ZECHARIAH 9-14 | Stay in “the Valley of the Mountains”

14:3-5

Jehovah formed “a very great valley” in 1914 when he established the Messianic Kingdom, a subsidiary “mountain” to his universal sovereignty. Since 1919, God’s servants have found safety in “the valley of the mountains”

 How do people “flee to the valley” of protection?

14:12, 15

Anyone outside the symbolic valley will be destroyed at Armageddon

How do I stay in the valley of protection?

8

Jehovah Is Our Refuge

(Psalm 91)

1. Jehovah is our refuge,
Our God in whom we trust.
His shadow is our shelter;
Remain in it we must.
His faithful ones he will defend,
On this we know we can depend.
Jehovah is a stronghold,
Ever faithful, loyal, and just.
2. Though thousands will have fallen
And many at our side,
The righteous and the meek ones
Will never be denied.
So in our hearts we need not fear;
Calamity will not come near.
From danger he will shield us,
For beneath God's wings we'll reside.
3. He'll keep us and protect us
From snares along our way,
From terrors in the nighttime,
And arrows by the day.
Yes, there will be no cause for dread,
No place where we will fear to tread.
Jehovah is our refuge,
Ever guarding us on our way.

Zechariah 9-14

9 A pronouncement:

“The word of Jehovah is against the land of Ha'drach,
And Damascus is its target
—For Jehovah’s eye is on mankind
And on all the tribes of Israel—

² And against Ha'math, which borders on her,
And against Tyre and Si'don, for they are so wise.

³ Tyre built herself a rampart.
She piled up silver like dust
And gold like the dirt of the streets.

⁴ Look! Jehovah will take away her possessions,
And he will strike down her army into the sea;
And she will be consumed in the fire.

⁵ Ash'ke-lon will see it and be afraid;
Gaz'a will feel great anguish,
Also Ek'ron, because her hope is put to shame.
A king will perish from Gaz'a,
And Ash'ke-lon will not be inhabited.

⁶ An illegitimate son will settle in Ash'dod,
And I will do away with the pride of the Phi-lis'tine.

- ⁷ I will remove the bloodstained things from his mouth
And the disgusting things from between his teeth,
And he will be left remaining for our God;
And he will become like a sheikh in Judah,
And Ek'ron like the Jeb'u-site.
- ⁸ I will encamp as a guard for my house,
So that there will be no one passing through and
no one returning;
And no taskmaster will pass through again,
For now I have seen it with my eyes.
- ⁹ Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion.
Shout in triumph, O daughter of Jerusalem.
Look! Your king is coming to you.
He is righteous, bringing salvation,
Humble and riding on a donkey,
On a colt, the foal of a female donkey.
- ¹⁰ I will take away the war chariot from E'phra·im
And the horse from Jerusalem.
The battle bow will be taken away.
And he will proclaim peace to the nations;
His rulership will be from sea to sea
And from the River to the ends of the earth.
- ¹¹ As for you, O woman, by the blood of your covenant,

- I will send your prisoners out of the waterless pit.
- ¹² Return to the stronghold, you prisoners with hope.
Today I am telling you,
'I will repay to you, O woman, a double portion.
- ¹³ For I will bend Judah as my bow.
The bow I will fill with E'phra·im,
And I will awaken your sons, O Zion,
Against your sons, O Greece,
And I will make you like a warrior's sword.'
- ¹⁴ Jehovah will be seen over them,
And his arrow will go out like lightning.
The Sovereign Lord Jehovah will sound the horn,
And he will advance with the windstorms of the south.
- ¹⁵ Jehovah of armies will defend them,
And they will devour and subdue the slingstones.
They will drink and be boisterous, as if with wine;
And they will be filled like the bowl,
Like the corners of the altar.
- ¹⁶ Jehovah their God will save them in that day
As the flock of his people;
For they will be like the gemstones of a crown glittering over his soil.
- ¹⁷ For how great his goodness is,
And how great his handsomeness is!
Grain will make the young men thrive,

And new wine the virgins.”

10 “Ask Jehovah for rain in the time of the spring rain.
It is Jehovah who makes the storm clouds,
Who pours rain for them,
And gives vegetation in the field to everyone.

2 For the teraphim statues have spoken deception;
And the diviners have visioned a lie.
They speak about worthless dreams,
And in vain they try to comfort.
That is why they will wander like sheep.
They will suffer, for there is no shepherd.

3 Against the shepherds my anger burns,
And against the oppressive leaders I will hold an accounting;
For Jehovah of armies has turned his attention to his flock, to the house of Judah,
And he has made them like his majestic horse in the battle.

4 From him comes the keyman,
From him comes the supporting ruler,
From him comes the battle bow;
From him goes forth every overseer, all of them together.

5 And they will become like warriors,
Trampling down the mud of the streets in the battle.

They will wage war, for Jehovah is with them;
And the riders of horses will be put to shame.

⁶ I will make the house of Judah superior,
And the house of Joseph I will save.
I will restore them,
For I will show them mercy;
And they will be as though I had never cast them off;
For I am Jehovah their God, and I will answer them.

⁷ Those of E'phra·im must become like a mighty warrior,
And their heart will rejoice as though from wine.
Their sons will see this and rejoice;
Their heart will be joyful in Jehovah.

⁸ 'I will whistle for them and gather them together;
For I will redeem them, and they will become many,
And continue to be many.

⁹ Though I scatter them like seed among the peoples,
They will remember me in the distant places;
With their sons they will revive and return.

¹⁰ I will bring them back from the land of Egypt
And gather them from As·syr'i·a;

I will bring them to the land of Gil'e-ad and Leb'a-non,
And there will be no more room for them.

