ISAIAH 29-33 | “A King Will Reign for Righteousness”

32:1-3

Jesus, the King, provides “princes,” or elders, who care for the flock

- Like “a place of concealment from the rainstorm,” they work to protect the flock from storms of persecution and discouragement
- Like “streams of water in a waterless land,” they refresh those who are spiritually thirsty by offering pure, unadulterated truth
- Like “the shadow of a massive crag in a parched land,” they bring relief to the flock by providing spiritual guidance and refreshment

Shepherds—Gifts in Men

(Ephesians 4:8)

C G/C F/C C F/C C D/C G/B

Help in our lives, Je - ho - vah pro - vides, Shep - herds to tend his flock.
 Shep - herds who love us care how we feel; Gent - ly they guide the way.
 God - ly ad - vice and coun - sel they give, That we may nev - er stray.

C G/B F/A C/G F Dm7 E7sus4 E7

By their ex - am - ple they serve as guides, Show - ing us how to walk.
 When we are hurt, they help us to heal, Kind in the words they say.
 Thus they as - sist us, God's way to live, Serv - ing him ev - 'ry day.

Chorus
Am F F/G G/F C/E Dm7 C/E D7/F# G

God gives us men who have earned our trust, Men who are loy - al and true.

Am F E7 Am F C/G G7 C

They show con - cern for his pre - cious sheep; Love them for all that they do.

- For I have heard from the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies,
That an extermination has been determined for all the land.*<sup>a</sup>
- 23 Give ear and listen to my voice;
Pay attention and listen to what I say.
- 24 Does the plow keep plowing all day before he sows seed?
Does he continually break up and harrow his ground?<sup>b</sup>
- 25 When he has smoothed out its surface,
Does he not then scatter black cumin and sow cumin,
And does he not plant wheat, millet, and barley in their places
And spelt<sup>c</sup> around the edges?
- 26 For He teaches* him the right way;
His God instructs him.<sup>d</sup>
- 27 For black cumin is not crushed with a threshing sledge,<sup>e</sup>
And a wagon wheel is not driven over cumin.
Rather, black cumin is beaten out with a rod,
And cumin with a staff.
- 28 Does a person crush grain for bread?
No, he does not thresh it incessantly;<sup>f</sup>
And when he drives the roller of his wagon over it with his horses,
He does not crush it.<sup>g</sup>
- 29 This also comes from Jehovah of armies, Whose counsel* is wonderful
And whose achievements are great.<sup>h</sup>

28:22 *Or "for the whole earth." 28:26 *Or "disciplines; chastises." 28:29 *Or "purpose." #Or "And whose practical wisdom is great."

29 "Woe to Ar'i-el,* Ar'i-el, the city where David encamped!<sup>a</sup>

Continue year after year;
Let the cycle of festivals<sup>b</sup> continue.

2 But I will bring distress on Ar'i-el,<sup>c</sup>

And there will be mourning and lamentation,<sup>d</sup>
And she will become to me like an altar hearth of God.<sup>e</sup>

3 I will encamp on all sides against you,
And I will besiege you with a palisade
And raise up siegeworks against you.<sup>f</sup>

4 You will be brought low;
From the ground you will speak,
And what you say will be muffled by dust.

Your voice will come from the ground<sup>g</sup>
Like the voice of a spirit medium,
And your words will chirp from the dust.

5 The crowd of your enemies* will be like fine powder,<sup>h</sup>
The crowd of the tyrants just like the blowing chaff.<sup>i</sup>
And it will happen in an instant, suddenly.<sup>j</sup>

6 Jehovah of armies will give you his attention
With thunder and earthquake and a great noise,
With storm wind and tempest and the flames of a consuming fire."<sup>k</sup>

7 Then the crowd of all the nations waging war against Ar'i-el!
—All those waging war against her,

29:1 *Possibly meaning "The Altar Hearth of God," apparently referring to Jerusalem. 29:5 *Lit., "strangers."

The siege towers against her,
And those bringing distress on her—

Will become like a dream,
a vision of the night.

- 8 Yes, it will be just as when someone hungry dreams that he is eating,
But he wakes up hungry,*
And as when someone thirsty dreams that he is drinking,

But he wakes up tired and thirsty.#

So it will happen with the crowd of all the nations That wage war against Mount Zion.<sup>a</sup>

- 9 Be stunned and amazed;<sup>b</sup> Blind yourselves and be blinded.<sup>c</sup>

They are drunk, but not with wine;

They are staggering, but not from alcohol.

- 10 For Jehovah has poured a spirit of deep sleep on you;<sup>d</sup>
He has closed your eyes,
the prophets,<sup>e</sup>
And he has covered your heads, the visionaries.<sup>f</sup>

11 Every vision becomes for you like the words of a sealed book.<sup>g</sup> When they give it to someone who can read, saying: “Read this out loud, please,” he will say: “I cannot, for it is sealed up.” 12 And when they give the book to someone who cannot read, saying: “Read this, please,” he will say: “I cannot read at all.”

