GENESIS 42-43 | Joseph Shows Great Self-Control

42:5-7, 14-17, 21, 22

Can you imagine the strong emotions that Joseph may have felt when he unexpectedly came face-to-face with his brothers? He could have immediately identified himself and then either embraced them or taken revenge. But he did not act on impulse. What will you do if you are the victim of injustice from family members or others? Joseph’s example teaches the value of exercising self-control and remaining calm rather than following our treacherous heart and acting on imperfect impulses.

How can you imitate Joseph in situations that you encounter?

1. The greatest of men was our Lord Jesus Christ;
By pride or ambition, he was not enticed.
God's purpose gave Jesus the prominent role;
Yet, lowly in heart, he was always whole-souled.
2. To all who are toiling with troublesome cares,
He offers to carry the burdens they bear.
Refreshment they find as the Kingdom they seek.
With kindness and mildness, he favors the meek.
3. 'We all are just brothers,' our Lord Jesus said.
In humble submission, we look to our Head.
The mild and the meek ones to God have great worth;
He promises they will inherit the earth.

Genesis 42-43

42 When Jacob learned that there was grain in Egypt, he said to his sons: “Why do you just keep looking at one another?” <sup>2</sup> He added: “I have heard that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy some for us, so that we may stay alive and not die.” <sup>3</sup> So ten of Joseph’s brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt. <sup>4</sup> But Jacob did not send Benjamin, Joseph’s brother, with his other brothers, for he said: “Perhaps a fatal accident may befall him.”

<sup>5</sup> So Israel’s sons came along with the others who were coming to buy, because the famine had extended to the land of Ca’naan. <sup>6</sup> Joseph was the man in authority over the land, and he was the one who sold grain to all the people of the earth. So Joseph’s brothers came and bowed low to him with their faces to the ground. <sup>7</sup> When Joseph saw his brothers, he immediately recognized them, but he concealed his identity from them. So he spoke harshly with them and said: “Where have you come from?” to which they said: “From the land of Ca’naan to buy food.”

<sup>8</sup> Thus Joseph recognized his brothers, but they did not recognize him. <sup>9</sup> Joseph immediately remembered the dreams that he had dreamed about them, and he said to them: “You are spies! You have come to see the vulnerable areas of the land!” <sup>10</sup> Then they said to him: “No, my lord, but your servants have come to buy food. <sup>11</sup> We are all sons of but one man. We are upright men. Your servants do not act as spies.” <sup>12</sup> But he said to them: “Not so! You have come to see the vulnerable areas of the land!”<sup>13</sup> At this they said: “Your servants are 12 brothers. We are the sons of but one man in the land of Ca'naan, and the youngest is now with our father, whereas the other one is no more.”

<sup>14</sup> However, Joseph said to them: “It is just as I said to you—‘You are spies!’<sup>15</sup> By this you will be tested: As surely as Phar'aoh lives, you will not leave this place until your youngest brother comes here.<sup>16</sup> Send one of you to bring your brother while you remain in bondage. In this way, your words may be tested out to see if you are telling the truth. And if not, then, as surely as Phar'aoh lives, you are spies.”

<sup>18</sup> Joseph said to them on the third day: “Do this and live, for I fear God.<sup>19</sup> If you are upright, let one of your brothers remain in bondage in your house of custody, but the rest of you may go and take grain to alleviate the famine in your households.<sup>20</sup> Then bring your youngest brother to me, so that your words will be found trustworthy and you will not die.” And they did so.

<sup>21</sup> And they said to one another: “We are surely being punished on account of our brother, because we saw his distress when he begged us to show compassion, but we did not listen. That is why this distress has come upon us.”

<sup>22</sup> Then Reu'ben answered them: “Did I not say to you, ‘Do not sin against the child,’ but you would not listen? Now his blood is certainly being asked back.”<sup>23</sup> But they did not know that Joseph understood, for there was an interpreter between them. <sup>24</sup> So he turned away from them and began to weep. When he returned and spoke to them again, he took Sim'e-on from them and bound him before their eyes.

<sup>25</sup> Joseph then gave the command to fill up their bags with grain and to return each man's money to his own sack and to give them provisions for the journey. This was done for them.

