 Jehovah Turns a Curse Into a Blessing

The Moabites sought to harm the Israelites (Nu 22:3-6)

Jehovah acted in behalf of his people (Nu 22:12, 34, 35; 23:11, 12)

No one can successfully oppose Jehovah (Nu 24:12, 13; bt 53 ¶5; it-2 291)

Nothing, including persecution or disasters, can prevent the good news from being preached according to God’s will. When we experience personal hardships, do we rely on our heavenly Father and keep his worship our priority?

Jehovah Is Our Refuge

(Psalm 91)

1. Jehovah is our refuge,
Our God in whom we trust.
His shadow is our shelter;
Remain in it we must.
His faithful ones he will defend,
On this we know we can depend.
Jehovah is a stronghold,
Ever faithful, loyal, and just.
2. Though thousands will have fallen
And many at our side,
The righteous and the meek ones
Will never be denied.
So in our hearts we need not fear;
Calamity will not come near.
From danger he will shield us,
For beneath God's wings we'll reside.
3. He'll keep us and protect us
From snares along our way,
From terrors in the nighttime,
And arrows by the day.
Yes, there will be no cause for dread,
No place where we will fear to tread.
Jehovah is our refuge,
Ever guarding us on our way.

Numbers 22-24

22 Then the Israelites departed and camped on the desert plains of Mo'ab across the Jordan from Jer'i·cho. ² Now Ba'lak the son of Zip'por saw all that Israel had done to the Am'or·ites, ³ and Mo'ab became very frightened of the people, because they were so many; indeed, Mo'ab felt sick with fear because of the Israelites. ⁴ So Mo'ab said to the elders of Mid'i·an: "Now this congregation will devour all our surroundings, just as a bull devours the grass in the field."

Ba'lak the son of Zip'por was king of Mo'ab at that time. ⁵ He sent messengers to Ba'laam the son of Be'or at Pe'thor, which is by the River in his native land. He summoned him, saying: "Look! A people has come out of Egypt. Look! They have covered the face of the earth, and they are dwelling right in front of me. ⁶ Now, please, come and curse this people for me, for they are mightier than I am. Perhaps I can defeat them and drive them out of the land, for I well know that the one whom you bless is blessed and the one whom you curse is cursed."

⁷ So the elders of Mo'ab and the elders of Mid'i·an traveled with the fee for divination in their hands and went to Ba'laam and conveyed to him Ba'lak's message. ⁸ At that he said to them: "Spend the night here, and I will bring back to you whatever word Jehovah speaks to me." So the princes of Mo'ab stayed with Ba'laam.

⁹ Then God came to Ba'laam and said: "Who are these men with you?" ¹⁰ Ba'laam said to the true God: "Ba'lak the son of Zip'por, the king of Mo'ab, has sent me a message, saying, ¹¹ 'Look! The people who are coming out of Egypt are covering the face of the earth. Now come and put a curse on them for me. Perhaps I may be able to fight against them and drive them out.'" ¹² But God said to Ba'laam: "You must not go with them. You must not curse the people, for they are blessed."

¹³ Ba'laam got up in the morning and said to the princes of Ba'lak: "Go to your land, for Jehovah has refused to let me go with you." ¹⁴ So the princes of Mo'ab departed and returned to Ba'lak and said: "Ba'laam has refused to come with us."

¹⁵ However, Ba'lak again sent princes, more numerous and more distinguished than the first group. ¹⁶ They came to Ba'laam and said to him: "This is what Ba'lak the son of Zip'por has said, 'Please do not let anything hinder you from coming to me, ¹⁷ for I will honor you greatly and I will do anything you tell me to do. So come, please, and curse this people for me.'" ¹⁸ But Ba'laam answered the servants of Ba'lak: "If Ba'lak were to give me his own house full of silver and gold, I could not do anything beyond the order of Jehovah my God, whether small or great. ¹⁹ But please stay here tonight also, so that I may learn what else Jehovah will tell me."

²⁰ Then God came to Ba'laam by night and said to him: "If these men have come to summon you, go along with them. But you may speak only the words that I tell you to say."

²¹ So Ba'laam got up in the morning and saddled his donkey and went with the princes of Mo'ab.

²⁵ When the donkey saw Jehovah's angel, it began to squeeze itself against the wall and it jammed Ba'laam's foot against the wall, and Ba'laam began beating it again.

