ISAIAH 52-57 | Christ Suffered for Us

53:3-5

“He was despised and was avoided by men . . . We considered him as plagued, stricken by God and afflicted”

- Jesus was despised and charged with blasphemy. Some believed that God was punishing him, as if plaguing him with a loathsome disease

“It was Jehovah’s will to crush him, . . . and through him the delight of Jehovah will have success”

- Jehovah no doubt suffered when he saw his Son put to death. But he delighted to see Jesus’ absolute faithfulness. Jesus’ death provided an answer to Satan’s challenge regarding the loyalty of God’s servants and brought benefits to repentant humans. It thus helped to accomplish “Jehovah’s will”

20 You Gave Your Precious Son (1 John 4:9)

1. Jehovah, dear Father,
 There seemed no hope for us.
The ransom has given
 Hope to ev'ryone!
We give our lives to you,
 Our best in all we do.
And we'll tell others too,
 That your will might be done.

(CHORUS)

*You gave your precious Son,
And now we sing as one,
A song we'll sing forever,
for giving us your precious Son.*

2. Your kindness, your mercy,
 They draw us close to you.
Your great name, your friendship,
 These we've come to love.
But something more than this
 Is your most precious gift.
He died that we might live.
 You sent him from above.

(Chorus)

(ENDING)

Jehovah, dear Father, we pray in gratitude.
 We offer our thanks for giving us your precious Son.

Isaiah 52-57

52 Awake! Awake! Clothe yourself with strength, O Zion!

Put on your beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city!

For no more will the uncircumcised and unclean one enter into you.

² Shake off the dust, rise and take a seat, O Jerusalem.

Loosen the bonds on your neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

³ For this is what Jehovah says:

“You were sold for nothing,
And without money you will be repurchased.”

⁴ For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says:

“At first my people went down to Egypt to live there as foreigners;

Then As-syr'i-a oppressed them without cause.”

⁵ “What, then, should I do here?” declares Jehovah.

“For my people were taken for nothing.

Those ruling over them keep howling in triumph,” declares Jehovah,

“And constantly, all day long, my name is treated with disrespect.

⁶ For that reason my people will know my name;

For that reason they will know in that day that I am the One speaking.
Look, it is I!”

- ⁷ How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of the one bringing good news,
The one proclaiming peace,
The one bringing good news of something better,
The one proclaiming salvation,
The one saying to Zion: “Your God has become King!”
- ⁸ Listen! Your watchmen raise their voice.
In unison they shout joyfully,
For they will see it clearly when Jehovah gathers back Zion.
- ⁹ Become cheerful, shout joyfully in unison, you ruins of Jerusalem,
For Jehovah has comforted his people; he has repurchased Jerusalem.
- ¹⁰ Jehovah has bared his holy arm before the eyes of all the nations;
All the ends of the earth will see the acts of salvation of our God.
- ¹¹ Turn away, turn away, get out of there, touch
nothing unclean!
Get out from the midst of her, keep yourselves
clean,

You who are carrying the utensils of Jehovah.

¹² For you will not depart in panic,
Nor will you have to flee,
For Jehovah will go ahead of you,
And the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

¹³ Look! My servant will act with insight.
He will be raised up high,
He will be elevated and greatly exalted.

¹⁴ Just as there were many who stared at him in amazement
—For his appearance was disfigured more than that of any other man
And his stately form more than that of mankind—

¹⁵ So he will startle many nations.
Kings will shut their mouths before him,
Because they will see what they had not been told
And give consideration to what they had not heard.

53 Who has put faith in the thing heard from us?
And as for the arm of Jehovah, to whom has it been revealed?

² He will come up like a twig before him, like a root out of parched land.
No stately form does he have, nor any splendor;

And when we see him, his appearance does not draw us to him.

³ He was despised and was avoided by men,
A man who was meant for pains and was familiar with sickness.

It was as if his face were hidden from us.
He was despised, and we held him as of no account.

⁴ Truly he himself carried our sicknesses,
And he bore our pains.
But we considered him as plagued, stricken by God and afflicted.

⁵ But he was pierced for our transgression;
He was crushed for our errors.
He bore the punishment for our peace,
And because of his wounds we were healed.

⁶ Like sheep we have all wandered about,
Each has turned his own way,
And Jehovah has caused the error of us all to meet up with him.

⁷ He was oppressed and he let himself be afflicted,
But he would not open his mouth.
He was brought like a sheep to the slaughter,
Like a ewe that is silent before its shearers,
And he would not open his mouth.

- ⁸ Because of restraint and judgment he was taken away;
And who will concern himself with the details of his generation?
For he was cut off from the land of the living;
Because of the transgression of my people he received the stroke.
- ⁹ And he was given a burial place with the wicked,
And with the rich in his death,
Although he had done no wrong
And there was no deception in his mouth.
- ¹⁰ But it was Jehovah's will to crush him, and he let him become sick.
If you will present his life as a guilt offering,
He will see his offspring, he will prolong his days,
And through him the delight of Jehovah will have success.
- ¹¹ Because of his anguish, he will see and be satisfied.
By means of his knowledge the righteous one,
my servant,
Will bring a righteous standing to many people,
And their errors he will bear.
- ¹² For that reason I will assign him a portion among the many,
And he will apportion the spoil with the mighty,

Because he poured out his life even to death
And was counted among the transgressors;
He carried the sin of many people,
And he interceded for the transgressors.