- 13 Jehovah says: “This people approaches me with their mouth
And they honor me with their lips,<sup>h</sup>
But their heart is far removed from me;

- 14 Therefore, I am the One who will again do wonderful things with this people,<sup>b</sup>

With wonder upon wonder;
And the wisdom of their wise men will perish,
And the understanding of their discreet men will be hidden.<sup>c</sup>

- 15 Woe to those who go to great lengths to conceal their plans* from Jehovah.<sup>d</sup> Their deeds are done in a dark place,
While they say:
“Who sees us?
Who knows about us?”<sup>e</sup>

- 16 How you twist things!*
Should the potter be regarded the same as the clay?<sup>f</sup> Should what is made say about its maker:

“He did not make me”?<sup>g</sup>
And does what is formed say about its former:
“He shows no understanding”?<sup>h</sup>

- 17 In just a short time, Leb'- a-non will be turned into an orchard,<sup>i</sup>
And the orchard will be regarded as a forest.<sup>j</sup>

- 18 In that day the deaf will hear the words of the book,
And out of the gloom and darkness the eyes of the blind will see.<sup>k</sup>

- 19 The meek will rejoice greatly in Jehovah,
And the poor among men will be joyful in the Holy One of Israel.<sup>l</sup>

- 20 For the tyrant will be no more,
The boaster will come to his finish,

29:8 *Or “and his soul is empty.” #Or
“and his soul is parched.”

29:15 *Or “counsel.” 29:16 *Or “How perverse of you!”

And all those keeping alert to do harm will be destroyed,<sup>a</sup>

- 21 Those who with a false word
make others guilty, Who lay traps for the defender* in the city gate,<sup>b</sup>
And who with empty arguments deny justice to the righteous one.<sup>c</sup>

22 So this is what Jehovah, who redeemed Abraham,<sup>d</sup> says
to the house of Jacob:

“Jacob will no longer be ashamed,
And no more will his face grow pale.”<sup>e</sup>

- 23 For when he sees his children,
Who are the work of my hands, in his midst,<sup>f</sup>
They will sanctify my name;
Yes, they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob,
And they will stand in awe of the God of Israel.<sup>g</sup>

- 24 Those who are wayward in spirit will acquire understanding,
And those who complain will accept instruction.”

30 “Woe to the stubborn sons,”<sup>h</sup> declares Jehovah,

“Who carry out plans that are not mine,<sup>i</sup> Who make alliances,* but not by my spirit,
In order to add sin to sin.

- 2 They go down to Egypt<sup>j</sup> without consulting me,<sup>*k</sup>
To take shelter under Phar’ao’s protection#
And to take refuge in the shadow of Egypt!

29:21 *Lit., “the one reproving.” 29:22
*That is, from shame and disappointment. 30:1 *Lit., “pour out a libation,” evidently referring to making an agree-

Pharaoh.”

- 3 But the protection of Phar’ao’s will become for you a reason for shame,
And refuge in Egypt’s shadow a cause for humiliation.<sup>a</sup>
4 For his princes are in Zo’an,<sup>b</sup>
And his envoys have reached Ha’nes.
5 They will all be put to shame
By a people who can bring no benefit to them,
Who offer no help and no benefit,
Only shame and disgrace.”<sup>c</sup>

6 A pronouncement against the beasts of the south:

Through the land of distress and hardship,
Of the lion, the roaring lion,
Of the viper and the flying fiery snake,*

They carry their wealth on the backs of donkeys
And their supplies on the humps of camels.
But these things will not benefit the people.

- 7 For Egypt’s help is completely useless.<sup>d</sup>
So I have called this one:
“Ra’hab,<sup>e</sup> who sits still.”
8 “Now go, write it on a tablet in their presence,
And inscribe it in a book,<sup>f</sup>
So that it may serve for a future day
As a permanent witness.<sup>g</sup>
9 For they are a rebellious people,<sup>h</sup> deceitful sons,<sup>i</sup> Sons who are unwilling to hear the law* of Jehovah.<sup>j</sup>
10 They say to the seers,
‘Do not see,’
And to the visionaries, ‘Do not tell us truthful visions.<sup>k</sup> Tell us flattering* things; envision deceptive illusions.’<sup>l</sup>

30:6 *Or “the darting poisonous snake.” 30:9 *Or “instruction.”
30:10 *Lit., “smooth.”

- 11 Turn aside from the way;
deviate from the path.
Quit putting before us the Holy One of Israel."<sup>a</sup>
- 12 Therefore this is what the Holy One of Israel says:
"Since you reject this word<sup>b</sup>
And you trust in fraud and deceit
And you rely on these,<sup>c</sup>
- 13 So this error will be for you like a broken wall,
Like a bulging high wall
ready to fall.
It will crash suddenly, in an instant.
- 14 It will be broken like a large potter's jar,
So completely smashed that no fragment among its pieces will be left To rake the fire from the fireplace
Or to scoop water from a puddle."<sup>e</sup>
- 15 For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel, says:
"By returning to me and resting, you will be saved;
Your strength will be in keeping calm and showing trust."<sup>d</sup>
But you were unwilling.<sup>e</sup>
- 16 Instead, you said: "No, we will flee on horses!"
So flee you swift.
"And on swift horses we will ride!"<sup>f</sup> So those pursuing you will be swift.<sup>g</sup>
- 17 A thousand will tremble at the threat of one;<sup>h</sup>
At the threat of five you will flee Until what is left of you is like a mast on the top of a mountain,
Like a signal pole on a hill.<sup>i</sup>

30:14 *Or possibly, "a cistern."

a word behind you saying, "This is the way!<sup>j</sup> Walk in it," in case you should go to the right or in case you should go to the left.<sup>k</sup>

22 And you will defile the silver overlay of your graven images and the golden plating of your metal statues.<sup>l</sup> You will cast them away like a menstrual cloth and say to them, "Be gone!"<sup>m</sup> 23 And he will give the rain for the seed you sow in the ground,<sup>n</sup> and the bread that the ground produces will be abundant and rich.<sup>o</sup> In that day your livestock will graze in spacious pastures.<sup>p</sup> 24 And the cattle and the donkeys that work the ground will eat fodder seasoned with sorrel, which was winnowed with the shovel and the pitchfork. 25 And on every tall mountain and on every high hill will be streams and watercourses,<sup>q</sup> in the day of the great slaughter when the towers fall.