¹¹ He must pass through the sea with distress;
And in the sea he will strike down the waves;
All the depths of the Nile will dry up.
The pride of As-syr'i-a will be brought down,
And the scepter of Egypt will depart.

¹² I will make them superior in Jehovah,
And they will walk about in his name,' declares
Jehovah."

11 "Open your doors, O Leb'a-non,
So that a fire may consume your cedars.

² Wail, you juniper, for the cedar has fallen;
The majestic trees have been destroyed!
Wail, you oaks of Ba'shan,
For the dense forest has come down!

³ Listen! The wailing of shepherds,
For their majesty has been devastated.
Listen! The roaring of young lions,
For the dense thickets along the Jordan have been destroyed.

⁴ "This is what Jehovah my God says, 'Shepherd the flock meant for the slaughter, ⁵ whose buyers slaughtered them and are not held guilty. And those who sell them say, "May Jehovah be praised, for I will become rich.” And their shepherds have no compassion for them.’

⁶ “‘For I will no longer show compassion on the inhabitants of the land,’ declares Jehovah. ‘So I will cause each man to fall into the hand of his neighbor and his king; and they will crush the land, and I will not rescue them out of their hand.’”

⁷ And I began to shepherd the flock meant for slaughter, in your behalf, O afflicted ones of the flock. So I took two staves, and I called one Pleasantness, and the other Union, and I began to shepherd the flock.
⁸ And I dismissed three shepherds in one month, for I became impatient with them, and they detested me as well. ⁹ And I said: “I will not keep shepherding you. Let the one who is dying die, and let the one perishing perish. As for those who are left, let them devour one another’s flesh.” ¹⁰ So I took my staff Pleasantness and cut it up, breaking my covenant that I had made with all the peoples. ¹¹ So it was broken in that day, and the afflicted ones of the flock who were watching me knew that it was the word of Jehovah.

¹² Then I said to them: “If it seems good to you, give me my wages; but if not, withhold them.” And they paid my wages, 30 pieces of silver.

¹³ Then Jehovah said to me: “Throw it into the treasury—the magnificent value with which they valued me.” So I took the 30 pieces of silver and threw it into the treasury at the house of Jehovah.

¹⁴ Then I cut up my second staff, the Union, breaking the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

¹⁵ And Jehovah said to me: “Now take the equipment of a useless shepherd. ¹⁶ For I am letting a shepherd rise up in the land. He will not take care of the sheep that are perishing; he will not seek out the young or heal the injured or feed those able to stand. Instead, he devours the flesh of the fat one and tears off the hooves of the sheep.

¹⁷ Woe to my worthless shepherd, who is abandoning the flock!

A sword will strike his arm and his right eye.
His arm will wither completely,
And his right eye will go completely blind.”

12 A pronouncement:

“The word of Jehovah concerning Israel,”
declares Jehovah,
The One who stretched out the heavens,
Who laid the foundation of the earth,
And who formed the spirit of man within him.

² “Here I am making Jerusalem a cup that causes all the surrounding peoples to stagger; and there will be a siege against Judah as well as against Jerusalem. ³ In that day I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone to all the peoples. All those who lift it are sure to be severely injured; and all the nations of the earth will be gathered against her. ⁴ In that day,” declares Jehovah, “I will strike every horse with panic and its rider with madness. I will keep my eyes on the house of Judah, but I will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness. ⁵ And the sheikhs of Judah will say in their heart, ‘The inhabitants of Jerusalem are a strength to me by means of Jehovah of armies their God.’ ⁶ In that day I will make the sheikhs of Judah like a fiery pot among wood and like a fiery torch in a row of cut grain, and they will consume all the surrounding peoples on the right and on the left; and Jerusalem will again be inhabited in her place, in Jerusalem.

⁷ “And Jehovah will save the tents of Judah first, so that the beauty of the house of David and the beauty of the inhabitants of Jerusalem may not be too great over Judah. ⁸ In that day Jehovah will be a defense around the inhabitants of Jerusalem; in that day the one who stumbles among them will be like David, and the house of David like God, like Jehovah’s angel who goes before them. ⁹ And in that day I will be certain to annihilate all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

¹⁰ “I will pour out on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem the spirit of favor and supplication, and they will look to the one whom they pierced, and they will wail over him as they would wail over an only son; and they will grieve bitterly over him as they would grieve over a firstborn son. ¹¹ In that day the wailing in Jerusalem will be great, like the wailing at Ha-dad-rim'mon in the Plain of Me-gid'do. ¹² And the land will wail, each family by itself; the family of David's house by itself, and their women by themselves; the family of Nathan's house by itself, and their women by themselves; ¹³ the family of Le'vi's house by itself, and their women by themselves; the family of the Shim'e-ites by itself, and their women by themselves; ¹⁴ and all the families that are left remaining, each family by itself, and their women by themselves.

13 "In that day a well will be opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for cleansing sin and impurity.

² "In that day," declares Jehovah of armies, "I will erase the names of the idols from the land, and they will no longer be remembered; and I will rid the land of the prophets and the spirit of uncleanness. ³ And if a man should prophesy again, his father and his mother who caused his birth will say to him, 'You will not live, because you have spoken lies in the name of Jehovah.' And his father and his mother who caused his birth will pierce him through because of his prophesying.

⁴ “In that day each of the prophets will be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies; and they will not wear an official garment of hair in order to deceive. ⁵ And he will say, ‘I am no prophet. I am a man cultivating the soil, because a man bought me when I was young.’ ⁶ And if someone asks him, ‘What are these wounds between your shoulders?’ he will answer, ‘Wounds I received in the house of my friends.’”