<sup>26</sup> So they loaded their grain on their donkeys and left from there. <sup>27</sup> When one of them opened his sack to give fodder to his donkey at the lodging place, he saw his money there in the mouth of his bag. <sup>28</sup> At that he said to his brothers: "My money has been returned, and now here it is in my bag!" Then their hearts sank, and trembling, they turned to one another and said: "What is this that God has done to us?"

<sup>29</sup> When they came to Jacob their father in the land of Ca'naan, they told him all the things that had befallen them, saying: <sup>30</sup> "The man who is the lord of the country spoke harshly with us and accused us of spying on the country.

<sup>31</sup> But we said to him, 'We are upright men. We are not spies. <sup>32</sup> We are 12 brothers, the sons of our father. One is no more, and the youngest is now with our father in the land of Ca'naan.' <sup>33</sup> But the man who is the lord of the country said to us, 'By this I will know that you are upright: Leave one of your brothers with me. Then take something to alleviate the famine in your households and go. <sup>34</sup> And bring your youngest brother to me, so that I may know that you are not spies but upright men. I will then give your brother back to you, and you may carry on trade in the land.'"

<sup>35</sup> As they were emptying their sacks, here was each one's bag of money in his sack. When they and their father saw their bags of money, they became afraid. <sup>36</sup> Jacob their father exclaimed to them: "It is I you have bereaved! Joseph is no more, and Sim'e-on is no more, and you are going to take Benjamin! It is upon me that all these things have come!" <sup>37</sup> But Reu'ben said to his father: "You may put to death my own two sons if I do not bring him back to you. Give him over to my care, and I will return him to you." <sup>38</sup> However, he said: "My son will not go down with you, because his brother is dead and he alone is left. If a fatal accident should befall him on the journey you would make, then you would certainly bring down my gray hairs to the Grave in grief."

43 Now the famine was severe in the land. <sup>2</sup> So when they had finished eating the grain they had brought from Egypt, their father said to them: "Return and buy a little food for us." <sup>3</sup> Then Judah said to him: "The man clearly warned us, 'You must not see my face again unless your brother is with you.' <sup>4</sup> If you send our brother with us, we will go down and buy food for you. <sup>5</sup> But if you do not send him, we will not go down, for the man said to us, 'You must not see my face again unless your brother is with you.'" <sup>6</sup> And Israel asked: "Why did you have to bring this trouble on me by telling the man that you had another brother?" <sup>7</sup> They replied: "The man directly inquired concerning us and our relatives, saying, 'Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother?' and we told him these facts. How could we possibly know that he would say, ‘Bring your brother down’?”

<sup>8</sup> Judah then urged Israel his father: “Send the boy with me, and let us go on our way so that we may live and not die—we and you and our children. <sup>9</sup> I will be a guarantee for his safety. You may hold me responsible. If I fail to return him to you and present him to you, I will have sinned against you for all time. <sup>10</sup> But if we had not delayed, we could have been there and back twice by now.”

<sup>11</sup> So Israel their father said to them: “If it must be so, then do this: Take the finest products of the land in your bags and carry them down to the man as a gift: a little balsam, a little honey, labdanum, resinous bark, pistachio nuts, and almonds. <sup>12</sup> Take double the money with you; and also take back the money that was returned in the mouth of your bags. Maybe it was a mistake. <sup>13</sup> Take your brother and go, return to the man. <sup>14</sup> May God Almighty grant you pity from the man, so that he may release to you your other brother and Benjamin. But as for me, if I must be bereaved, I will be bereaved!”

<sup>15</sup> So the men took this gift, and they took double the money in their hand and Benjamin. Then they rose and went on their way down to Egypt and again stood before Joseph. <sup>16</sup> When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he at once said to the man who was over his house: “Take the men to the house and slaughter animals and prepare the meal, for the men are to eat with me at noon.” <sup>17</sup> Immediately the man did just as Joseph had said, and he took them to Joseph's house. <sup>18</sup> But the men became afraid when they were taken to Joseph's house, and they began to say: "It is because of the money that was returned in our bags the last time that we are being brought here. Now they will attack us and make us slaves and take our donkeys!"

<sup>19</sup> So they approached the man who was over Joseph's house and spoke to him at the entrance of the house.