54 “Shout joyfully, you barren woman who has not given birth!

Become cheerful and cry out for joy, you who never had birth pains,

For the sons of the desolate one are more numerous

Than the sons of the woman with a husband,” says Jehovah.

² “Make the place of your tent more spacious.
Stretch out the tent cloths of your grand tabernacle.

Do not hold back, lengthen your tent cords,
And make your tent pins strong.

³ For you will spread out to the right and to the left.
Your offspring will take possession of nations,
And they will inhabit the desolated cities.

⁴ Do not be afraid, for you will not be put to shame;
And do not feel humiliated, for you will not be disappointed.

For you will forget the shame of your youth,
And the disgrace of your widowhood you will remember no more.”

- ⁵ “For your Grand Maker is as your husband,
Jehovah of armies is his name,
And the Holy One of Israel is your Repurchaser.
He will be called the God of the whole earth.
- ⁶ For Jehovah called you as if you were an abandoned wife and grief-stricken,
Like a wife married in youth and then rejected,” says your God.
- ⁷ “For a brief moment I abandoned you,
But with great mercy I will gather you back.
- ⁸ In a flood of indignation I hid my face from you for a moment,
But with everlasting loyal love I will have mercy on you,” says your Repurchaser, Jehovah.
- ⁹ “This is like the days of Noah to me.
Just as I have sworn that the waters of Noah will no more cover the earth,
So I swear that I will no more become indignant toward you or rebuke you.
- ¹⁰ For the mountains may be removed
And the hills may be shaken,
But my loyal love will not be removed from you,
Nor will my covenant of peace be shaken,” says
Jehovah, the One having mercy on you.
- ¹¹ “O afflicted woman, storm-tossed, uncomforted,
I am laying your stones with hard mortar

And your foundation with sapphires.

¹² I will make your battlements of rubies,
Your gates of sparkling stones,
And all your boundaries of precious stones.

¹³ And all your sons will be taught by Jehovah,
And the peace of your sons will be abundant.

¹⁴ You will be firmly established in righteousness.
You will be far removed from oppression,
You will fear nothing and have no cause for terror,
For it will not come near you.

¹⁵ If anyone should attack you,
It will not be at my orders.
Whoever makes an attack on you will fall
because of you.”

¹⁶ “Look! I myself created the craftsman,
Who blows on the charcoal fire,
And his work produces a weapon.
I myself also created the destructive man to bring ruin.

¹⁷ No weapon formed against you will have any success,
And you will condemn any tongue that rises up against you in the judgment.
This is the heritage of the servants of Jehovah,

And their righteousness is from me," declares
Jehovah.

55 Come, all you thirsty ones, come to the water!
You with no money, come, buy and eat!
Yes, come, buy wine and milk without money and without cost.

² Why do you keep paying out money for what is not bread,
And why spend your earnings for what brings no satisfaction?
Listen intently to me, and eat what is good,
And you will find great delight in what is truly rich.

³ Incline your ear and come to me.
Listen, and you will keep alive,
And I will readily make with you an everlasting covenant
In harmony with the expressions of loyal love to David, which are faithful.

⁴ Look! I made him a witness to the nations,
A leader and commander to the nations.

⁵ Look! You will call a nation that you do not know,
And those of a nation who have not known you will run to you
For the sake of Jehovah your God, the Holy One of Israel,

Because he will glorify you.

⁶ Search for Jehovah while he may be found.
Call to him while he is near.

⁷ Let the wicked man leave his way
And the evil man his thoughts;
Let him return to Jehovah, who will have mercy
on him,
To our God, for he will forgive in a large way.

⁸ “For my thoughts are not your thoughts,
And your ways are not my ways,” declares
Jehovah.

⁹ “For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
So my ways are higher than your ways
And my thoughts than your thoughts.

¹⁰ For just as the rain and the snow pour down from heaven
And do not return there until they saturate the earth, making it produce and sprout,
Giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater,

¹¹ So my word that goes out of my mouth will be.
It will not return to me without results,
But it will certainly accomplish whatever is my delight,
And it will have sure success in what I send it to do.

¹² For you will go out with rejoicing,
And in peace you will be brought back.
The mountains and the hills will become cheerful
before you with a joyful cry,
And the trees of the field will all clap their hands.

¹³ Instead of thornbushes the juniper tree will grow,
And instead of the stinging nettle the myrtle tree will grow.
And it will bring fame to Jehovah,
An everlasting sign that will never perish.”

56 This is what Jehovah says:

“Uphold justice, and do what is righteous,
For my salvation will soon come
And my righteousness will be revealed.

² Happy is the man who does this
And the son of man who holds fast to it,
Who keeps the Sabbath and does not profane it
And who holds his hand back from any kind of evil.

³ The foreigner who joins himself to Jehovah should not say,
‘Jehovah will surely separate me from his people.’
And the eunuch should not say, ‘Look! I am a dried-up tree.’”

⁴ For this is what Jehovah says to the eunuchs who keep my sabbaths and who choose what I delight in and who hold fast to my covenant:

⁵ “I will give to them in my house and within my walls
a monument and a name,
Something better than sons and daughters.
An everlasting name I will give them,
One that will not perish.