⁷ “O sword, awake against my shepherd, Against the man who is my companion,” declares Jehovah of armies.
“Strike the shepherd, and let the flock be scattered;
And I will turn my hand against those who are insignificant.”

⁸ “And in all the land,” declares Jehovah,
“Two parts in it will be cut off and perish;
And the third part will be left remaining in it.

⁹ And I will bring the third part through the fire;
And I will refine them as silver is refined,
And test them as gold is tested.
They will call on my name,
And I will answer them.
I will say, ‘They are my people,’
And they will say, ‘Jehovah is our God.’”

14 “Look! The day is coming, a day belonging to Jehovah, when the spoil from you will be divided in your midst. ² I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem for the war; and the city will be captured and the houses plundered and the women raped. And half of the city will go into exile, but the remaining ones of the people will not be cut off from the city.

³ “Jehovah will go out and war against those nations as when he fights in the day of a battle. ⁴ In that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, which faces Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives will be split in half, from east to west, forming a very great valley; and half of the mountain will move to the north, and half of it to the south. ⁵ You will flee to the valley of my mountains, for the valley of the mountains will extend all the way to A'zel. You will have to flee, just as you fled because of the earthquake in the days of King Uz·zi'ah of Judah. And Jehovah my God will come, and all the holy ones will be with him.

⁶ “In that day there will be no precious light—things will be congealed. ⁷ And it will become one day that is known as belonging to Jehovah. It will not be day, nor will it be night; and at evening time there will be light. ⁸ In that day living waters will flow out from Jerusalem, half of them toward the eastern sea and half of them toward the western sea. It will happen in summer and in winter. ⁹ And Jehovah will be King over all the earth. In that day Jehovah will be one, and his name one.

¹⁰ “The whole land will become like the Ar'a-bah, from Ge'ba to Rim'mon south of Jerusalem; and she will rise and be inhabited in her place, from the Gate of Benjamin all the way to the site of the First Gate, all the way to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Ha-nan'el all the way to the winepresses of the king.

¹¹ And people will inhabit her; and there will never again be a curse of destruction, and Jerusalem will be inhabited in security.

¹² “And this is the scourge with which Jehovah will scourge all the peoples who wage war against Jerusalem: Their flesh will rot away while they stand on their feet, their eyes will rot away in their sockets, and their tongues will rot away in their mouths.

¹³ “In that day confusion from Jehovah will be widespread among them; and each one will grab hold of the hand of his companion, and his hand will come against the hand of his companion. ¹⁴ Judah will also be involved in the war at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered, gold and silver and garments in vast quantity.

¹⁵ “And a scourge like that scourge will also come against the horses, the mules, the camels, the donkeys, and all the livestock that are in those camps.

¹⁶ “Everyone who is left remaining out of all the nations that come against Jerusalem will go up from year to year to bow down to the King, Jehovah of armies, and to celebrate the Festival of Booths. ¹⁷ But if anyone among the families of the earth does not go up to Jerusalem to bow down to the King, Jehovah of armies, no rain will fall on them. ¹⁸ And if the family of Egypt does not come up and does not come in, they will have no rain. Instead, they will have the scourge with which Jehovah scourges the nations that do not come up to celebrate the Festival of Booths. ¹⁹ This will be the punishment for the sin of Egypt and the sin of all the nations that do not come up to celebrate the Festival of Booths.

²⁰ “In that day the words ‘Holiness belongs to Jehovah!’ will be written on the bells of the horses. And the cooking pots in the house of Jehovah will be like the bowls before the altar. ²¹ And every cooking pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy and will belong to Jehovah of armies, and all those who are sacrificing will come in and use some of them for boiling. In that day there will no longer be a Ca'naan-ite in the house of Jehovah of armies.”

December 18-24

Treasures From God's Word

Zechariah 14:3, 4—The “very great valley” represents divine protection

Reference: w13 2/15 19 paragraph 10.

When the symbolic mountain splits, half to the north and half to the south, Jehovah's feet remain set upon both mountains. “A very great valley” comes into existence beneath Jehovah's feet. This symbolic valley represents divine protection, by which Jehovah's servants find safety under his universal sovereignty and his Son's Messianic Kingdom. Jehovah will make sure that pure worship will never be snuffed out. When did this division of the mountain of the olive trees take place? It occurred when the Messianic Kingdom was established at the end of the Gentile Times in 1914. When did the flight of true worshippers to the symbolic valley begin?

Zechariah 14:5—Those who “flee to the valley” and stay there will be protected

Reference: w13 2/15 20 paragraph 13.

If we stick to Jehovah and stand firm in the truth, he and his Son, Jesus Christ, will do their part, and God will not allow anyone or anything to ‘snatch us out of His hand.’ (John 10:28, 29) Jehovah is ready to extend whatever help is needed so that we may obey him as the Universal Sovereign and remain loyal subjects of the Messianic Kingdom. It is imperative that we remain in the valley of protection, for that valley will take on even greater meaning for true worshippers during the fast-approaching great tribulation.

Zechariah 14:6, 7, 12, 15—Those outside Jehovah’s valley of protection will be destroyed

Reference: w13 2/15 20 paragraph 15.