30:18 *Or "keeping in expectation."

26 And the light of the full moon will become like the light of the sun; and the light of the sun will become seven times stronger,<sup>a</sup> like the light of seven days, in the day that Jehovah binds up the breakdown* of his people<sup>b</sup> and heals the severe wound from the blow he inflicted.<sup>c</sup>

27 Look! The name of Jehovah is coming from far away, Burning with his anger and with heavy clouds. His lips are full of indignation, And his tongue is like a consuming fire.<sup>d</sup>

28 His spirit* is like a flooding torrent that reaches clear to the neck, To shake the nations in a sieve of destruction;<sup>e</sup> And the peoples will have a bridle in their jaws<sup>e</sup> that leads them astray.

29 But your song will be like the one sung in the night when you prepare* for a festival,<sup>f</sup> And your heart will rejoice like one who walks with<sup>g</sup> a flute on his way to the mountain of Jehovah, to the Rock of Israel.<sup>g</sup>

30 Jehovah will make his majestic voice<sup>h</sup> heard and reveal his arm<sup>i</sup> as it descends in the heat of anger,<sup>j</sup> With the flame of a consuming fire,<sup>k</sup> A cloudburst<sup>l</sup> and a thunderstorm and hailstones.<sup>m</sup>

31 For because of the voice of Jehovah, As-syr'i-a will be struck with terror;<sup>n</sup>

30:26 *Or "fracture." 30:28 *Or "breath." <sup>n</sup>Lit., "a sieve of worthlessness." 30:29 *Or "sanctify yourself." <sup>n</sup>Or "to the sound of."

2 But he is also wise and will bring calamity, And he will not take back his words.

He will rise up against the house of evildoers

And against those who help wrongdoers.<sup>h</sup>

3 The Egyptians, though, are mere men and not God; Their horses are flesh and not spirit.<sup>i</sup>

When Jehovah stretches out his hand,

Whoever offers help will stumble

30:33 *"Topheth" is here used as a figurative place of burning, representing destruction. 31:1 *Or "in horsemen."

And whoever is helped will fall;
They will all perish at the same time.

- 4 For this is what Jehovah has said to me:

“Just as the lion growls,
a strong young lion,* over its prey,

When a whole group of shepherds is called together against it,
And it is not terrified by their voice

Or daunted by their commotion,

So will Jehovah of armies come down to wage war Over Mount Zion and over her hill.

- 5 Like swooping birds, so Jehovah of armies will defend Jerusalem.<sup>a</sup>

He will defend her and save her.

He will spare her and rescue her.”

6 “Return to the One against whom you have blatantly revolted, O people of Israel.<sup>b</sup> 7 For in that day each one will reject his worthless gods of silver and his valueless gods of gold, which your own hands sinfully made.

- 8 And the As-syr'i-an will fall by the sword, not of a man; And a sword, not of a human, will devour him.<sup>c</sup>

He will flee because of the sword,
And his young men will be put to forced labor.

- 9 His crag will pass away because of sheer fright,
And his princes will be terrified because of the signal pole,” declares Jehovah, Whose light* is in Zion and whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

31:4 *Or “a maned young lion.” 31:9 *Or “fire.”

- 2 And each one will be like a hiding place* from the wind,

A place of concealment# from the rainstorm,

Like streams of water in a waterless land,<sup>c</sup>

Like the shadow of a massive crag in a parched land.

- 3 Then the eyes of those seeing will no longer be pasted shut,

And the ears of those hearing will pay attention.

- 4 The heart of those who are impetuous will ponder over knowledge,

And the stammering tongue will speak fluently and clearly.<sup>d</sup>

- 5 The senseless one will no longer be called generous,
And the unprincipled man will not be called noble;

- 6 For the senseless one will speak nonsense,
And his heart will devise harmful things,<sup>e</sup>

To promote apostasy* and to speak what is wayward against Jehovah,

To cause the hungry one# to go unfed

And to deprive the thirsty one of something to drink.

- 7 The devices of the unprincipled man are bad;<sup>f</sup>

He promotes shameful conduct

To ruin the afflicted one with lies,<sup>g</sup>

Even when the poor speaks what is right.

- 8 But the generous one has generous intentions,

32:2 *Or “a shelter.” #Or “A refuge.”

an orchard,
And the orchard is regarded

ISAIAH 29-33 | “A King Will Reign for Righteousness”

32:1-3

Jesus, the King, provides “princes,” or elders, who care for the flock

- Like “a place of concealment from the rainstorm,” they work to protect the flock from storms of persecution and discouragement
- Like “streams of water in a waterless land,” they refresh those who are spiritually thirsty by offering pure, unadulterated truth
- Like “the shadow of a massive crag in a parched land,” they bring relief to the flock by providing spiritual guidance and refreshment

January 9-15

Treasures From God's Word

Isaiah 32:1—The King who will reign for righteousness is Jesus Christ

Reference: w14 2/15 6 paragraph 13.