²⁶ Jehovah's angel now passed by again and stood in a narrow place where there was no way to turn to the right or to the left. ²⁷ When the donkey saw Jehovah's angel, it lay down under Ba'laam, so Ba'laam became furious and kept beating the donkey with his staff. ²⁸ Finally Jehovah caused the donkey to speak, and it said to Ba'laam: "What have I done to you to make you beat me these three times?"

²⁹ Ba'laam replied to the donkey: "It is because you have made a fool of me. If only I had a sword in my hand, I would kill you!" ³⁰ Then the donkey said to Ba'laam: "Am I not your donkey that you have ridden on all your life until today? Have I ever treated you this way before?" He replied: "No!"

³¹ Then Jehovah uncovered Ba'laam's eyes, and he saw Jehovah's angel standing in the road with a drawn sword in his hand. At once he bowed low and prostrated himself on his face.

³² Then Jehovah's angel said to him: "Why have you beaten your donkey these three times? Look! I myself came out to offer resistance, because your way is in defiance of my will. ³³ The donkey saw me and tried to turn away from me these three times. Supposing it had not turned away from me! By now I would have killed you and let the donkey live." ³⁴ Ba'laam said to Jehovah's angel: "I have sinned, because I did not know that it was you standing in the road to meet me. And now if it is bad in your eyes, I will go back."

³⁵ But Jehovah's angel said to Ba'laam: "Go with the men, but you may speak only the words that I tell you." So Ba'laam continued going with the princes of Ba'lak.

³⁶ When Ba'lak heard that Ba'laam had come, he immediately went out to meet him at the city of Mo'ab, which is on the bank of the Ar'non on the border of the territory. ³⁷ Ba'lak said to Ba'laam: "Did I not send for you? Why did you not come to me? Did you think I am not able to honor you greatly?" ³⁸ Ba'laam replied to Ba'lak: "Well, I have come to you now. But will I be allowed to say anything? I can only speak words that God puts in my mouth."

³⁹ So Ba'laam went with Ba'lak, and they came to Kir'i-ath-hu'zoth. ⁴⁰ Ba'lak sacrificed cattle and sheep and sent some to Ba'laam and the princes who were with him. ⁴¹ In the morning Ba'lak took Ba'laam and brought him up to Ba'moth-ba'al; from there he could see all the people.

23 Then Ba'laam said to Ba'lak: "Build on this spot seven altars, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me."
² Ba'lak immediately did just as Ba'laam had said. And Ba'lak and Ba'laam offered up a bull and a ram on each altar.
³ Ba'laam then said to Ba'lak: "Stay here by your burnt offering, and I will go. Perhaps Jehovah will get in touch with me. Whatever he reveals to me, I will tell you." So he went to a barren hill.

⁴ Then God got in touch with Ba'laam, who said to Him: "I set the seven altars in rows, and I offered up a bull and a ram on each altar." ⁵ Jehovah put this word in the mouth of Ba'laam: "Return to Ba'lak, and this is what you are to say." ⁶ So he returned and saw that Ba'lak and all the princes of Mo'ab were standing by his burnt offering. ⁷ Then he spoke this proverbial saying:

"Ba'lak the king of Mo'ab has brought me from A'ram,
From the mountains of the east:
'Do come to curse Jacob for me.
Yes, come to denounce Israel.'

⁸ How could I put a curse on those whom God has not cursed?
And how could I denounce those whom Jehovah has not denounced?

⁹ From the top of the rocks I see them,
And from the hills I see them.
As a people they dwell there alone;
They do not count themselves among the nations.

¹⁰ Who can number the dust particles of Jacob
Or count even the fourth part of Israel?
Let me die the death of the upright,
And let my end be like theirs."

¹¹ Ba'lak then said to Ba'laam: "What have you done to me? I brought you to put a curse on my enemies, and here you have done nothing but bless them." ¹² He answered: "Must I not speak whatever Jehovah puts in my mouth?"