On the day of God’s warring, what will be the situation of those outside the “great valley” of protection? They will have “no precious light” of divine favor shining upon them. In that coming day of fight, “the horse, the mule, the camel, and the male ass, and every sort of domestic animal” — symbols of the nations’ military equipment—will be affected. Such equipment will be “congealed,” put out of operation as if stiffened by cold. Jehovah will also use pestilence and “the scourge.” Whether literal or not, the scourge will silence terrifying threats. On that day, “one’s very eyes . . . and tongue will rot away” in that the attackers will be able to strike out only blindly and their defiant speech will be silenced. (Zechariah 14:6, 7, 12, 15) No section of the earth will escape destruction. The forces lined up on Satan's side in the battle will be tremendous.

(Revelation 19:19-21) "Those slain by Jehovah will certainly come to be in that day from one end of the earth clear to the other end."—Jeremiah 25:32, 33.

Zechariah 12:3—How does Jehovah "make Jerusalem a heavy stone"?

Reference: w07 12/15 22-23 paragraphs 9-10.

Jerusalem—"A Burdensome Stone"

9 Zechariah's prophecy sheds light on the reason why the nations take their stand against true Christians. Note what Zechariah 12:3 says: "It must occur in that day that I shall make Jerusalem a burdensome stone to all the peoples." To which Jerusalem does this prophecy point? Zechariah's prophecy concerning Jerusalem applies to "heavenly Jerusalem," the heavenly Kingdom to which anointed Christians have been called. (Hebrews 12:22) A small remnant of these heirs of the Messianic Kingdom are still on earth. Along with their companions, the "other sheep," they urge people to turn to God's Kingdom while there is yet time. (John 10:16; Revelation 11:15) How have the nations reacted to this invitation? And what kind of support does Jehovah give to true worshippers today? Let us find out as we further examine the meaning of Zechariah chapter 12. Doing so, we can gain the assurance that ‘no weapon will succeed’ against God’s anointed ones and their dedicated associates.

10 Zechariah 12:3 indicates that the nations receive “severe scratches.” How does this happen? God has decreed that the good news of the Kingdom must be preached. Jehovah’s Witnesses take seriously the obligation to preach. However, the heralding of the Kingdom as mankind’s only hope has become “a burdensome stone” to the nations. They try to lift it out of the way by interfering with the Kingdom preachers. In so doing, the meddling nations have received “severe scratches for themselves,” getting all cut up. Even their reputations have been hurt as they meet with humiliating failure. They cannot silence true worshippers, who cherish the privilege of proclaiming the “everlasting good news” of God’s Messianic Kingdom before the end of this system of things. (Revelation 14:6) When seeing the violence done to Jehovah’s servants, a prison guard in one African land said, in effect: ‘You are wasting your efforts in persecuting these people. They will never compromise. They just increase.’

Zechariah 12:7—How will Jehovah “save the tents of Judah first”?

Reference: w07 12/15 25 paragraph 13.

Read Zechariah 12:7, 8. In ancient Israel, tents were a distinctive feature in the land, at times being used by shepherds and agricultural workers. Such people would be the first affected and would be in need of protection if an enemy nation came to attack the city of Jerusalem. The expression “the tents of Judah” indicates that the anointed remnant in our time are out in the open field, so to speak, not in fortified cities. There they fearlessly defend the interests of the Messianic Kingdom. Jehovah of armies will save “the tents of Judah first” because these are in the direct line of Satan’s attack.

How do I stay in the valley of protection?

G O D ' S N A M E

Millions of people address God using respectful titles, such as Lord, the Eternal, Allah, or simply God. However, God has a personal name. Should you use it?

What is God's name?

WHAT SOME PEOPLE SAY Many professed Christians believe that God's name is Jesus. Others claim that since there is only one Almighty God, using a personal name for him is unnecessary. Still others argue that using a proper name for God is inappropriate.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS Almighty God's name is not Jesus, since Jesus is not God Almighty. In fact, Jesus taught fellow worshippers to pray to God saying: "Father, let your name be sanctified." (Luke 11:2) Jesus himself prayed to God: "Father, glorify your name."—John 12:28.

In the Bible, God declares: "I am Jehovah. That is my name; I give my glory to no one else." (Isaiah 42:8) "Jehovah" is an English translation of the four Hebrew consonants YHWH, which constitute the divine name. That name appears some 7,000 times in the Hebrew Scriptures.* It is used more often than any title, such as "God," "Almighty," or "Lord," and more frequently than any other name, such as Abraham, Moses, or David.

* Many Bible translations omit God's name and replace it with the title "LORD" in capital letters, while others include God's name only in select verses or footnotes. The New World Translation of the Holy Scriptures uses the divine name extensively throughout the text.

Nowhere in the Bible does Jehovah prohibit the respectful use of his name. Instead, the Scriptures reveal that the divine name was freely used by God's servants. They included it in the names they gave their children, such as Elijah, which means "My God Is Jehovah," and Zechariah, which means "Jehovah Has Remembered." And they did not hesitate to use God's name in daily conversations.—Ruth 2:4.

God wants us to use his name. We are encouraged to "give thanks to Jehovah, call on his name." (Psalm 105:1) He even takes favorable note of those "meditating on his name."—Malachi 3:16.

"May people know that you, whose name is Jehovah, you alone are the Most High over all the earth."—Psalm 83:18.

What does God’s name mean?

Some scholars believe that in Hebrew the name Jehovah means “He Causes to Become.” That definition implies that God can cause himself or his creation to become whatever is needed to accomplish his will. Only the almighty Creator could live up to such a name.

WHAT IT MEANS FOR YOU Knowing God’s name will change the way you think about him. You will find it easier to draw close to him. After all, how can you be close to someone whose name you do not know? Why, the very fact that God has revealed his name to you shows that he wants you to draw close to him.—James 4:8.