<sup>20</sup> They said: "Pardon us, my lord! We did come down the first time to buy food. <sup>21</sup> But when we arrived at our lodging place and began opening our bags, why, here was the money of each one in the mouth of his bag, our money in full weight. So we would like to return it personally. <sup>22</sup> And we have brought more money to buy food. We do not know who placed our money in our bags." <sup>23</sup> Then he said: "It is all right. Do not be afraid. Your God and the God of your father put treasure in your bags. Your money came first to me." After that he brought out Sim'e-on to them.

<sup>24</sup> Then the man brought them into Joseph's house and gave them water for washing their feet, and he gave fodder for their donkeys. <sup>25</sup> And they prepared the gift for Joseph's coming at noon, for they had heard that they were going to eat a meal there. <sup>26</sup> When Joseph went into the house, they brought their gift to him into the house and prostrated themselves to him to the ground. <sup>27</sup> After this he inquired about their welfare and said: "How is your aged father of whom you have spoken? Is he still alive?" <sup>28</sup> To this they said: “Your servant our father is well. He is still alive.” Then they bowed down and prostrated themselves.

<sup>29</sup> When he looked up and saw Benjamin his brother, the son of his mother, he said: “Is this your brother, the youngest one of whom you have spoken to me?” He added: “May God show you his favor, my son.” <sup>30</sup> Joseph then hurried out, because he was overcome with emotion for his brother, and he looked for a place to weep. So he went into a private room and gave way to tears there. <sup>31</sup> After that he washed his face and went out, now in control of himself, and he said: “Serve the meal.” <sup>32</sup> They served him by himself and them by themselves, and the Egyptians with him ate by themselves, for the Egyptians could not eat a meal with the Hebrews, because that is a detestable thing to the Egyptians.

<sup>33</sup> The brothers were seated before him, the firstborn according to his right as firstborn and the youngest according to his youth, and they kept looking at one another in amazement. <sup>34</sup> He kept sending portions of food from his table to theirs, but he increased Benjamin’s portion five times the size of the portions of all the others. So they continued banqueting and drinking with him to the full.

Genesis 42:5-7, 14-17, 21, 22

Can you imagine the strong emotions that Joseph may have felt when he unexpectedly came face-to-face with his brothers? He could have immediately identified himself and then either embraced them or taken revenge. But he did not act on impulse. What will you do if you are the victim of injustice from family members or others? Joseph's example teaches the value of exercising self-control and remaining calm rather than following our treacherous heart and acting on imperfect impulses.

How can you imitate Joseph in situations that you encounter?

Genesis 42:5-7—Joseph kept his composure when he saw his brothers

Genesis 42:5-7: So Israel's sons came along with the others who were coming to buy, because the famine had extended to the land of Canaan. Joseph was the man in authority over the land, and he was the one who sold grain to all the people of the earth. So Joseph's brothers came and bowed low to him with their faces to the ground. When Joseph saw his brothers, he immediately recognized them, but he concealed his identity from them. So he spoke harshly with them and said: "Where have you come from?" to which they said: "From the land of Canaan to buy food."

w15 5/1 13 paragraph 5

What about Joseph? He recognized his brothers right away! What is more, when he saw them there bowing before him, his thoughts flew back to his boyhood. The account tells us that "Joseph immediately remembered the dreams" that Jehovah had given him when he was but a boy, dreams foretelling a time when his brothers would be bowing low before him—exactly as they now were! (Genesis 37:2, 5-9; 42:7, 9) What would Joseph do? Embrace them? Take revenge?

w15 5/1 14 paragraph 1

You are not likely ever to find yourself in that unusual position. However, strife and division within the family are common in today's world. When we face such challenges, we may tend simply to follow our heart and act on our imperfect impulses. It is much wiser to imitate Joseph and try to discern how God wants us to handle matters. (Proverbs 14:12) Remember, as important as it is to make peace with family members, peace with Jehovah and his Son is even more vital.—Matthew 10:37.