¹³ Ba'lak said to him: "Please come with me to another place from which you can see them. You will see only a part of them; you will not see them all. Put a curse on them for me from there." ¹⁴ So he took him to the field of Zo'phim, to the top of Pis'gah, and built seven altars and offered up a bull and a ram on each altar. ¹⁵ So Ba'laam said to Ba'lak: "Stay here by your burnt offering while I get in touch with Him over there." ¹⁶ And Jehovah got in touch with Ba'laam and put this word in his mouth: "Return to Ba'lak, and this is what you are to say." ¹⁷ So he came to him and saw that he was waiting by his burnt offering, and the princes of Mo'ab were with him. Ba'lak asked him: "What has Jehovah said?"

¹⁸ Then he spoke this proverbial saying:

"Get up, Ba'lak, and listen.

Hear me, O son of Zip'por.

¹⁹ God is not a mere man who tells lies,
Nor a son of man who changes his mind.
When he says something, will he not do it?
When he speaks, will he not carry it out?

²⁰ Look! I have been taken to bless;

Now He has blessed, and I cannot reverse it.

²¹ He does not tolerate any magical power against Jacob,
And he does not allow any trouble against Israel.
Jehovah his God is with them,
And he is loudly hailed as king among them.

²² God is bringing them out of Egypt.
He is like the horns of a wild bull for them.

²³ For there are no omens of doom against Jacob,
Nor any divination against Israel.
At this time it may be said about Jacob and Israel:
'Look at what God has done!'

²⁴ Here is a people who will rise up like a lion,
And like the lion, it will raise itself up.
It will not lie down until it eats prey
And drinks the blood of the slain ones."

²⁵ Ba'lak then said to Ba'laam: "If on the one hand you cannot put any curse on him, then on the other hand you should not bless him either." ²⁶ Ba'laam answered Ba'lak: "Did I not say to you, 'I will do all that Jehovah says'?"

²⁷ Ba'lak said to Ba'laam: "Please come and let me take you to yet another place. Perhaps it will be right in the eyes of the true God for you to put a curse on him for me from there." ²⁸ So Ba'lak took Ba'laam to the top of Pe'or, which looks toward Je·shi'mon. ²⁹ Then Ba'laam said to Ba'lak:

"Build seven altars on this spot, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me." ³⁰ So Ba'lak did just as Ba'laam had said, and he offered up a bull and a ram on each altar.

24 When Ba'laam saw that it pleased Jehovah to bless Israel, he did not go away again to search for omens of doom, but he turned his face to the wilderness. ² When Ba'laam raised his eyes and saw Israel encamped by his tribes, then the spirit of God came upon him. ³ He then spoke this proverbial saying:

"The saying of Ba'laam the son of Be'or,
And the saying of a man whose eyes have been opened,

⁴ The saying of the one hearing the word of God,
Who saw a vision of the Almighty,
Who has bowed down with his eyes uncovered:

⁵ How beautiful are your tents, O Jacob,
Your tabernacles, O Israel!

⁶ Like the valleys they have extended a long way,
Like gardens by the river,
Like aloes that Jehovah has planted,
Like cedars by the waters.

⁷ Water keeps trickling from his two leather buckets,

And his seed is sown by many waters.
His king also will be greater than A'gag,
And his kingdom will be exalted.

⁸ God is bringing him out of Egypt;
He is like the horns of a wild bull for them.
He will consume the nations, his oppressors,
And their bones he will gnaw, and he will shatter them with his arrows.

⁹ He has crouched down, he has lain down like the lion,
And like a lion, who dares rouse him?
Those blessing you are blessed,
And those cursing you are cursed."

¹⁰ Then Ba'lak became furious with Ba'laam. Ba'lak scornfully clapped his hands together and said to Ba'laam: "It was to put a curse on my enemies that I called you, but now you have done nothing but bless them these three times. ¹¹ Now go home immediately. I intended to honor you greatly, but look! Jehovah has deprived you of honor."

¹² Ba'laam replied to Ba'lak: "Did I not say to the messengers you sent, ¹³ 'If Ba'lak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not of my own will do anything beyond the order of Jehovah, whether good or bad. I will only speak what Jehovah will tell me'? ¹⁴ And now I am going away to my people. Come and let me advise you what this people will do to your people in the future.” ¹⁵ So he spoke this proverbial saying:

“The saying of Ba’laam the son of Be’or,
And the saying of a man whose eyes have been
opened,

¹⁶ The saying of the one hearing the word of God,
And the one having the knowledge of the Most High,
A vision of the Almighty he saw
While bowing down with his eyes uncovered:

¹⁷ I will see him, but not now;
I will behold him, but not soon.
A star will come out of Jacob,
And a scepter will rise out of Israel.
And he will certainly break apart the forehead of Mo’ab
And the skull of all the sons of tumult.