Christ also sallies forth 'in the cause of righteousness.' The righteousness that the King defends is "God's righteousness"—Jehovah's standards of what is right and what is wrong. (Romans 3:21; Deuteronomy 32:4) About the King Jesus Christ, Isaiah prophesied: "A king will reign for righteousness." (Isaiah 32:1) Jesus' reign will usher in the promised "new heavens" and "new earth," wherein "righteousness is to dwell." (2 Peter 3:13) Every inhabitant of that new world will be required to conform to Jehovah's standards.—Isaiah 11:1-5.

Isaiah 32:2—The enthroned Jesus provides princes to care for the flock

Reference: ip-1 332-334 paragraphs 7-8.

7 In his great prophecy describing the distressful "conclusion of the system of things," Jesus said: "See that you are not terrified." (Matthew 24:3-8) Why are Jesus' followers not terrified by today's dangerous world conditions? One reason is that the "princes"—whether they be anointed or "other sheep"—are loyally protecting the flock. (John 10:16) They fearlessly care for their brothers and sisters, even in the face of such horrors as ethnic wars and genocide. In a spiritually exhausted world, they see to it that depressed souls are refreshed by the upbuilding truths of God's Word, the Bible.

8 During the past 50 years, the "princes" have come clearly into view. "Princes" who are of the other sheep are being trained as a developing "chieftain" class so that after the great tribulation, qualified ones from among them will be ready for appointment to serve in an administrative capacity in the "new earth." (Ezekiel 44:2, 3; 2 Peter 3:13) By providing spiritual guidance and refreshment as they take the lead in Kingdom service, they are proving themselves to be "like the shadow of a heavy crag," bringing relief to the flock in its realm of worship.

Isaiah 32:3, 4—Jehovah's people are given instruction and training that help them demonstrate righteousness

Reference: ip-1 334-335 paragraphs 10-11.

Paying Attention With Eyes, Ears, and Hearts

10 How have the great crowd responded to Jehovah's theocratic arrangement? The prophecy continues: "The eyes of those seeing will not be pasted together, and the very ears of those hearing will pay attention." (Isaiah 32:3) Over the years, Jehovah has provided for the instruction and bringing to maturity of his precious servants. The Theocratic Ministry School and other meetings operating in the congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses worldwide; the district, national, and international conventions; as well as the specialized training of the "princes" to treat the flock with loving care have all contributed to the building up of a united, global brotherhood of millions. Wherever these shepherds are on earth, their ears are wide open to adjustments in understanding of the advancing word of truth. With Bible-trained consciences, they are ever ready to hear and to obey.—Psalm 25:10.

11 The prophecy then cautions: “The heart itself of those who are overhasty will consider knowledge, and even the tongue of the stammerers will be quick in speaking clear things.” (Isaiah 32:4) Let no one be overhasty in drawing conclusions about what is right and what is wrong. The Bible says: “Have you beheld a man hasty with his words? There is more hope for someone stupid than for him.” (Proverbs 29:20; Ecclesiastes 5:2) Before 1919, even Jehovah’s people were tainted with Babylonish ideas. But starting in that year, Jehovah has given them a clearer understanding of his purposes. They have found the truths he has revealed to be, not overhasty, but well thought out, and they are now speaking with the certainty of belief, not stammering with uncertainty.

Digging for Spiritual Gems

Isaiah 30:21—In what ways does Jehovah communicate with his servants?

Reference: w14 8/15 21 paragraph 2.

Today, Jehovah guides his people by means of the Bible, his holy spirit, and the congregation. (Acts 9:31; 15:28; 2 Timothy 3:16, 17) The guidance that we receive from him is so clear that it is as if ‘our own ears hear a word behind us saying: “This is the way. Walk in it.”’ (Isaiah 30:21) In effect, Jesus also conveys Jehovah’s voice to us as he directs the congregation through “the faithful and discreet slave.” (Matthew 24:45) We need to take this guidance and direction seriously, for our everlasting life depends on our obedience.—Hebrews 5:9.

Isaiah 33:22—When and how did Jehovah become Judge, Lawgiver, and King for the nation of Israel?

Reference: w14 10/15 14 paragraph 4.

The Law covenant went into effect at Mount Sinai in 1513 B.C.E. By means of that covenant, the ancient nation of Israel was set apart as God’s chosen nation. Jehovah now became ‘their Judge, their Lawgiver, and their King.’ (Isaiah 33:22) The history of Israel provides a record of what happens when God’s righteous standards are either observed or ignored. Since the Law forbade intermarrying with pagans and participation in false worship, it was designed to prevent Abraham’s line of descent from being contaminated.—Exodus 20:4-6; 34:12-16.

How to Get More
From Reading the Bible

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

Is the Bible outdated in our modern age?
Or does it still have value? The Bible itself says:
“All Scripture is inspired of God and beneficial.”
—2 Timothy 3:16, 17.

This issue of The Watchtower highlights examples of the Bible’s practical wisdom and offers suggestions on how to get the most out of your Bible reading.

THIS MAGAZINE, The Watchtower, honors Jehovah God, the Ruler of the universe. It comforts people with the good news that God’s heavenly Kingdom will soon end all wickedness and transform the earth into a paradise. It promotes faith in Jesus Christ, who died so that we might gain everlasting life and who is now ruling as King of God’s Kingdom. This magazine has been published continuously since 1879 and is nonpolitical. It adheres to the Bible as its authority.