Genesis 42:14-17—Joseph tested his brothers

Genesis 42:14-17: However, Joseph said to them: "It is just as I said to you—'You are spies!' By this you will be tested: As surely as Pharaoh lives, you will not leave this place until your youngest brother comes here. Send one of you to bring your brother while you remain in bondage. In this way, your words may be tested out to see if you are telling the truth. And if not, then, as surely as Pharaoh lives, you are spies." With that he put them together in custody for three days.

w15 5/1 14 paragraph 2

Joseph launched into a series of tests designed to reveal who his brothers were at heart. He started by speaking to them harshly, through an interpreter, accusing them of being foreign spies. To defend themselves, they told him about their family—including the key fact that they had a younger brother still at home. Joseph tried to hide his excitement. Was his little brother really alive? Now Joseph knew how to proceed. He said: "By this you will be tested," and then he told them that he must see this youngest brother. In time, he agreed to let them return home to fetch the youngest if one of them would agree to remain behind as a hostage.—
Genesis 42:9-20.

Genesis 42:21, 22—Joseph’s brothers expressed repentance

Genesis 42:21, 22: And they said to one another: “We are surely being punished on account of our brother, because we saw his distress when he begged us to show compassion, but we did not listen. That is why this distress has come upon us.” Then Reuben answered them: “Did I not say to you, ‘Do not sin against the child,’ but you would not listen? Now his blood is certainly being asked back.”

it-2* 108 paragraph 4

In view of these developments, Joseph’s half brothers began to sense divine retribution on them for having sold him into slavery years earlier. In front of their brother, whom they still did not recognize, they discussed their guilt. On overhearing their words reflecting repentance, Joseph was so emotionally overcome that he had to leave their presence and weep. On returning, he had Simeon bound until such time as they would come back with their youngest brother.—Genesis 42:21-24.

Digging for Spiritual Gems

Genesis 42:22, 37—What good qualities did Reuben display?

Genesis 42:22: Then Reuben answered them: "Did I not say to you, 'Do not sin against the child,' but you would not listen? Now his blood is certainly being asked back."

Genesis 42:37: But Reuben said to his father: "You may put to death my own two sons if I do not bring him back to you. Give him over to my care, and I will return him to you."

it-2 795

Some of Reuben's good qualities displayed themselves when he persuaded his nine brothers to throw Joseph into a dry well instead of killing him, Reuben intending to return secretly and deliver Joseph out of the well. (Genesis 37:18-30) More than 20 years later when these same brothers reasoned that the spy charges against them down in Egypt were due to their mistreatment of Joseph, Reuben reminded the others that he had not shared in their plot on Joseph's life. (Genesis 42:9-14, 21, 22) Again, when Jacob refused to let Benjamin accompany his brothers on their second trip to Egypt, it was Reuben who offered his own two sons as surety, saying: "You may put [them] to death if I do not bring [Benjamin] back to you."—Genesis 42:37.

Genesis 43:32—Why was eating a meal with the Hebrews detestable to the Egyptians?

Genesis 43:32: They served him by himself and them by themselves, and the Egyptians with him ate by themselves, for the Egyptians could not eat a meal with the Hebrews, because that is a detestable thing to the Egyptians.

w04 1/15 29 paragraph 1

Why was eating a meal with the Hebrews detestable to the Egyptians? This may largely have been because of religious prejudice or racial pride. The Egyptians also detested shepherds. (Genesis 46:34) Why? Shepherders may simply have been near the bottom in the Egyptian caste system. Or it could be that since the land available for cultivation was limited, the Egyptians despised those seeking pasture for flocks.

SECOND RETURN VISIT

Question: What will life be like when God resurrects our dead loved ones?

Scripture: Isa 32:18 <sup>18</sup> “My people will dwell in a peaceful abiding place, In secure dwellings and in tranquil resting-places.”

Link: How will God bring peace to the earth?

1st Publisher (Ron - Husband): On our last visit, we raised the question ‘what will things be like when God brings our dear loved ones back to life.’

Householder: I’m very interested in you’re going show me on that.

1st Publisher (Ron - Husband): There so many good things the Bible promises about that time. But let’s just take one example. Notice what we read here at Isaiah 32 verse 18. Lisa could you please read that?

2nd Publisher (Lisa - Wife): Sure. (Reads Isaiah 32:18 – <sup>18</sup>“My people will dwell in a peaceful abiding place, In secure dwellings and in tranquil resting-places).”

1st Publisher (Ron - Husband): So what will it be like for those whom God brings back to life

Householder: They'll have peace.

2nd Publisher ( Lisa - Wife ): Yes, peace, security and tranquility. Doesn't that sound appealing?