¹⁸ And E’dom will become a possession,
Yes, Se’ir the possession of his enemies,
While Israel is displaying his courage.

¹⁹ And out of Jacob one will be subduing,
And he will destroy any survivor from the city.”

²⁰ When he saw Am'a·lek, he continued his proverbial saying:

"Am'a·lek was the first of the nations,
But in the end he will perish."

²¹ When he saw the Ken'ites, he continued his proverbial saying:

"Secure is your dwelling, and set on the crag is your abode.

²² But someone will burn Ka'in down.

How long before As·syr'i·a carries you away captive?"

²³ And he continued his proverbial saying:

"Woe! Who will survive when God does this?"

²⁴ Ships will come from the coast of Kit'tim,

And they will afflict As·syr'i·a,

And they will afflict E'ber.

But he too will utterly perish."

²⁵ Then Ba'laam got up and went and returned to his place. Ba'lak also went his own way.

Treasures From God's Word

"Jehovah Turns a Curse Into a Blessing": (10 minutes)

The Moabites sought to harm the Israelites

Numbers 22:3-6: and Moab became very frightened of the people, because they were so many; indeed, Moab felt sick with fear because of the Israelites. So Moab said to the elders of Midian: "Now this congregation will devour all our surroundings, just as a bull devours the grass in the field." Balak the son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time. He sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor at Pethor, which is by the River in his native land. He summoned him, saying: "Look! A people has come out of Egypt. Look! They have covered the face of the earth, and they are dwelling right in front of me. Now, please, come and curse this people for me, for they are mightier than I am. Perhaps I can defeat them and drive them out of the land, for I well know that the one whom you bless is blessed and the one whom you curse is cursed."

Jehovah acted in behalf of his people

Numbers 22:12: But God said to Balaam: “You must not go with them. You must not curse the people, for they are blessed.”

Numbers 22:34, 35: Balaam said to Jehovah’s angel: “I have sinned, because I did not know that it was you standing in the road to meet me. And now if it is bad in your eyes, I will go back.” But Jehovah’s angel said to Balaam: “Go with the men, but you may speak only the words that I tell you.” So Balaam continued going with the princes of Balak.

Numbers 23:11, 12: Balak then said to Balaam: “What have you done to me? I brought you to put a curse on my enemies, and here you have done nothing but bless them.” He answered: “Must I not speak whatever Jehovah puts in my mouth?”

No one can successfully oppose Jehovah

Numbers 24:12, 13: Balaam replied to Balak: “Did I not say to the messengers you sent, ‘If Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not of my own will do anything beyond the order of Jehovah, whether good or bad. I will only speak what Jehovah will tell me’?”

bt 53 paragraph 5

Today, as in the first century, persecution of God's people has not silenced their preaching. Time and again, forcing Christians to move from one place to another—either prison or another land—has only helped to introduce the Kingdom message to people in the new location. For instance, during World War II, Jehovah's Witnesses were able to give an outstanding witness in Nazi concentration camps. A Jew who encountered the Witnesses there relates: "The fortitude of prisoners who were Jehovah's Witnesses convinced me that their faith was based on the Scriptures—and I became a Witness myself."

it-2 291

Madness of Opposition to Jehovah. The prophet Balaam foolishly wanted to prophesy against Israel in order to receive money from King Balak of the Moabites, but Jehovah overruled and prevented his efforts. The apostle Peter wrote about Balaam that "a voiceless beast of burden, making utterance with the voice of a man, hindered the prophet's mad course." For Balaam's madness the apostle used the Greek word paraphroni'a, which has the thought of "being beside one's mind."—2 Pe 2:15, 16; Numbers 22:26-31.

Nothing, including persecution or disasters, can prevent the good news from being preached according to God's will. When we experience personal hardships, do we rely on our heavenly Father and keep his worship our priority?

Numbers 22:20-22—Why did Jehovah's anger blaze against Balaam?