⁶ As for the foreigners who join themselves to Jehovah to minister to him,
To love the name of Jehovah
And to be his servants,
All those who keep the Sabbath and do not profane it
And who hold fast to my covenant,

⁷ I will also bring them to my holy mountain
And make them rejoice inside my house of prayer.
Their whole burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar.
For my house will be called a house of prayer for all the peoples.”

⁸ The Sovereign Lord Jehovah, who is gathering the dispersed ones of Israel, declares:

“I will gather to him others besides those already gathered.”

- ⁹ All you wild animals of the field, come to eat,
All you wild animals in the forest.
- ¹⁰ His watchmen are blind, none of them have taken note.
All of them are speechless dogs, unable to bark.
They are panting and lying down; they love to slumber.
- ¹¹ They are dogs with a voracious appetite;
They are never satisfied.
They are shepherds who have no understanding.
They have all gone their own way;
Every last one of them seeks his own dishonest
gain and says:
- ¹² “Come, let me take some wine,
And let us drink our fill of alcohol.
And tomorrow will be like today, only far better!”
- 57 The righteous one has perished,
But no one takes it to heart.
Loyal men are taken away,
With no one discerning that the righteous one has been taken away
Because of the calamity.
- ² He enters into peace.
They rest on their beds, all who walk uprightly.
- ³ “But as for you, come closer,
You sons of a sorceress,

You children of an adulterer and a prostitute:

- ⁴ Whom are you making fun of?
Against whom do you open your mouth wide and stick out your tongue?
Are you not the children of transgression,
The children of deceit,
- ⁵ Those who are inflamed with passion among big trees,
Under every luxuriant tree,
Who slaughter the children in the valleys,
Under the clefts of the crags?
- ⁶ With the smooth stones of the valley is your portion.
Yes, these are your lot.
Even to them you pour out drink offerings and offer gifts.
Should I be satisfied with these things?
- ⁷ On a mountain high and lofty you prepared your bed,
And you went up there to offer sacrifice.
- ⁸ Behind the door and the doorpost you set up your memorial.
You left me and uncovered yourself;
You went up and made your bed spacious.
And you made a covenant with them.
You loved sharing their bed,

And you gazed at the male organ.

⁹ You went down to Mel'ech with oil
And with an abundance of perfume.
You sent your envoys far off,
So that you descended to the Grave.

¹⁰ You have toiled in following your many ways,
But you did not say, 'It is hopeless!'
You found renewed strength.
That is why you do not give up.

¹¹ Whom did you dread and fear
So that you started to lie?
You did not remember me.
You took nothing to heart.
Have I not kept silent and withdrawn?
So you showed no fear of me.

¹² I will make known your 'righteousness' and your works,
And they will not benefit you.

¹³ When you cry for help,
Your collection of idols will not rescue you.
A wind will carry all of them away,
A mere breath will blow them away,
But the one who takes refuge in me will inherit the land
And will take possession of my holy mountain.

- 14 It will be said, 'Build up, build up a road! Prepare the way!
Remove any obstacle from the way of my people.'"
- 15 For this is what the High and Lofty One says,
Who lives forever and whose name is holy:
"I reside in the high and holy place,
But also with those crushed and lowly in spirit,
To revive the spirit of the lowly
And to revive the heart of those being crushed.
- 16 For I will not oppose them forever
Or always remain indignant;
For a man's spirit would grow feeble because of me,
Even the breathing creatures that I have made.
- 17 I was indignant at his sinful pursuit of dishonest gain,
So I struck him, I hid my face, and I was indignant.
But he kept walking as a renegade, following the way of his heart.
- 18 I have seen his ways,
But I will heal him and lead him
And restore comfort to him and to his mourning ones."
- 19 "I am creating the fruit of the lips.

Continuous peace will be given to the one who is far away and the one who is near,” says
Jehovah,
“And I will heal him.”

²⁰ “But the wicked are like the restless sea that cannot calm down,
And its waters keep tossing up seaweed and mire.

²¹ There is no peace,” says my God, “for the wicked.”

Treasures From God's Word

Isaiah 53:3-5—He was despised, and he was crushed for our errors

Reference: w09 1/15 26 paragraphs 3-5.

“Despised” and Held “as of No Account”

3 Read Isaiah 53:3. Just imagine what it must have meant for the only-begotten Son of God to forgo the joy of serving at his Father's side and come to earth to give his life in sacrifice to save mankind from sin and death! (Philippians 2:5-8) His sacrifice was to accomplish real forgiveness of sins, which the offering of animal sacrifices under the Mosaic Law only foreshadowed. (Hebrews 10:1-4) Should he not have been welcomed and honored, at least by the Jews, who were awaiting the promised Messiah? (John 6:14) Instead, the Christ was “despised” by the Jews, and they “held him as of no account,” as Isaiah had prophesied. The apostle John wrote: “He came to his own home, but his own people did not take him in.” (John 1:11) The apostle Peter told the Jews: “The God of our forefathers . . . has glorified his Servant, Jesus, whom you, for your part, delivered up and disowned before Pilate's face, when he had decided to release him. Yes, you disowned that holy and righteous one.”—Acts 3:13, 14.