The Watchtower (ISSN 0043-1087) Issue 1 January 2017 is published monthly with an additional issue published in January, March, May, July, September, and November by Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York, Inc.; L. moral values, and our desire to remain faithful to God, there can be an interchange of thoughts, feelings, and experiences that encourage and upbuild us. (Romans 1: 11, 12) We find such spiritually-minded associates among fellow worshippers. Does this mean, though, that everyone who comes to meetings at the Kingdom Hall is a good associate? No, not necessarily.

CHOOSING OUR CLOSE ASSOCIATES

<sup>12</sup> Even within the congregation, we must be selective if our associates are to be spiritually upbuilding. Should this surprise us? Not really. Some Christians in the congregation may take longer to reach spiritual maturity, even as some fruit on a tree may take longer to ripen. Thus, in any given congregation, we find Christians who are at different levels of spiritual growth. (Hebrews 5:12–6:3) Of course, we show patience and love to newer or weaker ones, for we want to help them to grow spiritually.—Romans 14:1; 15:1.

<sup>13</sup> Occasionally, there may be a situation in the congregation that calls for us to watch our association. Some individuals might engage in questionable conduct. Others may develop a bitter or complaining spirit. Congregations in the first century C.E. faced a similar challenge. While most members were faithful, some individuals did not conduct themselves aright. Because some in the congregation in Corinth did not uphold certain Christian teachings, the apostle Paul warned the congregation: “Do not be misled. Bad associations spoil useful habits.” (1 Corinthians 15:12, 33) Paul cautioned Timothy that even among fellow Christians, there might be

12, 13. (a) Why must we be selective in choosing associates even from among fellow Christians? (b) What challenge did first-century congregations face, prompting Paul to give what strong warnings?

some who do not act honorably. Timothy was told to keep clear of such ones, not making them his close associates.—2 Timothy 2:20-22.

<sup>14</sup> How can we apply the principle behind Paul’s warnings? By avoiding close association with anyone—inside or outside the congregation—who could be a corrupting influence. (2 Thessalonians 3:6, 7, 14) We must protect our spirituality. Remember that like a sponge, we absorb the attitudes and ways of our close friends. Just as we cannot submerge a sponge in vinegar and expect it to fill with water, so we cannot associate with those who exert a negative influence and expect to absorb what is positive.—1 Corinthians 5:6.

<sup>15</sup> Thankfully, the potential for finding wholesome associates among fellow worshippers is great indeed. (Psalm 133:1) How can you find spiritually-minded friends in the congregation? As you cultivate godly qualities and ways, no doubt others of like mind will be drawn to you. At the same time, you may need to take some practical steps to reach out and make new friends. (See the box “How We Made Good Friends,” on page 30.) Look for those who display the qualities you want to reflect. Heed the Bible’s counsel to “widen out,” seeking out friendships with fellow believers regardless of race, nationality, or culture. (2 Corinthians 6:13; 1 Peter 2:17) Do not limit yourself to those of your own age group. Remember that Jonathan was much older than David. Many older ones can bring to friendship a rich supply of experience and wisdom.

13. How did The Watch Tower in 1921 appeal to the willing spirit of anointed Christians?

14, 15. In 1922, The Watch Tower urged anointed Christians to reach others in what way?

16. How did some of the elected elders react to the idea that all should share in the ministry?

17, 18. How did most in the congregations respond to the direction from headquarters, and how have millions responded over the past 100 years?

is the time . . . to proclaim far and wide in Christendom this good news.”

13 Would God’s people be pressured into doing the work that Jesus foretold? No. The article “Be of Good Courage,” in the March 15, 1921, issue of The Watch Tower, appealed to the willing spirit of anointed Christians. Each one was encouraged to ask himself: “Is it not my greatest privilege, as well as my duty, to participate in this work?” The article went on to say: “We feel assured that when you do see it [as a privilege to share in the work] you will be like Jeremiah, in whose heart the word of the Lord was ‘as a burning fire shut up in [his] bones,’ urging him on so that he could not refrain from speaking.” (Jer. 20:9) That warm encouragement reflected the confidence that Jehovah and Jesus have in loyal Kingdom supporters.

14 How should true Christians reach others with the Kingdom message? The short but powerful article entitled “Service Essential,” in the August 15, 1922, issue of The Watch Tower, urged anointed Christians to take part in “actively carrying the printed message to the people and talking to them at their doors, giving the witness that the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

15 Clearly, from 1919 on, Christ has used his faithful and discreet slave to emphasize repeatedly that a Christian’s privilege and duty on earth is to proclaim the Kingdom message. How, though, did the early Bible Students respond to the encouragement to share in the work of Kingdom proclamation?

“The Faithful Will Be Volunteers”

16 In the 1920’s and 1930’s, some resisted the idea that all anointed Christians should share in the ministry. The November 1, 1927, Watch Tower explained what was happening: “There are those today in the church [congregation] occupying the responsible position of elder . . . who refuse to encourage their brethren to have part in the service, and who refuse to participate in the service themselves. . . . They scoff at the suggestion of going from door to door to carry the message of God, his King and his kingdom, to the people.” The article pointedly said: “The time has come for the faithful to mark such and to avoid them, and to say to them that no longer will we entrust such men with the office of eldership.”<sup>[3]</sup>

17 Happily, most in the congregations responded enthusiastically to the direction from headquarters. They count-

[3] At that time, elders were elected democratically by the congregation. Therefore, a congregation could refuse to vote for men who were opposed to the ministry. The change to theocratic appointment of elders will be discussed in Chapter 12.

ed it a privilege to share the Kingdom message. The Watch Tower of March 15, 1926, put it this way: “The faithful will be volunteers . . . to tell this message to the people.” Such faithful ones lived up to the prophetic words found at Psalm 110:3 and proved themselves to be willing supporters of the Messianic King.