Numbers 22:20-22: Then God came to Balaam by night and said to him: "If these men have come to summon you, go along with them. But you may speak only the words that I tell you to say." So Balaam got up in the morning and saddled his donkey and went with the princes of Moab. But God's anger blazed because he was going, and Jehovah's angel stationed himself in the road to resist him. Now Balaam was riding on his donkey, and two of his attendants were with him.

w04 8/1 27 paragraph 2

Jehovah had told the prophet Balaam that he should not curse the Israelites. (Numbers 22:12) However, the prophet went with Balak's men with the full intention of cursing Israel.

Balaam wanted to please the Moabite king and receive a reward from him. (2 Peter 2:15, 16; Jude 11) Even when Balaam was forced to bless rather than curse Israel, he sought the king's favor by suggesting that Baal-worshiping women be used to seduce Israelite men. (Numbers 31:15, 16) Thus, the reason for God's anger against Balaam was the prophet's unscrupulous greed.

2. Why is the earth not a paradise now?

Adam and Eve disobeyed God, so Jehovah put them out of the garden. Paradise was lost, and no man has succeeded in restoring it. The Bible says: “The earth has been handed over to the wicked.”—Job 9:24.—Read Genesis 3:23, 24.

Has Jehovah abandoned his original purpose for mankind? No! He is almighty. He cannot fail. (Isaiah 45:18) He will restore the human race to the way he meant it to be.—Read Psalm 37:11, 34.

(Job 9:24) The earth has been handed over to the wicked; He covers the eyes of its judges. If it is not he, then, who is it?

(Genesis 3:23, 24) With that Jehovah God expelled him from the garden of E'den to cultivate the ground from which he had been taken. ²⁴ So he drove the man out, and he posted at the east of the garden of E'den the cherubs and the flaming blade of a sword that was turning continuously to guard the way to the tree of life.

(Isaiah 45:18) For this is what Jehovah says, The Creator of the heavens, the true God, The One who formed the earth, its Maker who firmly established it, Who did not create it simply for nothing, but formed it to be inhabited: “I am Jehovah, and there is no one else.

(Psalm 37:11) But the meek will possess the earth, And they will find exquisite delight in the abundance of peace.

(Psalm 37:34) Hope in Jehovah and follow his way, And he will exalt you to take possession of the earth. When the wicked are done away with, you will see it.

He Will Make You Strong

(1 Peter 5:10)

1. There was a reason why God brought the truth to you
And called you from the darkness to the light.
Within your heart, he saw the longing that you had
To search for him and practice what is right.
You promised him in prayer to do his will;
He helped you then, and he will help you still.

(CHORUS)

With Jesus' blood He bought you, to God you now belong.

*So he will make you firm,
and he will make you strong.*

*He'll guide you and protect you,
as he has all along.*

*Yes, he will make you firm,
and he will make you strong.*

2. God gave his own beloved Son in your behalf;
On this account, He wants you to succeed.
If He did not withhold the gift of His dear Son,
Then never doubt He'll give the strength you need.
He won't forget the faith and love you've shown;
He will not fail to care for all His own.

(Chorus)

Jehovah acted in behalf of his people (Nu 22:12, 34, 35; 23:11, 12)

No one can successfully oppose Jehovah (Nu 24:12, 13; bt 53 ¶5; it-2 291)

Nothing, including persecution or disasters, can prevent the good news from being preached according to God’s will. When we experience personal hardships, do we rely on our heavenly Father and keep his worship our priority?

INCREASE YOUR JOY IN THE MINISTRY

Use God's Word

God's Word has power! (Heb 4:12) It can even touch the hearts of those who do not know God. (1Th 1:9; 2:13) We receive great joy when someone demonstrates appreciation for a new Bible truth that we have shown him.