4 Isaiah also prophesied that Jesus was meant to have “acquaintance with sickness.” During his ministry, Jesus certainly got tired on occasion, but there is no indication that he got sick. (John 4:6) He did, however, become acquainted with the sicknesses of those to whom he preached. He felt pity for them and healed many. (Mark 1:32-34) Jesus thus fulfilled the prophecy that states: “Truly our sicknesses were what he himself carried; and as for our pains, he bore them.”—Isaiah 53:4a; Matthew 8:16, 17.

As if “Stricken by God”

5 Read Isaiah 53:4b. Many of Jesus’ contemporaries did not understand the reason for his suffering and death. They believed that God was punishing him, as if plaguing him with a loathsome disease. (Matthew 27:38-44) The Jews charged Jesus with blasphemy. (Mark 14:61-64; John 10:33) Of course, Jesus was neither a sinner nor a blasphemer. But in view of his great love for his Father, the very idea that he was to die accused of blasphemy must have added to his suffering as Jehovah’s Servant. Nevertheless, he was willing to submit to Jehovah’s will.—Matthew 26:39.

Isaiah 53:7, 8—He willingly sacrificed his life for us

Reference: w09 1/15 27 paragraph 10.

*Read Isaiah 53:7, 8. When John the Baptizer saw Jesus approaching, he exclaimed: “See, the Lamb of God that takes away the sin of the world!” (John 1:29) In speaking of Jesus as a Lamb, John may have had in mind the words of Isaiah: “He was being brought just like a lamb to the slaughtering.” (Isaiah 53:7, footnote) “He poured out his soul to the very death,” prophesied Isaiah. (Isaiah 53:12) Interestingly, on the night when Jesus instituted the Memorial of his death, he gave a cup of wine to the 11 faithful apostles and stated: “This means my ‘blood of the covenant,’ which is to be poured out in behalf of many for forgiveness of sins.”—Matthew 26:28.

Isaiah 53:11, 12—We can have a righteous standing because he remained faithful until death

Reference: w09 1/15 28 paragraph 13.

*Read Isaiah 53:11, 12. Of his chosen Servant, Jehovah stated: “The righteous one, my servant, will bring a righteous standing to many people.” In what way? The end of verse 12 gives us a clue to the answer. “And for the transgressors he [the Servant] proceeded to interpose.” All of Adam’s descendants are born sinners, “transgressors,” and therefore receive “the wages sin pays,” namely, death. (Romans 5:12;

6:23) Reconciliation between Jehovah and sinful man is necessary. Chapter 53 of Isaiah's prophecy describes beautifully how Jesus 'interposed,' or interceded, on behalf of sinful mankind, stating: "The chastisement meant for our peace was upon him, and because of his wounds there has been a healing for us."—Isaiah 53:5.

Digging for Spiritual Gems

Isaiah 54:1—Who is the "barren woman" mentioned in this prophecy, and who are her "sons"?

Reference: w06 3/15 11 paragraph 2.

Whom, then, did "the free woman" Sarah and her son, Isaac, represent? Paul indicated that Sarah, the "barren woman," symbolized God's wife, the heavenly part of his organization. This heavenly woman was barren in that before Jesus came she had no spirit-anointed "children" on the earth. (Galatians 4:27; Isaiah 54:1-6) However, at Pentecost 33 C.E., holy spirit was poured out on a group of men and women who were thus born again as children of this heavenly woman. The children produced by this organization were adopted as sons of God and became joint heirs with Jesus Christ under a new covenant relationship. (Romans 8:15-17) One of these children, the apostle Paul, could write: "The Jerusalem above is free, and she is our mother."—Galatians 4:26.

Isaiah 57:15—In what sense does Jehovah “reside” with those who are “crushed” and “lowly”?

Reference: w05 10/15 26 paragraph 3.

Jehovah is unsearchably great and lofty, yet “his eyes are roving about through all the earth to show his strength in behalf of those whose heart is complete toward him.”

(2 Chronicles 16:9) And what does Jehovah do when he finds lowly worshippers who are crushed in spirit as a result of various trials? In a sense, he “is residing” with such ones by means of his holy spirit “to revive the spirit of the lowly ones and to revive the heart of the ones being crushed.”

(Isaiah 57:15) Thus, his revived worshippers are better able to resume serving him with rejoicing. What humility on God’s part!

53:10

“It was Jehovah’s will to crush him, . . . and through him the delight of Jehovah will have success”

- Jehovah no doubt suffered when he saw his Son put to death. But he delighted to see Jesus’ absolute faithfulness. Jesus’ death provided an answer to Satan’s challenge regarding the loyalty of God’s servants and brought benefits to repentant humans. It thus helped to accomplish “Jehovah’s will”

¹⁵ God gave himself a name that is full of meaning. His name, Jehovah, means that God can fulfill any promise he makes and can carry out any purpose he has in mind.* God's name is unique, one of a kind. It belongs only to him. In a number of ways, Jehovah is unique. How is that so?

¹⁶ We saw that Psalm 83:18 said of Jehovah: "You alone are the Most High." Similarly, Jehovah alone is referred to as "the Almighty." Revelation 15:3 says: "Great and wonderful are your works, Jehovah God, the Almighty. Righteous and true are your ways, King of eternity." The title "the Almighty" teaches us that Jehovah is the most powerful being there is. His power is unmatched; it is supreme. And the title "King of eternity" reminds us that Jehovah is unique in another sense. He alone has always existed. Psalm 90:2 says: "Even from time indefinite to time indefinite [or, forever] you are God." That thought inspires awe, does it not?