18 Over the past 100 years, millions have offered themselves willingly to carry out the work of Kingdom proclamation. In the next few chapters, we will discuss how they have preached—the methods and the tools they have used—and what the results have been. First, though, let us discuss why millions have shared in this Kingdom-preaching work voluntarily, despite living in a me-first world. As we consider why, we do well to ask ourselves, ‘Why do I share the good news with others?’

“Keep . . . Seeking First the Kingdom”

19 Jesus counseled his followers to “keep . . . seeking first the Kingdom.” (Matt. 6:33) Why do we heed that counsel? Basically, because we recognize the importance of the Kingdom, that it is central to God’s purpose. As we saw in the preceding chapter, the holy spirit has gradually revealed thrilling truths about the Kingdom. When precious Kingdom truth touches our heart, we feel impelled to seek first that Kingdom.

20 Jesus knew how his followers would respond to the counsel to keep seeking first the Kingdom. Consider his illustration of the hidden treasure. (Read Matthew 13:44.) In the course of his daily work, the field laborer in the illustration happens to find a hidden treasure and immediately recognizes its value. What does he do? “Because of his joy, he goes and sells everything he has and buys that field.” What is the lesson for us? When we find Kingdom truth and recognize its value, we will joyfully make whatever sacrifices are needed so that we may keep Kingdom interests where they belong—first in our life.<sup>[4]</sup>

21 Loyal Kingdom supporters show by deeds, not mere words, that they are seeking first the Kingdom. They devote their lives, their abilities, and their resources to the Kingdom-preaching work. Many have made great sacrifices in order to pursue the full-time ministry. All such willing preachers have seen firsthand that Jehovah blesses those who put the Kingdom first. Consider an example from the early days.

19. Why do we heed Jesus’ counsel to “keep . . . seeking first the Kingdom”?

20. How does Jesus’ illustration of the hidden treasure show how his followers would respond to the counsel to keep seeking first the Kingdom?

21, 22. How do loyal Kingdom supporters show that they are seeking first the Kingdom? Give an example.

FOOTNOTE

[4] Jesus made a similar point in his illustration of a traveling merchant who goes out in search of a pearl of high value. When the merchant finds it, he sells everything he has and buys it. (Matt. 13:45, 46) The two parables also teach us that we may learn of Kingdom truth in different ways. Some stumble upon it, so to speak; others search for it. But no matter how we find the truth, we are willing to make sacrifices in order to put the Kingdom first in our life.

Like a man overjoyed at finding a hidden treasure, Christians rejoice that they have found Kingdom truth
(See paragraph 20)

22 Avery and Lovenia Bristow served together as colporteurs (pioneers) in the southern United States starting in the late 1920's. Years later, Lovenia recalled: "Avery and I have had many happy years together in the pioneer work since then. There have been many times when we did not know where the money for gasoline or groceries would come from. But one way or another, Jehovah always provided. We just kept on keeping on. We always had what we actually needed." Lovenia remembered one occasion when they were serving in Pensacola, Florida, and were low on money and groceries. They came home to their trailer and found two large bags of groceries along with a note that read, "With love from the Pensacola Company."<sup>[5]</sup> Reflecting on her decades in the full-time ministry, Lovenia said: "Jehovah never forsakes us. He never betrays the trust we put in him."

23 We cannot all do the same amount of preaching. Our circumstances vary. However, all of us can count it a privilege to declare the good news whole-souled. (Col. 3:23) Because we prize the precious Kingdom truth we have found, we are willing—yes, eager—to make whatever sacrifices we can in order to serve to the fullest extent possible. Is that not your determination?

24 Over the past century, the King has indeed been fulfilling his prophetic words recorded at Matthew 24:14. And he has done so without using coercion. After coming out of this self-centered world, his followers have willingly offered themselves to preach. Their earth-wide preaching of the good news is part of the sign of Jesus' presence in Kingdom power—and one of the Kingdom's greatest accomplishments in the last days.

23. How do you feel about the Kingdom truth that you have found, and what are you determined to do?

9 WEEK OF JANUARY 2-8 Organized in Harmony With God’s Own Book

14 WEEK OF JANUARY 9-15 Do You Highly Esteem Jehovah’s Own Book?

These articles answer the following questions: Why should we expect Jehovah’s worshippers to be organized? How can we be organized in harmony with God’s own Book? How can we show that we loyally support Jehovah’s organization?

19 “The Work Is Great”

---

21 WEEK OF JANUARY 16-22 Called Out of Darkness

26 WEEK OF JANUARY 23-29 They Broke Free From False Religion

These articles explain when God’s people came into Babylonian captivity and what efforts anointed Christians made in the late 1800’s to understand Jehovah’s Word correctly. We will also consider the firm stand the Bible Students took regarding Babylon the Great, and we will learn when the Babylonian captivity ended.

HOW WOULD YOU ANSWER?

What counsel does the Bible give about controlling our emotions?

---

Why can we say that Jehovah’s chariot is on the move?

---

How can you show that you fully support Jehovah’s organization?