Householder: It sure does!

1st Publisher (Ron - Husband): Of course, with so many problems in the world today, we may wonder how God will bring peace to the earth. We can discuss that the next time we're here. By the way, I wanted to show you this publication that discusses the Bible verses that we read and many more. It's called "What Can the Bible Teach Us?"

[/vs 38-39 ¶18]

<sup>18</sup> We love our brothers and sisters and want to get along with them. Jehovah does not expect any human to be perfect, and neither should we. (Proverbs 17:9; 1 Peter 4:8) We all make mistakes, but love will help us to keep “forgiving one another freely.” (Colossians 3:13) Love will stop us from turning a small misunderstanding into a huge problem. True, when someone has upset us, it can be difficult to stop thinking about it. It is easy to become angry and hold a grudge against that person. But this will only make us unhappy and bitter. On the other hand, when we forgive someone who offended us, we can have peace of mind, unity in the congregation and, most important, a good relationship with Jehovah.—Matthew 6:14, 15; Luke 17:3, 4; Romans 14:19.

(Proverbs 17:9) Whoever forgives a transgression seeks love, But the one who keeps harping on a matter separates close friends.

(1 Peter 4:8) Above all things, have intense love for one another, because love covers a multitude of sins.

(Colossians 3:13) Continue putting up with one another and forgiving one another freely even if anyone has a cause for complaint against another. Just as Jehovah freely forgave you, you must also do the same.

(Matthew 6:14, 15) “For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you; <sup>15</sup> whereas if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

(Luke 17:3, 4) Pay attention to yourselves. If your brother commits a sin, rebuke him, and if he repents, forgive him. <sup>4</sup> Even if he sins seven times a day against you and he comes back to you seven times, saying, ‘I repent,’ you must forgive him.”

(Romans 14:19) So, then, let us pursue the things making for peace and the things that build one another up.

Grateful for God's Word

(Philippians 2:16)

1. Jehovah, our Father, we want to express
How grateful we are that your Word we possess!
All Scripture is inspired;
its truth has set us free.
Its light gives us knowledge; the truth we can see.
2. Your Word has the power to reach deep inside.
Our thoughts and intentions, it helps to divide.
Your laws are clear and perfect,
your judgments ever true.
Your principles guide us in all that we do.

42:5-7, 14-17, 21, 22

Can you imagine the strong emotions that Joseph may have felt when he unexpectedly came face-to-face with his brothers? He could have immediately identified himself and then either embraced them or taken revenge. But he did not act on impulse. What will you do if you are the victim of injustice from family members or others? Joseph’s example teaches the value of exercising self-control and remaining calm rather than following our treacherous heart and acting on imperfect impulses.

How can you imitate Joseph in situations that you encounter?

TEACHING HUMILITY AT THE LAST PASSOVER

MATTHEW 26:20    MARK 14:17    LUKE 22:14-18
JOHN 13:1-17

- JESUS EATS HIS LAST PASSOVER WITH THE APOSTLES
  - HE TEACHES A LESSON BY WASHING THE APOSTLES' FEET

At Jesus' direction, Peter and John have already arrived in Jerusalem to prepare for the Passover. Later Jesus and the ten other apostles head there. It is afternoon, and the sun is sinking in the western sky as Jesus and his party descend the Mount of Olives. This is Jesus' last daytime view from here until after his resurrection.

Soon Jesus and his party reach the city and make their way to the home where they will have the Passover meal. They climb the stairs to the large upper room. There they find that all preparations have been made for their private meal. Jesus has looked forward to this occasion, for he says: "I have greatly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.”—Luke 22:15.

Many years earlier, the custom of passing a number of cups of wine among the Passover participants was introduced. Now, after accepting one of the cups, Jesus gives thanks and says: “Take this and pass it from one to the other among yourselves, for I tell you, from now on, I will not drink again from the product of the vine until the Kingdom of God comes.” (Luke 22:17, 18) It should be clear that his death is close.

At some point during the Passover meal, something unusual occurs. Jesus gets up, sets aside his outer garments, and picks up a towel. Then he puts water in a basin that is at hand. Ordinarily, a host would see to it that his guests’ feet were washed, perhaps by a servant. (Luke 7:44) On this occasion no host is present, so Jesus performs this personal service. Any of the apostles could have taken the opportunity to do it, but not one of them does. Is it because some rivalry still exists among them? Whatever the case, they are embarrassed to have Jesus wash their feet.