* There is more information on the meaning and the pronunciation of God's name in the Appendix on pages 248-51.

15. What does the name Jehovah mean?

16, 17. What may we learn about Jehovah from the following titles:

(a) "the Almighty"? (b) "King of eternity"? (c) "Creator"?

¹⁷ Jehovah is also unique in that he alone is the Creator. Revelation 4:11 reads: “You are worthy, Jehovah, even our God, to receive the glory and the honor and the power, because you created all things, and because of your will they existed and were created.” Everything that you can think of—from the invisible spirit creatures in heaven to the stars that fill the night sky to the fruit that grows on the trees to the fish that swim in the oceans and rivers—all of it exists because Jehovah is the Creator!

CAN YOU BE CLOSE TO JEHOVAH?

¹⁸ Reading about Jehovah’s awe-inspiring qualities makes some people feel a little uneasy. They fear that God is too high for them, that they could never get close to him or even matter to such a lofty God. But is this idea correct? The Bible teaches just the opposite. It says of Jehovah: “In fact, he is not far off from each one of us.” (Acts 17:27) The Bible even urges us: “Draw close to God, and he will draw close to you.”—James 4:8.

18. Why do some people feel that they could never get close to God, but what does the Bible teach?

God's Wondrous Works

(Psalm 139)

1. O God, you know my rest and waking,
When I lie down and when I rise anew.
You search my thoughts, my inmost inclination,
The words I speak, the ways I walk,
you know them too.
You saw when I was made in secret,
My very bones not hidden from your sight.
You saw my form; its parts were down in writing.
I love the wonder of your ways and praise your might.
Your knowledge, God, is wondrous, awe-inspiring;
Of this my soul is very well-aware.
If I should fear that darkness might enfold me,
Your spirit, God, would find me, even there.
Where could I hide from you, Jehovah,
Or be concealed, be hidden from your face?
Not in the Grave nor in the highest heaven,
Not in the dark nor in the sea;
there is no place.

Help Your Children to Develop Unshakable Faith in the Creator

Creation declares Jehovah's glory. (Ps 19:1-4; 139:14) However, the Devil's world promotes God-dishonoring theories about the origin of life. (Ro 1:18-25) How can you prevent such ideas from taking root in the mind and heart of your children? Help them from an early age to develop faith that Jehovah exists and cares about them personally. (2Co 10:4, 5; Eph 6:16) Draw out their deepest thoughts about what they are taught at school, and use the many tools available to reach their heart.—Pr 20:5; Jas 1:19.

⁸ Books. Since 1914, Jehovah’s people have produced over 100 different books that discuss Bible topics. Some of those books were specifically designed to train publishers to be effective ministers. Anna Larsen, in Denmark, who has been a publisher for some 70 years, says: “Jehovah helped us to be more effective publishers by means of the Theocratic Ministry School and the associated books we received. I remember that the first of those books was the Theocratic Aid to Kingdom Publishers, released in 1945. It was followed by “Equipped for Every Good Work,” published in 1946. Now we have Benefit From Theocratic Ministry School Education, published in 2001.” Certainly, the Theocratic Ministry School and related books have played a key role as Jehovah has “adequately qualified us to be ministers.” (2 Cor. 3: 5, 6) Are you enrolled in the Theocratic Ministry School? Do you bring the Ministry School book to the meeting each week and follow along as the school overseer refers to it? If you do, you will be allowing Christ to train you to be a better teacher.—2 Cor. 9:6; 2 Tim. 2:15.

8. How can you allow Christ to train you?

⁹ Jehovah has also assisted us by having his organization provide books that help publishers to explain basic Bible teachings. The Truth That Leads to Eternal Life was a particularly effective book. It was first published in 1968 and had an immediate impact. “Demand for the Truth book has been so heavy,” stated the November 1968 Kingdom Ministry, “that in September the Society’s Brooklyn factory added a special night shift.” The article went on to explain: “At one time during August the demand for Truth books exceeded the supply by over one and a half million copies!” By 1982, over 100 million copies of the book had been published in 116 languages. In the 14 years from 1968 to 1982, the Truth book helped to add over one million Kingdom publishers to our ranks.*[2]

¹⁰ In 2005, another outstanding Bible study aid, What Does the Bible Really Teach?, was released. Some

*[2] Some other Bible study aids that have helped publishers teach Bible truth are The Harp of God (published in 1921), “Let God Be True” (published in 1946), You Can Live Forever in Paradise on Earth (published in 1982), and Knowledge That Leads to Everlasting Life (published in 1995).

200 million copies have already been published in 256 languages! With what effect? In just seven years, from 2005 to 2012, about 1.2 million people became publishers of the good news. During that same period, the number of people studying the Bible with us climbed from about 6 million to more than 8.7 million. Without a doubt, Jehovah is blessing our efforts to plant and water seeds of Kingdom truth.—Read 1 Corinthians 3:6, 7.

¹¹ Magazines. Originally, the target audience for The Watch Tower was primarily the “little flock,” those with “the heavenly calling.” (Luke 12:32; Heb. 3:1) On October 1, 1919, Jehovah’s organization released another magazine, which was designed to appeal to a different audience, the public. That magazine became so popular with the Bible Students and the public that for many years its circulation was far greater than that of The Watch Tower. That magazine was first named The Golden Age. In 1937, the name was changed to Consolation. Then, in 1946, it became known as Awake!