Jehovah’s servants highly esteem God’s own holy book, the Bible. Being imperfect, we all receive Scriptural counsel at times. How will we respond to it? Consider the first-century Christians Euodia and Syntyche. Serious problems arose between these anointed women. What problems? The Bible does not say. But for the sake of illustration, consider the following possibility.

<sup>2</sup> Suppose Euodia invited some brothers and sisters to her home for a meal and pleasant association. Syntyche was not invited, but she heard about the good time that everyone had. Syntyche may have said: ‘I cannot believe that Euodia did not invite me! I thought we were best friends.’ Feeling betrayed, Syntyche began to look at Euodia with doubt and even suspicion. So Syntyche arranged her own gathering and invited the same brothers and sisters—but not Euodia! The problem that existed between Euodia and Syntyche could have disrupted the peace of the whole congregation. The Bible does not tell us the outcome, but these sisters may have responded well to the apostle Paul's loving counsel.—Phil. 4:2, 3.

<sup>3</sup> Similar situations sometimes cause difficulties in congregations of Jehovah's people today. However, such problems can be solved or even avoided if we apply the counsel found in God's Word, the Bible. And if we highly esteem Jehovah's own Book, we will live by its instructions.—Ps. 27:11.

GOD'S OWN BOOK AND HUMAN EMOTIONS

<sup>4</sup> It is not easy to control our emotions when we feel that we have been slighted or treated unjustly. It can be devastating if we are mistreated because of our ethnic background, the color of our skin, or some other physical difference. How much greater the pain is if it is caused by a fellow Christian! Does God's Word provide counsel to help us if we face this ugly side of imperfect human behavior?

<sup>5</sup> Jehovah has observed human relations since mankind's beginning. He takes note of our emotions and actions. Thoughts, including those that are emotionally charged, can lead to words and actions we may later regret. How wise it is to apply the Bible's counsel to control our temper and avoid being quick to take offense! (Read Proverbs 16:32; Ecclesiastes 7:9.) No doubt all of us need to work at being less sensitive and more forgiving. Jehovah and Jesus take forgiveness very seriously. (Matt. 6:14, 15) Do you need to be more forgiving or to give attention to controlling your emotions?

4, 5. What counsel does God's Word give us about controlling our emotions?

<sup>6</sup> People who fail to control their emotions often become bitter. As a result, others may not want to be around them. A bitter individual can exert a bad influence in the congregation. He may try to disguise his bitterness or even his hatred, but negative thoughts lurking in his heart "will be exposed in the congregation." (Prov. 26:24-26) The elders may be able to help such individuals to see that bitterness, hatred, and the harboring of grudges are traits that have no place in God's organization. Jehovah's own priceless Book is very clear about this. (Lev. 19:17, 18; Rom. 3:11-18) Do you agree with it?

REMEMBER HOW WE ARE BEING LED

<sup>7</sup> Jehovah leads and feeds those in the earthly part of his organization by means of "the faithful and discreet slave" under the direction of Christ, the "head of the congregation." (Matt. 24:45-47; Eph. 5:23) Like the first-century governing body, this slave accepts God's inspired word, or message, and highly esteems it. (Read 1 Thessalonians 2:13.) What are some directives, or instructions, provided in the Bible for our benefit?

<sup>8</sup> The Bible directs us to attend meetings regularly. (Heb. 10:24, 25) It urges us to promote unity of doctrine. (1 Cor. 1:10) God's Word tells us to give the Kingdom first place in our lives. (Matt. 6:33) The Scriptures also emphasize our duty and privilege to preach from house to house, in public places, and informally. (Matt. 28:19, 20; Acts 5:42;

6. Why should we guard against bitterness?

7, 8. (a) How does Jehovah lead the earthly part of his organization? (b) What are some of the directives found in God's Word, and why should we obey them?

17:17; 20:20) God's own Book directs Christian elders to keep his organization clean. (1 Cor. 5:1-5, 13; 1 Tim. 5:19-21) And Jehovah decrees that all those in his organization must be clean physically and spiritually.—2 Cor. 7:1.

<sup>9</sup> Some may feel that they can interpret the Bible on their own. However, Jesus has appointed the 'faithful slave' to be the only channel for dispensing spiritual food. Since 1919, the glorified Jesus Christ has been using that slave to help his followers understand God's own Book and heed its directives. By obeying the instructions found in the Bible, we promote cleanness, peace, and unity in the congregation. Each one of us does well to ask himself, 'Am I loyal to the channel that Jesus is using today?'

us with the heavenly part of his organization. For example, the prophet Ezekiel received a vision in which the heavenly part of God's organization is represented by a celestial chariot. (Ezek. 1:4-28) Jehovah rides on this chariot, and it goes wherever his spirit impels it to go. In turn, the heavenly part of his organization influences the earthly part. The chariot certainly has been on the move! Think about the many organizational changes that have been made during the past decade—and bear in mind that Jehovah is behind such developments. With Christ and the holy angels about to destroy this wicked world, Jehovah's chariot is rapidly moving toward the vindication of his sovereignty and the sanctification of his holy name!

<sup>11</sup> Reflect on what the earthly part of God's organization has been accomplishing in these last days. Construction. Hundreds of workers were very busy building the new headquarters of Jehovah's Witnesses at Warwick, New York, U.S.A. Under the direction of the Worldwide Design/Construction Department, thousands of volunteers worldwide are working hard to build new Kingdom Halls and expand branch facilities. How thankful we are for the many willing volunteers who work tirelessly on such projects! Remember that Jehovah is blessing the Kingdom proclaimers earth wide who humbly and loyally contribute what they can to help finance such projects.—Luke 21:1-4.