When Jesus comes to Peter, he protests: “You will certainly never wash my feet.” Jesus replies: “Unless I wash you, you have no share with me.” Peter responds with feeling: “Lord, wash not only my feet but also my hands and my head.” How surprised he must be, then, at Jesus’ answer: “Whoever has bathed does not need to have more than his feet washed, but is completely clean. And you men are clean, but not all of you.”—John 13:8-10.

Jesus washes the feet of all 12, including the feet of Judas Iscariot. After putting his outer garments on and reclining at the table again, Jesus asks: “Do you understand what I have done to you? You address me as ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord,’ and you are correct, for I am such. Therefore, if I, the Lord and Teacher, washed your feet, you also should wash the feet of one another. For I set the pattern for you, that just as I did to you, you should also do. Most truly I say to you, a slave is not greater than his master, nor is one who is sent greater than the one who sent him. If you know these things, happy you are if you do them.”—John 13:12-17.

What a beautiful lesson in humble service! Jesus' followers should not seek the first place, thinking that they are important and should be served. Rather, they should follow Jesus' example, not by any ritual of foot washing, but by being willing to serve with humility and without partiality.

- ◇ During the Passover meal, what does Jesus tell the apostles that indicates his death is close?
- ◇ Why is it unusual that Jesus washes the apostles' feet?
- ◇ By performing the menial service of washing his apostles' feet, what lesson is Jesus providing?

79 Teach Them to Stand Firm

(Matthew 28:19, 20)

1. What a joy to teach Jehovah's sheep
And to see how they have grown.
We have seen how he has guided them
As they've made the truth their own.

(CHORUS)

*Jehovah, may you hear our prayer
And keep them in your watchful care.
In Jesus' name, for them we plead: May they succeed;
May ev'ry one of them stand firm.*

2. Ev'ry day we said a prayer for them,
As their faith was under test.
We made time to teach and care for them;
They've grown strong, and they've been blessed.

(Chorus)

3. May they all maintain their confidence,
Trust in God and in his Son.
Through endurance and obedience,
May their race for life be won.

109    Love Intensely From the Heart

(1 Peter 1:22)

1. When our love is pure and intense,

    We make Jehovah's heart rejoice.

Love is his greatest quality,

    Something that we hold dear.

Warm affection glows in our hearts,

    Making a loyal friendship grow.

Love always acts unselfishly,

    Proving our love sincere.

When we see a friend in need,

    We'll be there to lend a helping hand.

Truly we can be a friend,

    Someone who can understand.

Jesus showed what love really means,

    Helping us see Jehovah's love,

Touching our hearts and moving us.

    Tender feelings are a start.

Love intensely from the heart.

SONG 109

Love Intensely From the Heart

PREVIEW

Jesus said that love is the identifying mark of true Christians. Love for our brothers and sisters moves us to be peacemakers, to be impartial, and to be hospitable. This may not always be easy. This article provides practical suggestions on how to continue loving one another intensely from the heart.

ON THE night before he died, Jesus gave his disciples a specific command. He told them: “Just as I have loved you, you also love one another.” Then he added: “By this all will know that you are my disciples—if you have love among yourselves.”—John 13:34, 35.

<sup>2</sup> Jesus said that his true disciples would be clearly identifiable if they showed the same sort of love that he displayed. That statement was true in the first century, and it is true today. How important it is that we overcome any challenges and show love for one another!

<sup>3</sup> Human imperfection makes it difficult for us to show intense love for one another. Even so, we must try to imitate Christ. In this article, we will consider how love helps us to be peacemakers, to be impartial, and to be hospitable. As you study the material, ask yourself: ‘What can I learn from brothers and sisters who have continued to show love for one another despite challenges?’

1. What specific command did Jesus give his disciples? (See cover picture.)
  2. Why is it important to show love for one another?
  3. What will we consider in this article?

BE A PEACEMAKER

<sup>4</sup> Jesus taught us the importance of making peace with a brother who has something against us. (Read Matthew 5:23, 24.) He emphasized that we need to maintain good relations with others if we are to please God. Jehovah is happy when we do our best to make peace with our brothers. He will not accept our worship if we hang on to resentment and refuse even to try to make peace.—1 John 4:20.