You can be certain that Jehovah will always live up to his name as a God who makes things happen. That is why the Bible states: “Those knowing your name will trust in you.” (Psalm 9:10) You develop that trust as you learn that Jehovah’s name is inseparably linked to his qualities, such as loyal love, mercy, compassion, and justice. (Exodus 34:5-7) How reassuring to know that while Jehovah will always keep his promises, he will never act contrary to his qualities.

Clearly, to know Almighty God by name is a privilege. It can open up blessings for you now and in the future. God promises: “I will protect him because he knows my name.”—Psalm 91:14. ■

What Will You Experience at Our Christian Meetings?

Many people have stopped attending religious services because they find no spiritual guidance or comfort. Why, then, should you attend the Christian meetings organized by Jehovah's Witnesses? What will you find there?

The joy of being among loving and caring people. In the first century, Christians were organized into congregations, and they held meetings to worship God, to study the Scriptures, and to encourage one another. (Hebrews 10:24, 25) Gathered in a loving atmosphere, they felt that they were among true friends—their spiritual brothers. (2 Thessalonians 1:3; 3 John 14) We follow the same pattern and experience similar joy.

The benefit of learning how to apply Bible principles.

As was true in Bible times, men, women, and children all meet together. Qualified teachers use the Bible to help us discern how to apply its principles in our daily life. (Deuteronomy 31:12; Nehemiah 8:8) All may participate in audience discussions and in singing, allowing us to express our Christian hope.—Hebrews 10:23.

The blessing of having your faith in God strengthened.

The apostle Paul told one of the congregations in his day: "I am longing to see you, . . . that we may have an interchange of encouragement by one another's faith, both yours and mine." (Romans 1:11, 12) At meetings, our regular contact with fellow believers strengthens our faith and determination to live a Christian life.

Why not accept this invitation to attend our congregation's next meeting and experience these things for yourself? You will be warmly welcomed. All meetings are free—no collections are ever taken.

Sowing Kingdom Seed

(Matthew 13:4-8)

1. Come share in the work of our Master;
Respond to his call and obey.
He offers to help and to guide you;
His teaching will show you the way.
The seed of the truth has power to grow
In hearts that are honest and true.
So give of your best as you faithfully share
In the work you've been given to do.
2. How much of your work is successful
May often depend much on you.
Those hearing will need your assistance
To learn and to love what is true.
So help them to deal with pressures and doubts
They're certain to face on their way.
The seed of the truth will bring joy when you see
How it grows in their heart day by day.

ZECHARIAH 9-14 | Stay in “the Valley of the Mountains”

14:3-5

Jehovah formed “a very great valley” in 1914 when he established the Messianic Kingdom, a subsidiary “mountain” to his universal sovereignty. Since 1919, God’s servants have found safety in “the valley of the mountains”

 How do people “flee to the valley” of protection?

14:12, 15

Anyone outside the symbolic valley will be destroyed at Armageddon

How do I stay in the valley of protection?

New Feature of the Midweek Meeting

Beginning in January 2018, the midweek meeting will include study notes and media from the online study edition of the New World Translation of the Holy Scriptures (nwtsty), even if the study edition is not yet available in your language. No doubt this information will enrich your meeting preparation. More important, may it draw you ever closer to our loving Father, Jehovah!

STUDY NOTES

The study notes provide cultural, geographic, and linguistic insight into many Bible verses.

Matthew 12:20

Smoldering wick: A common household lamp was a small earthenware vessel filled with olive oil. A flax wick drew the oil up to feed the flame. The Greek expression “smoldering wick” may refer to a wick that gives off smoke because an ember is still present but the flame is fading or is extinguished. The prophecy of Isaiah 42:3 foretold Jesus’ compassion; he would never extinguish the last spark of hope in humble and downtrodden people.

Matthew 26:13

Truly: Greek, a-men', a transliteration of the Hebrew 'a-men', meaning “so be it,” or “surely.” Jesus frequently uses this expression to preface a statement, a promise, or a prophecy, thereby emphasizing its absolute truthfulness and reliability. Jesus’ use of “truly,” or amen, in this way is said to be unique in sacred literature. When repeated in succession (a-men' a-men'), as is the case throughout the Gospel of John, Jesus’ expression is translated “most truly.”—Joh 1:51.

MEDIA

Photos, artwork, and silent videos and animations illustrate various details recorded in the Bible.

Bethphage, the Mount of Olives, and Jerusalem

This short video follows a path approaching Jerusalem from the east, from the village of modern-day et-Tur—thought to correspond to the Biblical Bethphage—to one of the higher points on the Mount of Olives. Bethany lies east of Bethphage on the eastern slope of the Mount of Olives. When in Jerusalem, Jesus and his disciples customarily spent the night at Bethany, today marked by the town of el-'Azariyeh (El 'Eizariya), an Arabic name meaning “The Place of Lazarus.” Jesus undoubtedly stayed at the home of Martha, Mary, and Lazarus. (Mt 21:17; Mr 11:11; Lu 21:37; Joh 11:1) When traveling from their home to Jerusalem, Jesus may have followed a route similar to the one shown in the video. On Nisan 9, 33 C.E., when Jesus rode the colt of a donkey over the Mount of Olives to Jerusalem, he may well have done so from Bethphage, following the road to Jerusalem.

Nail in a Heel Bone

This is a photograph of a replica of a human heel bone pierced by an iron nail that was 11.5 cm (4.5 in.) long. The original artifact was found in 1968, during excavations in northern Jerusalem, and dates to Roman times. It provides archaeological evidence that nails were likely used in executions to fasten the person to a wooden stake. This nail may be similar to the nails employed by the Roman soldiers to fasten Jesus Christ to the stake. The artifact was found in a stone box, called an ossuary, into which the dried bones of a deceased person were placed after the flesh had decomposed. This indicates that someone executed on a stake could be given a burial.—Mt 27:35.