11, 12. In harmony with the cited scriptures, what audiences were our magazines designed to reach?

¹² Over the decades, the style and format of The Watchtower and the Awake! have changed, but the purpose has remained the same—to advertise God’s Kingdom and build faith in the Bible. Today, The Watchtower is produced in a study edition and a public edition. The “domestics” are the intended audience for the study edition—that is, both the “little flock” and the “other sheep.”*^[3] (Matt. 24:45; John 10:16) The public edition is prepared especially for those who do not yet know the truth but who have a respect for the Bible and for God. (Acts 13:16) Awake! focuses on those who know little about the Bible and the true God, Jehovah.—Acts 17:22, 23.

¹³ By the beginning of 2014, each month more than 44 million copies of Awake! and some 46 million copies of The Watchtower were published. Awake! was translated into some 100 languages, and The Watchtower, into over 200, which made them the most widely translated and distributed magazines on earth! As remarkable as those achievements are, they should not surprise us. These magazines contain the message that Jesus said would be preached in all the inhabited earth.—Matt. 24:14.

14 The Bible. In 1896, Brother Russell and his associates changed the name of the corporation they used to publish literature so that it included the word Bible; it became known as the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society. That change was appropriate because the Bible has always been the primary tool for spreading the good news about the Kingdom. (Luke 24:27) In harmony with the legal corporation's name, God's servants have zealously promoted the distribution and reading of the Bible. For example, in 1926, we printed on our own presses The Emphatic Diaglott, a translation of the Christian Greek Scriptures produced by Benjamin Wilson. Beginning in 1942, we printed and distributed some 700,000 copies of the entire King James Version. Just two years later, we began printing the American Standard Version, which uses Jehovah's name in 6,823 places. By 1950, we had distributed over 250,000 copies.

14. What have we zealously promoted, and why?

24 Come to Jehovah's Mountain

(Isaiah 2:2-4)

1. Raise your eyes up and see,
Far above the highest hill.
There stands Jehovah's mountain
Lifted up in this day.
People come from afar,
Ev'rywhere from sea to sea,
Calling to one another,
'Come serve God and obey.'
Now the time has arrived
For the small, a great nation to be.
As we grow and we thrive,
God's direction and blessing we see.
Millions now come to God
And accept his sov'reignty.
Loyal they vow to be
And from his side never stray.

2. Jesus gave the command
 To go forth and preach the word.
Good news about the Kingdom
 Reaches all men today.

Christ now rules from above,
 Urging all to take his side.
Meek ones who hear his voice
 Let God's Word show them the way.

 It brings joy to the heart,
 As the great crowd continues to grow.
And we all have a part,
 As we strive to let ev'ryone know.

Let us lift up the voice,
 Calling out for all to hear,
'Come to Jehovah's mountain,
 Here forever to stay.'

He Will Make You Strong

(1 Peter 5:10)

1. There was a reason why God brought the truth to you
And called you from the darkness to the light.
Within your heart, he saw the longing that you had
To search for him and practice what is right.
You promised him in prayer to do his will;
He helped you then, and he will help you still.

(CHORUS)

With Jesus' blood He bought you, to God you now belong.

*So he will make you firm,
and he will make you strong.*

*He'll guide you and protect you,
as he has all along.*

*Yes, he will make you firm,
and he will make you strong.*

2. God gave his own beloved Son in your behalf;
On this account, He wants you to succeed.
If He did not withhold the gift of His dear Son,
Then never doubt He'll give the strength you need.
He won't forget the faith and love you've shown;
He will not fail to care for all His own.

(Chorus)

Throw All Your Anxiety on Jehovah

because he cares for you.”—1 PET. 5:7.*

SONGS: 38, 7

CAN YOU EXPLAIN?

How can God’s Word relieve our anxiety?

How can you experience “the peace of God”?

How can the congregation help you to reduce anxiety?

WE LIVE in very stressful times. Satan the Devil is bitterly angry and “walks about like a roaring lion, seeking to devour someone.” (1 Pet. 5:8; Rev. 12:17) Therefore, it is not surprising that at times even we, God’s servants, experience some feelings of anxiety. After all, on occasion, God-fearing servants of Jehovah in the past, such as

1, 2. (a) Why should we not be surprised when we experience some anxiety? (See opening picture of the standard edition.) (b) What will we consider in this article?

King David, had “anxious concern.” (Ps. 13:2) Recall, too, that the apostle Paul experienced “anxiety for all the congregations.” (2 Cor. 11:28) But what can we do when we are overwhelmed by feelings of anxiety?

2 Our loving heavenly Father came to the aid of his servants in the past, and today he makes it possible for us to gain considerable relief from distress or anxiety. The Bible urges us: “Throw all your anxiety [“cares; worries,” ftn.] on him, because he cares for you.” (1 Pet. 5:7) How, though, can you do that? Let us consider four ways that you can do so—by means of heartfelt prayer, by reading God’s Word and meditating on it, by tapping into Jehovah’s holy spirit, and by sharing your feelings with a trusted confidant. As we examine these four ways, see if you can identify practical steps that you want to take.