<sup>5</sup> We may find it difficult to make peace. Why? Consider what happened to Mark.* He felt hurt when a brother criticized him and said bad things about him to others in the congregation. How did Mark react? “I lost control and got angry,” he recalls. Afterward, though, Mark regretted his behavior and tried to apologize to the brother and restore peace with him. But the brother rejected Mark’s efforts. Initially, Mark thought, ‘Why should I keep trying if he does not want to make peace?’ However, the circuit overseer encouraged him not to give up. What did Mark do?

4. According to Matthew 5:23, 24, why should we make peace with a brother who has something against us?

5. What made it difficult for one brother to make peace?

6 When Mark analyzed his thinking, he realized that he lacked humility and tended to be self-righteous. He recognized that he needed to change his attitude. (Col. 3:8, 9, 12) He humbly approached the brother again and apologized for his behavior. Mark also wrote letters to the brother, saying how sorry he was and how much he wanted to make a fresh start. Mark even gave the brother small gifts that he thought the brother would like. Sadly, the brother continued to hold a grudge. Nevertheless, Mark continued to obey Jesus' command to love his brother and to be forgiving. (Read Colossians 3:13, 14.) Even when others do not respond to our efforts to make peace, true Christian love will help us to keep forgiving them and praying for a positive outcome.—Matt. 18:21, 22; Gal. 6:9.

7 Jesus urged us to keep treating others the way we want to be treated. He added that we should not limit our love only to those who show love in return. (Luke 6:31-33) Though it would be unusual, what if someone in the congregation avoids you and refuses to greet you? That is what Lara experienced. She explains: “A sister ignored me, and I did not know why.

7. (a) What did Jesus urge us to do? (b) What difficult situation did one sister face?

I felt tense and did not enjoy going to the meetings.” At first, Lara reasoned: ‘I am not at fault. After all, others in the congregation also feel that this sister behaves strangely.’

<sup>8</sup> Lara took steps to make peace. She prayed to Jehovah and decided to talk to the sister. They spoke about the problem, hugged each other, and made peace. Everything seemed fine. Lara relates: “But later, the sister showed the same attitude toward me as she did earlier. I was so discouraged.” Initially, Lara felt that she could be happy only if the other sister changed her attitude. Eventually, though, Lara realized that the best thing she could do was to continue treating the sister with love and “freely forgiving” her. (Eph. 4:32–5:2) Lara remembered that true Christian love “does not keep account of the injury. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.” (1 Cor. 13:5, 7) Lara regained her peace of mind. In time, the sister was friendlier with her. When you pursue peace with your brothers and sisters and continue loving them, you can be sure that “the God of love and of peace will be with you.”—2 Cor. 13:11.

8. What did Lara do to make peace, and what can we learn from her experience?

BE IMPARTIAL

<sup>9</sup> Jehovah is not partial. (Read Acts 10:34, 35.) When we are impartial, we prove that we are his children. We obey the command to love our neighbor as ourselves, and we maintain the peace of our spiritual family.—Rom. 12:9, 10; Jas. 2:8, 9.

<sup>10</sup> Remaining impartial may not be easy for some. Consider, for example, what happened to a sister named Ruth. When she was a teenager, she had a bad experience with someone who was from a different country. How did it affect her? Ruth admits: “I hated everything about that country. I thought that all people from that place were the same, even the brothers and sisters.” How did Ruth overcome her negative feelings?

(See paragraphs 7-8)

<sup>11</sup> Ruth recognized that she had to fight her negative thinking. She read experiences and reports from the Yearbook about that country. She says: “I made an effort to think positively about the people of that land. I started to notice that the brothers and sisters had zeal for Jehovah. It became clear to me that they too are part of our worldwide brotherhood.” Gradually, Ruth realized that she needed to do more. She explains: “Whenever I met brothers and sisters from that country, I made a special effort to be friendly with them. I talked to them and got to know them better.” What was the result? Ruth says: “In time, my negative feelings disappeared.”