THE WAY, THE TRUTH, THE LIFE

You likely are pleased to get good news. And there definitely is very good news for you and your loved ones.

This good news is in the Bible, a book that the Creator of the universe, Jehovah God, caused to be written years ago. In this publication, we will focus on four Bible books that contain very good news for all of us. They are identified by the names of the men whom God used to write them—Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John.

Many refer to these four accounts as the four Gospels. All four relate the gospel, or good news, about Jesus—that he is God’s means for salvation and that as King of God’s heavenly Kingdom, Jesus will bring permanent blessings to all who exercise faith in him.—Mark 10:17, 30; 13:13.

WHY FOUR GOSPELS?

You may have wondered why God inspired four accounts of Jesus’ life and teachings.

There are benefits to having these separate accounts of what Jesus said and did. To illustrate, imagine that four men are standing near a famous teacher. The man standing in front of the teacher has a tax office. The one on the right is a physician. The man listening from the left side is a fisherman and is the teacher’s very close friend. And the fourth man, located at the back, is an observer who is younger than the others. All four are honest men, and each has a distinct interest or focus. If each writes an account of the teacher’s sayings and activities, the four records would likely feature different details or events. By considering all four accounts, bearing in mind the varying perspectives or objectives, we could get a complete picture of what the teacher said and did. This illustrates how we can benefit from having four separate accounts of the life of the Great Teacher, Jesus.

Continuing the illustration, the tax man wants to appeal to people of a Jewish background, so he groups some teachings or events in a way to help that primary audience. The physician highlights the healing of the sick or crippled, so he omits some things that the tax man recorded or presents them in a different order. The close friend emphasizes the teacher's feelings and qualities. The younger man's account is briefer, more succinct. Still, each man's account is accurate. This well illustrates how having all four accounts of Jesus' life enriches our understanding of his activities, teachings, and personality.

People may speak of 'the Gospel of Matthew' or 'John's Gospel.' That is not inaccurate, for each contains "good news about Jesus Christ." (Mark 1:1) However, in a larger sense, there is but one overall gospel, or good news, about Jesus—available to us in the four records.

Many students of God's Word have compared and harmonized the events and facts found in Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. About 170 C.E., the Syrian writer Tatian endeavored to do so. He recognized these four books as accurate and inspired, and he compiled the Diatessaron, a harmonized account of Jesus' life and ministry.

Jesus—The Way, the Truth, the Life does similarly, but it is more accurate and complete. That is possible because we now better understand the fulfillment of many of Jesus' prophecies and illustrations. This understanding clarifies the things he said and did, as well as the order in which events occurred. Archaeological discoveries have also shed light on certain details and on the writers' perspectives. Of course, no one can be dogmatic about the sequence of every event.

But Jesus—The Way, the Truth, the Life presents what is reasonable and logical.

THE WAY, THE TRUTH, THE LIFE

As you read and enjoy this book, try to bear in mind the primary message for you and your loved ones. Recall that Jesus Christ himself told the apostle Thomas: "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."—John 14:6.

Jesus—The Way, the Truth, the Life will help you to appreciate how Jesus definitely is "the way." Only through him is it possible to approach Jehovah God in prayer. Moreover, Jesus is the way for us to be reconciled to God. (John 16:23; Romans 5:8) Hence, only through Jesus can we have an approved relationship with God.

Jesus is "the truth." He spoke and lived in harmony with truth; it was as if truth arrived in the person of Jesus. He fulfilled scores of prophecies, which became "yes" by means of him." (2 Corinthians 1:20; John 1:14) Such prophecies help us to see his central role in the outworking of God's purpose.—Revelation 19:10.

And Jesus Christ is "the life." By means of the ransom, his giving up his perfect life and blood, he made it possible for us to gain "the real life," that is, "everlasting life." (1 Timothy 6:12, 19; Ephesians 1:7; 1 John 1:7) He will also prove to be "the life" for millions who have died but who will be raised to life with the prospect of living in Paradise forever.—John 5:28, 29.

All of us need to appreciate Jesus' role in God's purpose. May you enjoy learning more about Jesus—"the way and the truth and the life."

Christ, Our Model

(1 Peter 2:21)

1. What love Jehovah showed,
 What goodness from him flowed,
 When for all mankind he offered his Firstborn.
Christ took on human form—
 The Son of man was born—
 By his example, God's name he adorned.
2. Jehovah's Word, he said,
 Sustained his life like bread.
 It gave him wisdom and knowledge and insight.
His Father's willing slave,
 A model Jesus gave;
 To please his Father would bring him delight.
3. Like Jesus, may our days
 Provide Jehovah praise,
 And may his footsteps become our own roadway.
Let Jesus' model be
 Our path eternally,
 And then God's favor we'll know day by day.

Visions of Zechariah—How They Affect You

39 WEEK OF DECEMBER 18-24

Chariots and a Crown Safeguard You

These articles discuss Zechariah's sixth, seventh, and eighth visions. The sixth and seventh visions will help us appreciate the privilege we have to serve in God's clean organization. The eighth vision will teach us how Jehovah provides secure protection in order for his worshippers to engage in true worship.

61 Forward, You Witnesses!

(Luke 16:16)

1. Firm and determined in this time of the end,
Prepared are God's servants the good news to defend.
The Devil has fought and opposed them.
With Jehovah, they take their stand against him.