“THROW YOUR BURDEN ON JEHOVAH”

3 A first step we can take is to approach Jehovah in earnest prayer. When you are confronted by situations that cause uneasiness, apprehension, or anxiety, pour out your heart to your loving heavenly Father. The psalmist David begged Jehovah: “Listen to my prayer, O God.” Then in the same psalm, he said: “Throw your burden on Jehovah, and he will sustain you.” (Ps. 55:1, 22) After you have done all you can to solve a problem, heartfelt prayer will certainly accomplish more than worry. But how can prayer help you to avoid becoming overwhelmed by disquieting thoughts and anguish?—Ps. 94:18, 19, ftn.

4 Read Philippians 4:6, 7. Jehovah can respond to our earnest, heartfelt, and persistent

3. How can you “throw your burden on Jehovah” by means of prayer?

4. When we are anxious, why is prayer so important?

supplications. How? By giving us inner calm that can free our mind and heart of disturbing emotions. Many can testify to this, based on their own experience. In place of anxiety, a distressing sense of foreboding, God helped them to gain a profound sense of peace and tranquillity that actually surpassed human understanding. That can be your experience too. Thus “the peace of God” can triumph over any challenge you may face. You can fully trust Jehovah’s compassionate promise: “Do not be anxious, for I am your God. I will fortify you, yes, I will help you.”—Isa. 41:10.

INNER PEACE FROM GOD’S WORD

5 A second way to gain inner peace is by reading Bible texts and meditating on them. Why is this important? The Bible contains practical spiritual guidance that can help you to avoid, reduce, or deal with anxiety. Do not overlook the fact that God’s Word is helpful and refreshing because it contains the Creator’s own words of wisdom. As you reflect on God’s thoughts—day or night—and consider how best to use the Bible’s practical guidance, you will be greatly strengthened. Jehovah specifically linked reading his Word with being “courageous and strong” and not being “struck with terror or fear.”—Josh. 1: 7-9.

5. How can God’s Word bring us inner peace?

6 In God’s Word, we find Jesus’ soothing sayings. His words and teachings were a source of refreshment to his listeners. Multitudes were drawn to him because he calmed troubled hearts, strengthened the weak, and consoled the depressed. (Read Matthew 11:28-30.) He showed loving consideration for others’ spiritual, emotional, and physical needs. (Mark 6:30-32) Jesus’ promise of support still applies. It can prove to be as true for you as it was for the apostles traveling with Jesus. You do not have to be in Jesus' physical presence to benefit. As heavenly King, Jesus continues to have and show empathy. Thus, when you are anxious, he can mercifully 'come to your aid' and 'help you at the right time.' Yes, Jesus can help you to cope with distress, and he can fill your heart with hope and courage. —Heb. 2:17, 18; 4:16.

6. Jesus’ words can have what positive effect on you?

GODLY QUALITIES PRODUCED BY GOD'S SPIRIT

7 Jesus promised that our Father in heaven will not fail to give holy spirit to those asking Him. (Luke 11:10-13) This puts at your disposal a third, powerful means to alleviate anxiety—the fruitage of the spirit. These positive qualities that are produced by God's active force reflect the very personality of the almighty God. (Read Galatians 5:22, 23; Col. 3:10) As you cultivate the fruitage of that spirit, your relationship with others will improve. Thus, you will find that many situations that could otherwise cause anxiety do not arise. Reflect briefly on how the fruitage of the spirit will help you.
7. How will you benefit as God responds when you ask for holy spirit?

8 “Love, joy, peace.” When you strive to deal respectfully with people, you will likely find that you are better able to deal with your own negative emotions. How is that so? Well, as you show brotherly love, tender affection, and honor, you will avoid situations that could cause anxiety.—Rom. 12:10.

9 “Patience, kindness, goodness.” You promote peaceful relationships by heeding the admonition: “Become kind to one another, tenderly compassionate, freely forgiving one another.”

8-12. How can the fruitage of God’s holy spirit help you to deal with or avoid stressful situations?

(Eph. 4:32) In so doing, you prevent situations from developing that could otherwise cause anxiety. Also, you can deal more effectively with situations that arise because of human imperfection.

10 “Faith.” Today, our anxiety is often related to concern over money and material possessions. (Prov. 18:11) Accordingly, strong faith in Jehovah’s loving care can help you to cope with or avoid such anxiety. How is that? You can avoid much anxiety by heeding the apostle Paul’s inspired counsel to be “content with the present things.” Paul adds: “For [God] has said: ‘I will never leave you, and I will never abandon you.’ So that we may be of good courage and say: ‘Jehovah is my helper; I will not be afraid. What can man do to me?’”—Heb. 13:5, 6.

11 “Mildness, self-control.” Think how practical and effective it is for you to display those qualities. Thus, you will likely avoid actions that could cause anxiety for you personally, and you will benefit by avoiding “malicious bitterness, anger, wrath, screaming, and abusive speech.” —Eph. 4:31.

12 Admittedly, you will need humility to yield to “the mighty hand of God” and to “throw all your anxiety on him.” (1 Pet. 5:6, 7) But as you cultivate humility, you will be on a path that results in God’s favor and support. (Mic. 6:8) By maintaining a realistic estimate of your physical, mental, and emotional abilities, you will be less likely to become overwhelmed by anxiety, for you will be relying on God.