<sup>12</sup> Education. Consider the various schools that promote divine education. (Isa. 2:2, 3) We have the Pioneer Service School, the School for Kingdom Evangelizers, Gilead School, Bethel Entrants' School, the School for Circuit Overseers and Their Wives, the School for Congregation Elders, the Kingdom Ministry School, and the School for Branch Committee Members and Their Wives. How Jehovah loves to educate his people! Bible education is also promoted on our website, jw.org, where we have literature available in hundreds of languages. The site has special sections for children and for families as well as a section with news items. Have you been using jw.org in your ministry and in your family worship?

SHOW LOYALTY TO JEHOVAH AND SUPPORT HIS ORGANIZATION

<sup>13</sup> What a privilege it is to be part of Jehovah's organization! With our knowledge of God's requirements and standards comes the responsibility to do what is right and uphold his sovereignty. As this world sinks deeper and deeper into debauchery, we must "hate what is bad," as Jehovah does. (Ps. 97:10) We refuse to join the ungodly and say: "Good is bad and bad is good." (Isa. 5:20) Because we want to please God, we strive to remain clean physically, morally, and spiritually. (1 Cor. 6:9-11) We love Jehovah and put our trust in him; we choose to show our loyalty to him by living up to the standards clearly outlined in his own precious Book. And we make every effort to comply with those standards at home, in the congregation, on the job, at school—everywhere. (Prov. 15:3) Consider further ways we can prove our loyalty to God.

13. What responsibility do we as Jehovah's loyal worshippers have?

<sup>14</sup> Child-rearing. Christian parents display loyalty to Jehovah by training their children according to his Word. Godly parents are not unduly influenced by local cultural views about child-rearing. The spirit of the world is unacceptable in a Christian home. (Eph. 2:2) A baptized Christian father will not think, 'Well, in our country the women teach the children.' The Bible is clear on this subject when it says: "Fathers, . . . go on bringing [your children] up in the discipline and admonition [instruction; guidance] of Jehovah." (Eph. 6:4; fn.) God-fearing fathers and mothers want their children to be like Samuel, for Jehovah was with him while he was growing up.—1 Sam. 3:19.

<sup>15</sup> Making decisions. When we make major decisions in life, one way to demonstrate our loyalty to God is by seeking help from his written Word and organization. To illustrate the importance of doing so, consider a sensitive subject that affects many parents. It is a practice among certain immigrants to send their newborn babies to relatives to be cared for so that the parents can continue working and making money in their new country. Yes, this is a personal decision, but we should bear in mind that God holds us responsible for the decisions we make. (Read Romans 14:12.) Would it be wise to make important decisions about our family and our livelihood without first consulting the Bible? Of course not! We need our heavenly Father's help because we are unable to direct our own steps.—Jer. 10:23.

14. How can Christian parents show loyalty to God?

15. How do we show our loyalty to Jehovah when we are making major decisions?

<sup>16</sup> One woman who gave birth to a baby boy while living in a foreign country was going to send the child back to her homeland to be cared for by his grandparents. At the time of the birth, one of Jehovah's Witnesses began to study the Bible with the woman. She made good progress and learned that it was her God-given duty to raise her child to worship Jehovah. (Ps. 127:3; Prov. 22:6) The young woman poured out her heart to Jehovah, as the Scriptures tell us to do. (Ps. 62:7, 8) She also opened her heart to her Bible teacher and spoke to others in the congregation. Despite pressure from her relatives and friends to send her child to the grandparents, she concluded that it was not right to do so. Her husband was so impressed by the way the congregation proved to be a refuge for her and the baby that he accepted a Bible study and began to attend meetings with his wife and child. Do you think that this mother felt that Jehovah answered her heartfelt prayer? Undoubtedly, she did feel that way.

<sup>17</sup> Following direction. An important way that we display loyalty to God is by following the direction we receive from his organization. For example, consider the suggestions we have been given regarding our Bible students. It has been recommended that soon after establishing a personal study with someone in the book What Does the Bible Really Teach? we take a few minutes after each study to direct the student's attention to the organization. We can do this by using the video What Happens at a Kingdom Hall? and the brochure Who Are Doing Jehovah's Will Today? It has been suggested that when we finish studying the Bible Teach book with a progressive student, we study the book "Keep Yourself in God's Love" with him, even if he is baptized by that time. The organization has given this direction so that new disciples will be "stabilized in the faith." (Col. 2:7) Are you following such suggestions from Jehovah's organization?

<sup>18</sup> There are many reasons why we should be thankful to Jehovah! We owe him our very life, for without him we would not even move or exist. (Acts 17: 27, 28) He has given us a very precious gift—his own book, the Bible. We gratefully accept it as God's message, even as the Christians in Thessalonica received God's word and accepted it.—1 Thess. 2:13.

<sup>19</sup> With the written Word of God in hand, we have drawn close to Jehovah and he has drawn close to us. (Jas. 4:8) Our heavenly Father has granted us the wonderful privilege of being part of his organization. How we appreciate such blessings! The psalmist put matters beautifully when he sang: "Give thanks to Jehovah, for he is good; his loyal love endures forever." (Ps. 136:1) Twenty-six times in Psalm 136, we find the refrain "his loyal love endures forever." By proving loyal to Jehovah and his organization, we will experience the truthfulness of those heartening words because we will live forever!