(CHORUS)

*Then forward, you Witnesses, ever strong of heart!
Rejoice that in God's work, you too may have a part!
Go tell far and wide that the Paradise is near
And that soon all its blessings will be here.*

2. Servants of Jah do not seek a life of ease;
The world and its rulers we do not try to please.
Unspotted at all times remaining,
Our integrity we will keep maintaining.

3. God and his Kingdom are mocked and pushed aside;
His great name is slandered, its holiness denied.
Let's share in its sanctification,
And declare it to ev'ry tribe and nation.

ANSWER?

Of what does Zechariah’s final vision assure God’s people?

their wicked deeds. This promise surely strengthened Zechariah. Yet, nothing had really changed. Dishonesty and other wicked practices were still present, and the rebuilding of Jehovah's temple in Jerusalem was far from complete. How could the Jews have abandoned their divinely appointed task so quickly? Had they returned to their homeland simply to further their own interests?

² Zechariah knew that the Jews who moved to Jerusalem were men and women of faith. They were the ones "whose spirit the true God had stirred" to leave behind the security of their homes and businesses. (Ezra 1:2, 3, 5) They left a land that was familiar to them in order to move to a place most of them had never seen. If the rebuilding of Jehovah's temple was not important, they would not have made the difficult journey of some 1,000 miles (1,600 km) through a harsh land.

³ What would that journey have been like? As the Jews traveled along, they no doubt spent many hours thinking about their new home. They had heard how beautiful the city of Jerusalem once was. The oldest ones among them had seen the former glory of the temple. (Ezra 3:12) If you had traveled with them, how would you have felt when you first caught sight of Jerusalem, your new home? Would you have been saddened when you saw the ruined buildings overgrown with weeds? Would you have compared the massive double walls of Babylon with Jerusalem's broken-down walls, with large gaps where gates and watchtowers once stood? Yet, the people took heart. They had already seen Jehovah's saving hand in their behalf throughout their long trip homeward. The first thing they did upon arriving was set up an altar on the site of the former temple, and they began to offer daily sacrifices to Jehovah. (Ezra 3:1, 2) In their initial excitement, it seemed that nothing could discourage them.

⁴ In addition to the temple work, the Israelites had to rebuild their cities. They had houses to restore, fields to plant, and mouths to feed. (Ezra 2:70) The work before them seemed overwhelming. Then the opposition came—hard and fast. Although they initially took a firm stand, 15 years of hostility took their toll. (Ezra 4:1-4) A crushing blow was dealt in 522 B.C.E. when the Persian king banned further building in Jerusalem. The future of that city seemed uncertain.—Ezra 4:21-24.

⁵ Jehovah knew what his people needed. God gave Zechariah a final vision to assure the Jews of His love and appreciation for all that they had done so far and to guarantee protection for them if they would return to His work. In connection with rebuilding the temple, Jehovah promised: “It will occur—if you do not fail to listen to the voice of Jehovah your God.”—Zech. 6:15.

A CAVALRY OF ANGELIC FORCES

⁶ The last of Zechariah’s eight visions may perhaps be the most faith-strengthening. (Read Zechariah 6:1-3.) Picture the scene: Charging forward “from between two mountains . . . of copper” come four chariots, likely fitted for battle. The horses pulling the chariots are of different colors. This would help to distinguish one rider from the next. “What are these?” asked Zechariah. (Zech. 6:4) We too want to know, as this vision directly affects us.

⁷ In the Bible, mountains can represent kingdoms, or governments. The mountains in Zechariah's account are similar to two mountains described in Daniel's prophecy. One mountain represents Jehovah's universal and eternal rulership. The other mountain represents the Messianic Kingdom in the hands of Jesus. (Dan. 2:35, 45) Since Jesus' enthronement in the autumn of 1914, both mountains have been present and have played a special role in the fulfillment of God's will on earth.

⁸ Why are the mountains made of copper? Like gold, copper is a metal that is highly valued. Jehovah directed that this shiny metal be used in the construction of the tabernacle and later in the temple in Jerusalem. (Ex. 27:1-3; 1 Ki. 7:13-16) Appropriately, then, the copper of the two symbolic mountains reminds us of the excellent quality of Jehovah's universal sovereignty and of the Messianic Kingdom, which will provide stability and blessings to all mankind.

⁹ Now back to the chariots. What do they and their riders represent? The riders of the chariots are angels, likely groups or divisions of angels. (Read Zechariah 6:5-8.) They are going out from

9. Who are the riders of the chariots, and what is their assignment?

“before the Lord of the whole earth” with a special mission to fulfill. What assignment are they given? The chariots and their riders are sent out to care for specific territories. Their responsibility is to protect Jehovah’s people, particularly from “the land of the north,” Babylon. Jehovah would make sure that Babylon would not enslave his people again. What comfort this must have brought to the temple builders in Zechariah’s day! They did not have to worry about interference from their enemies.

¹⁰ As in Zechariah’s day, Jehovah of armies still uses his angels to protect and strengthen his people. (Mal. 3:6; Heb. 1:7, 14) Ever since spiritual Israel was released from symbolic captivity to Babylon the Great in 1919, the expansion of true worship has been unstoppable despite relentless opposition. (Rev. 18:4) Because we have angelic protection, we need not fear that Jehovah’s organization might go through another time of spiritual oppression. (Ps. 34:7) Instead, we can be sure that God’s servants worldwide will continue to flourish spiritually. As we reflect on Zechariah’s vision, we do not doubt that we are safe in the shadow of the two mountains.