“NEVER BE ANXIOUS”

13 At Matthew 6:34 (read), we find Jesus’ profound advice: “Never be anxious.” It may,

13. What did Jesus mean when he said: “Never be anxious”?

however, seem difficult to follow that advice. What did Jesus mean when he said: “Never be anxious”? Obviously, he could not have meant that a servant of God would not at some point in life experience anxiety; we have already noted the words of David and of Paul on this matter. But Jesus was helping his disciples to realize that undue, or extreme, anxiety does not solve problems. Each day has its own challenges, so Christians do not need to add anxious thoughts about the past or the future to the concerns of the present. How can you apply Jesus’ advice and experience relief from debilitating anxiety?

14 Some anxiety may be caused by a person’s past actions or failings. He may be plagued with guilt about something he did in the past, even many years ago. At times, King David felt that his ‘errors loomed over his head.’ He admitted:

14. How can you deal with anxiety about your past?

“My anguished heart makes me groan aloud.”
(Ps. 38:3, 4, 8, 18) In that situation, what was the wise thing for David to do? What did he do? He trusted in Jehovah’s mercy and forgiveness. With conviction he said: “Happy is the one whose transgression is pardoned.”—Read Psalm 32:1-3, 5.

15 At other times, you may become anxious about the present. For instance, when David wrote Psalm 55, he feared for his life. (Ps. 55:2-5)
Nevertheless, he did not allow anxiety to destroy his confidence in Jehovah. David made his problems a subject of fervent prayer, but he also understood the value of taking practical steps to deal with the cause of the anxiety. (2 Sam. 15:30-34) Learn a lesson from David. Instead of allowing anxiety to overwhelm you, take what steps you can to deal with the situation and then confidently leave matters in Jehovah's hands.

16 Unwarranted anxiety often results if a Christian agonizes over possible future problems. However, you need not be consumed by anxiety, or worry, over events that you do not know anything about. Why not? Because things often do not turn out to be as bad as we feared they might be. Moreover, there is no situation beyond the control of the God on whom you can throw all your anxiety. His very name is understood to mean "He Causes to Become." (Ex. 3:14) The profound meaning of the divine name assures us that God is fully capable of seeing to it that his purposes in behalf of his servants are carried out. You can be certain that God can reward his faithful ones and help them deal with anxiety about the past, the present, and the future.

HEARTFELT COMMUNICATION

17 A fourth way to help you cope with anxiety

17, 18. How can good communication help you to cope with anxiety?

is good communication, sharing your feelings with a trusted confidant. A marriage mate, a close friend, or a congregation elder may be able to help you to put your anxiety into perspective. “Anxiety in a man’s heart weighs it down, but a good word cheers it up.” (Prov. 12:25) Frank and honest communication can do much to help you to understand and deal with your concerns. The Bible tells us: “Plans fail when there is no consultation, but there is accomplishment through many advisers.”—Prov. 15:22.

18 Jehovah also helps Christians to deal with anxieties by means of weekly congregation meetings. There you can associate with fellow believers who are concerned about you and who want to encourage one another. (Heb. 10:24,25) Such “an interchange of encouragement” will help to replenish your spiritual resources and make it easier for you to deal with any anxiety.—Rom. 1:12.

YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD —YOUR GREATEST STRENGTH

19 Consider how a congregation elder in Canada learned the value of throwing his anxiety on Jehovah. He has a high-stress job as a school-teacher and counselor, and he also has had to deal with an anxiety disorder. How has this brother coped? “Above all,” he explains, “I find that working hard to fortify my relationship with Jehovah gives me the greatest strength to cope with emotional difficulties. The support of true friends and spiritual brothers is vital in times of distress. I am open and honest with my wife about my feelings. Fellow elders and our circuit overseer were invaluable in helping me put things into perspective. I also sought medical help, made changes in the way I managed my time, and set aside time to relax and exercise. Gradually, I began to feel more

19. Why can you be confident that your relationship with God will strengthen you?

in control. When there are things that I cannot control, I leave matters in Jehovah’s hands.”

20 In summary, we have noted the value of throwing our anxiety on God by means of heartfelt prayer and by reading his Word and meditating on it. We also considered the value of cultivating the fruitage of his spirit, sharing our feelings with a trusted confidant, and drawing strength from upbuilding Christian association. The next article will discuss how Jehovah further sustains us by providing us with the hope of a reward. —Heb. 11:6.

20. (a) How can we throw our anxiety on God? (b) What will we discuss in the following article?

Jehovah, Our Strength

(Isaiah 12:2)

1. Gracious Jehovah, our strength and our might,
You are our Savior, in you we delight.
We are your Witnesses bearing your news,
Whether men hear or they proudly refuse.

(CHORUS)

*Jehovah, our Rock, Our strength and our might,
Your name we make known Both day and night.
Glorious Jehovah, Almighty in pow'r,
You are our hiding place; You are our Tow'r.*

2. We who now serve you rejoice in your light;
Eyes that are opened now see truth and right.
Searching the Scriptures, we hear your command;
Making our choice, for your Kingdom we stand.

(Chorus)

3. Gladly, O God, we keep doing your will.
Though Satan mocks us, we're trusting you still.
Though he may slay us, oh, help us to be
Firm to the end for your grand Sov'reignty.

(Chorus)