<sup>12</sup> Some may be partial without even realizing it. Sarah, for example, thought that she was impartial because she did not judge people based on their race, their financial standing, or their position of responsibility in the organization. But she admits: “I began to realize that I really was partial.” In what way? Sarah came from a well-educated family and preferred to associate with people who had the same background. Once she even told a friend: “I associate with fellow believers who are well-educated. I avoid those who are not.” Clearly, Sarah needed to change her attitude. How?

<sup>13</sup> A circuit overseer helped Sarah to analyze her attitude. She relates: “He commended me for my faithful service, good comments, and knowledge of the Scriptures. Then he explained that as our knowledge grows, we also need to cultivate such Christian qualities as humility, modesty, and mercy.” Sarah took the circuit overseer's words to heart. She says: "I realized that what really matters is that we are kind and loving." As a result, she began to view her brothers and sisters differently. She explains: "I tried to understand what qualities make them precious to Jehovah." What about us? Never would we want to feel superior to others because of our education! If we have intense "love for the whole association of brothers," we will avoid being partial.—1 Pet. 2:17.

BE HOSPITABLE

<sup>14</sup> Jehovah highly values hospitality. (Read Hebrews 13:16.) He considers it part of our worship, especially when we help the needy. (Jas. 1:27; 2:14-17) Therefore, the Scriptures encourage us to "follow the course of hospitality." (Rom. 12:13) We express genuine fondness, affection, and friendship when we are hospitable. Jehovah is pleased whether we share with others a snack, something to drink, a meal, or our time and loving attention. (1 Pet. 4:8-10) However, there may be obstacles that can make it difficult for us to be hospitable.

<sup>15</sup> We may hesitate to show hospitality because of

14. According to Hebrews 13:16, how does Jehovah feel when we show hospitality to others?

15-16. (a) Why might some hesitate to show hospitality? (b) How did Edit overcome her hesitation to show hospitality?

“In the past, I was not inclined to show hospitality, but I changed and have received much joy”

(See paragraph 16)

our circumstances. Consider the example of a widow named Edit. Before she became a Witness, she preferred to have little contact with others. Edit felt that others were in a better position to be hospitable.

<sup>16</sup> After she became a Witness, Edit changed her way of thinking. She took steps to be hospitable. She relates: “When our new Kingdom Hall was being built, an elder told me about a married couple who were coming to help with the project, and he asked me if I could offer them accommodations for two weeks. I remembered how Jehovah blessed the widow of Zarephath.” (1 Ki. 17:12-16) Edit agreed to host the couple. Was she blessed? She explains: “Two weeks turned into two months. During that time, we developed a close friendship.” Edit has also been blessed with close friends in the congregation. She is now a pioneer and enjoys having those with whom she works in the ministry come to her home for refreshments. She says: “Giving makes me feel good! And the truth is that I receive so many blessings in return.”—Heb. 13:1, 2.

<sup>17</sup> We may already be showing hospitality, but can we improve? For example, Luke and his wife are a hospitable couple. They were in the habit of inviting to their home their parents, relatives, close friends, and the circuit overseer and his wife. However, Luke says, “We realized that we were inviting only those who were close to us.” How did Luke and his wife improve in showing hospitality?

<sup>18</sup> Luke and his wife changed their view after reflecting on Jesus’ words: “If you love those loving you, what reward do you have?” (Matt. 5:45-47) They realized that they needed to imitate Jehovah, who is generous toward all. So they made it a point to invite brothers and sisters whom they had not invited before. Luke says: “All of us now enjoy these occasions so much. Everyone feels encouraged and upbuilt.”

<sup>19</sup> We have examined how having intense love for one another can help us to be peacemakers, to be impartial, and to be hospitable. We must overcome any negative feelings and love our brothers and sisters intensely from the heart. If we do, we will be happy and we will prove that we really are Jesus’ disciples. —John 13:17, 35.

Make Me Know Your Ways

(Psalm 25:4)

1. We're gathered together, Jehovah our God,
Accepting your warm invitation.
Your Word is a lamp that lights up our pathway,
The source of divine education.

(CHORUS)

*Teach me your ways, and make me understand;
Incline my ear to hear your wise command.
Cause me to walk in ways of truth and right,
And make your law my principal delight.*

2. Unreachably high is your wisdom, O God;
Your judgments we find reassuring.
Your Word is a source of unending wonder;
Your sayings of truth are enduring.

(Chorus)