10. What assurance can God’s people today draw from Zechariah’s prophecy about the chariots and their riders?

¹¹ Very soon the political powers of Satan's world will form a coalition that is bent on the destruction of God's people. (Ezek. 38:2, 10-12; Dan. 11:40, 44, 45; Rev. 19:19) Ezekiel's prophecy describes these forces as covering the land like the clouds and coming up against us in a fury, riding on horses. (Ezek. 38:15, 16)* Do we have anything to fear? Not at all! We have a cavalry on our side. At that critical moment during the great tribulation, the angelic soldiers of Jehovah of armies will come together to protect God's people and destroy those who oppose his sovereignty. (2 Thess. 1:7, 8) What a day that will be! But who takes the lead among Jehovah's heavenly army?

JEHOVAH CROWNS HIS KING AND PRIEST

act as an encouragement to those who are restoring God's temple. (Read Zechariah 6:9-12.) Zechariah is told to collect silver and gold from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah—three new arrivals returning from Babylon—and to make “a grand crown” out of the contributions. (Zech. 6:11, ftn.) Is Zechariah told to place the crown on the head of Governor Zerubbabel of the tribe of Judah and a descendant of David? No. Observers must have been intrigued when he placed the crown on High Priest Joshua.

¹³ Did the crowning of High Priest Joshua make him a king? No, Joshua was not from the royal line of David and thus did not qualify to be king. His crowning was prophetic, pointing to a future and eternal king and priest. The high priest who is made king is named Sprout. The Scriptures clearly indicate that Sprout is Jesus Christ.—Isa. 11:1; Matt. 2:23, ftn.

¹⁴ Acting as both King and High Priest, Jesus is the leader of Jehovah's heavenly army. As such, he works diligently so that God's people as a whole may dwell in security despite living in the midst of this hostile world. (Jer. 23:5, 6) In the near future, Christ will take the lead in conquering the nations in support of God’s sovereignty and in defending Jehovah’s people. (Rev. 17:12-14; 19: 11, 14, 15) Before executing judgment, however, Sprout has a great work to accomplish.

HE WILL BUILD THE TEMPLE

¹⁵ In addition to being commissioned King and High Priest, Jesus was assigned to “build the temple of Jehovah.” (Read Zechariah 6:13.) In modern times, Jesus’ building work involved liberating true worshippers from Babylon the Great and restoring the Christian congregation in 1919. He also appointed a “faithful and discreet slave” to take the lead in directing the work in the earthly courtyards of the great spiritual temple. (Matt. 24:45) Jesus has also been busy refining God’s people and helping them to render worship that is clean.—Mal. 3:1-3.

¹⁶ During the Thousand Year Reign, Jesus and his 144,000 associate kings and priests will bring faithful humans to perfection. When this is accomplished, only true worshippers of God will be left on the cleansed earth. Finally, true worship will be fully restored!

TAKE PART IN THE BUILDING WORK

¹⁷ How, though, did Zechariah's message affect the Jews in his day? Jehovah had guaranteed stability and protection for their work. His assurance that the temple would be built must have brought hope to their tired hearts. But how would just a few accomplish so much work? Zechariah's next words remove any remaining fear or doubt. In addition to the support of faithful ones like Huldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, God tells of many others who would "come and take part in building the temple of Jehovah." (Read Zechariah 6:15.) Confident of divine backing, the Jews quickly swing into action, resuming their building work despite the ban. Soon Jehovah removes the mountainlike obstacle of the official ban, and the temple is completed in 515 B.C.E. (Ezra 6:22; Zech. 4:6, 7) The words of Jehovah, however, describe things far greater for our day.

17. What reassurance does Jehovah next give the Jews, and how does his message affect them?

¹⁸ Today, millions join in true worship, and they are moved from the heart to contribute their “valuable things,” which include their time, energy, and resources in support of Jehovah’s great spiritual temple. (Prov. 3:9) How can we be certain that Jehovah values our loyal support? Remember that Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah brought the materials for the crown that Zechariah made. The crown then served “as a memorial,” or “reminder,” of their contribution toward true worship. (Zech. 6:14; ftn.) Likewise, the work and the love we show for Jehovah will never be forgotten.

18. How is Zechariah 6:15 being fulfilled in our day?

Jehovah will never forget the love that we show for him!
(See paragraphs 18, 19)

(Heb. 6:10) They will remain forever, cherished in Jehovah's memory.

¹⁹ All that has been accomplished for true worship in these last days is tangible evidence of Jehovah's blessing and Christ's leadership. We are part of a stable, secure, and everlasting organization. Jehovah's purpose regarding pure worship "will occur." Cherish your place among Jehovah's people, and "do not fail to listen to the voice of Jehovah your God." Then you can remain under the protection of our King and High Priest and of the heavenly riders of the chariots. Have as full a share as possible in supporting true worship. As you do so, you can be certain that Jehovah of armies will keep you safe and secure during the remainder of this system of things—and for eternity!

19. What effect should Zechariah's visions have on us today?

The Kingdom Is in Place —Let It Come!

(Revelation 11:15; 12:10)

1. Jehovah, you always have been,
And always you will be.
You've given the throne to your Son;
He rules by your decree.
The Kingdom has been brought to birth;
His rulership will fill the earth.

(CHORUS)

*For now have come to pass
Salvation and kingdom and might.
The Kingdom is in place.
We pray: "Let it come, Let it come!"*

2. The time for the Devil is short;
We know what this will mean.
Though living in times of distress,
We see the things unseen.
The Kingdom has been brought to birth;
His rulership will fill the earth.

(Chorus)

3. The angels in heaven rejoice
And sing with joyful cries.
The heavens above are relieved
From Satan and his lies.
The Kingdom has been brought to birth;
His rulership will fill the earth.

(Chorus)
