ca - tion, On God's side we take our stand.
 And this world's ma - te - rial - is - m; How they would our feet en - mesh!

Our Paradise: Present and Future

Liltingly

1. Gra-cious Je-ho-vah God, we thank you For our spir-'tual par-a-dise,
2. Ad-min-is-tra-tion of your jus-tice You have giv-en Christ the King.
3. Af-ter the bat-tle of the great day Of Je-ho-vah has been fought,

In which by stud-y and by meet-ings We are aid-ed to be wise.
At your right hand since his en-throne-ment He rules o-ver ev-'ry thing.
And both the Dev-il and his de-mons To the deep a-byss are brought,

O may we ap-pre-ciate How great-ly we're blest
We praise you, Je-ho-vah, For hav-ing made known
Then your an-cient ser-vants From tombs will a-rise,

And how in your ser-vice We have joy and rest!
Your won-der-ful pur-pose To gath-er your own.
To serve you as prin-ces In earth's par-a-dise.

Our Paradise: Present and Future (Concluded)

True love for you and for our neighbor Is the strongest bond of all.
O may our conduct ever prove worthy Of the good news that we preach,
Under them, men will reach perfection, Thru the priesthood of your Son;

How it unites us in your service, So that we may never fall!
So that at no time we will stumble Sheep-like ones we seek to teach!
Then to mankind, to time indefinitely, Lasting joys from you will come!

20 The Scriptures—Inspired and Beneficial

(2 Timothy 3:16, 17)

Broadly; with an intenseness

1. God's Word is a shining light, Guides our feet thru earth's dark night.
2. By these Scriptures from above, We have come to know God's love.
3. That divine Word is inspired, Teach us what is required.
4. It is beneficial, true, Gives reproof, instruction, too;

It's the torch of liberty; Yes, its truth will set us free.
Faith in them will make us wise, Show us how to gain life's prize.
It aids us to set things straight, For God's discipline to wait.
That the man of God may be Well equipped, yes, perfect!

"Balsam in Gilead"

(Jeremiah 8:22)

Tenderly

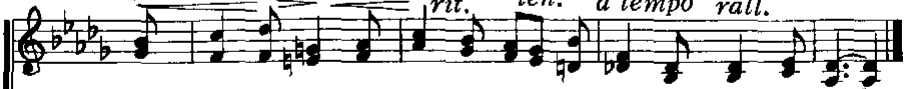

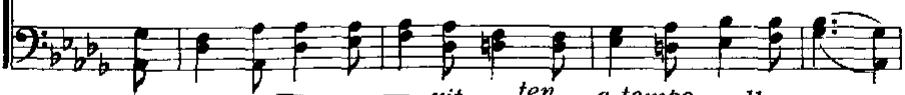

1. There's bal-sam in fair Gil-e-ad; This from God's Word we hear.
2. Just call to mind that "God is love," Is wise, al-might-y, true.
3. And call to mind that man-y things, Which long a-go oc-curred,
4. And have you thought that oth-ers, too, De-press'd like you might be?

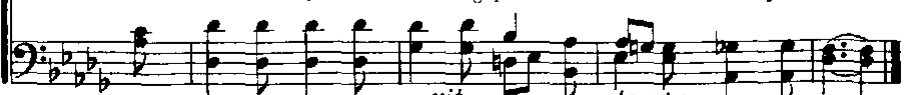

It com-fort brings to trou-bled hearts And helps grief dis-ap-pear.
 What e'er his prov-i-dence now sends Can work out well for you.
 Were writ-ten for our com-fort, hope, In God's own Ho-ly Word.
 That man-y more are like-wise tried As to in-teg-ri-ty?

It soothes us when we're sore-ly tried Or deep-ly are dis-tressed,
 So on this God of com-fort call In fre-quent, ear-nest pray'r,
 And hum-bly, too, ac-cept the aid That broth-ers, wise, ma-ture,
 Seek out such ones and com-fort them And make their hearts to glow.

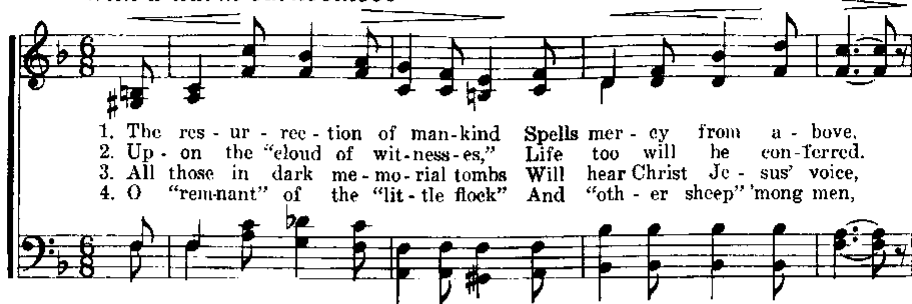

Or we have lost some loved dear one Who in death's sleep does rest.
 Pour out your soul; hold noth-ing back; Tell him your ev-ry care.
 Would glad-ly, lov-ing-ly ex-tend To help you to en-dure.
 In all such ways the heal-ing pow'r Of Gil-ead's balm you'll know.

Keep Your Eyes on the Prize!

(Isaiah 35; 11:6-9)

Heartfeltmp

1. When eyes of blind ones see a-gain And ears of deaf ones hear a-gain,
2. When tongues of dumb ones speak a-gain, When old ones will be young a-gain,
3. When wolves and lambs will feed as one, When bears and calves bask in the sun,

rit.

When des - erts blos-som as the rose And from parched ground fresh wa - ter flows,
 When earth will yield her rich in - crease And all good things will nev - er cease.
 A mere young boy will lead them all, And they will heed his child-ish call.

rit.

When lame ones leap just like the hart, When loved ones nev - er have to part—
 When songs of chil-dren fill the air, When joy and peace are ev - 'ry-where,
 When tears be - long to yes - ter - day, When fears and pain have passed a - way,

Such bless - ed times you'll re - al - ize, If you keep your eyes on the prize!
 Then, too, you'll see the dead a - rise, If you keep your eyes on the prize!
 You'll see how God these things sup - plies, If you keep your eyes on the prize!