Interview With Brother Dmitriy Mikhaylov

Raw transcript

I work as a street cleaner; either that or I do some other kind of work, like decorating or system administration. On April 20, they came to search the home of my wife and me. I was interrogated. And after a month, a court ruled to put me in pretrial detention. When they lead me out of the courtroom in handcuffs and put me into the vehicle, Yelena (my wife) was at the exit. From her words, I could sense that she felt as though she was losing me. They took me to the detention center in the city of Ivanovo. They moved me from cell to cell. And then they put me into what is known as the pressure cell. They told me I had to admit my guilt and tell them about my fellow worshippers—give them names, addresses, what they do, etcetera. For me, that would mean losing my loyalty to God. And the second thing was that it involved my loyalty to my fellow worshippers. In essence, it was about showing love. I said that for me, loyalty to Jehovah is above everything else, so whatever happens, I will remain loyal to God. I told them openly, directly. They pressured me physically and emotionally for several months. They brought me a Bible from the detention center's library. Thanks to fervent prayers, I felt how Jehovah gave me internal peace and calm. It proves that Jehovah doesn't just exist, but he thinks about us; he cares for us. Jehovah supported me through a letter from my dear wife. In it was the thought that trusting in Jehovah means seeing things the way he sees them. The prisoners who put pressure on me also expressed interest in spiritual things and started asking questions relating to my beliefs. Someone told me that if I am really a believer, I should have objects to prove it, such as a cross, which all believers wear. I told him that I could show him the Bible's viewpoint. From what I read, he made his own conclusions. And after some time, this prisoner came up to me and showed me that he wasn't wearing a cross anymore. When you are in prison, the ministry isn't just about opportunities to tell people about the truth from the Bible. It is more about Jehovah using it to help you keep a positive outlook and maintain joy. The more we concentrate on what we had before, the more we suffer. The quicker we accept the new circumstances, the quicker our joy returns to us along with the opportunity to make good use of the new circumstances. The appeal instance court ruled to release me. It was, of course, quite an unexpected decision. At the exit, my dear wife and other fellow worshippers (brothers and sisters) not just from my hometown but from other cities too met me. Yelena and I thought it would be good to collect some essentials, so we bought some things and went to the detention center. And afterward, one of the prisoners wrote me a letter of thanks: “I heard how everyone came to meet you. “I tried to imagine how cool it is “to be loved, valued, and missed. “For some, there’s not enough of that in life. Take care of yourself, Dima!” The letters from my wife were such a big support for me at that time. To be honest, I saw her letters as if it were Jehovah using her to speak to me. “Nobody loves us as strongly as God. “You can’t right now feel my love to the full extent “or the love of your family and friends. “But the main thing is that you are in God’s hands, “and that is what’s more important. “He loves you in a special way right now “and very gently looks after you and cares for your feelings. “By trusting in God, “we can get a feeling of security, stability, and calmness. “Our connection with God must be unbreakable. “If our strength is in God, “then we will overcome everything. “Our suffering is just temporary, and God will richly reward all who are loyal to him.”

ecies against Tyre came true. At that time, those who trust in wealth will be forced to know Jehovah when he destroys this world's greedy, self-centered commercial system.

Political Power Was “a Piece of Straw”

²⁴ From before the days of Joseph to the time when the Babylonians marched on Jerusalem, Egypt wielded considerable political influence in the region of the Promised Land. Her ancient roots may have made her appear to be stable, like an old-growth tree. But when compared with Jehovah, she was feeble—no stronger than “a piece of straw.”—Ezek. 29:6.

²⁵ Apostate King Zedekiah did not recognize that about Egypt. Through the prophet Jeremiah, Jehovah had urged Zedekiah to submit to the king of Babylon. (Jer. 27:12) Zedekiah even took an oath in Jehovah's name not to rebel against Nebuchadnezzar. But then he ignored Jehovah's direction, broke his oath to Nebuchadnezzar, and appealed to Egypt for help in his fight against the Babylonians. (2 Chron. 36:13; Ezek. 17:12-20) political might of Egypt brought great harm to themselves. (Ezek. 29:7) As for Egypt, she may have appeared to be as formidable as a “great sea monster.” (Ezek. 29:3, 4) But Jehovah said he would deal with her in the same way that hunters capture Nile crocodiles—he would put hooks in her jaws and draw her toward destruction. He did so when he sent the Babylonians to conquer that ancient land.—Ezek. 29:9-12, 19.

24-26. (a) Why did Jehovah call Egypt “a piece of straw”? (b) How did King Zedekiah ignore Jehovah's direction, and with what result?

²⁶ What became of unfaithful Zedekiah? Because he rebelled against Jehovah, Ezekiel foretold that this “wicked chieftain” would lose his crown and that his rulership would end in ruin. But Ezekiel also gave hope. (Ezek. 21:25-27) Jehovah had him foretell that a king in the royal line, one who had “the legal right,” would claim the throne. In the next chapter of this publication, we will see who this proved to be.

²⁷ What lesson can we learn from Israel’s interaction with Egypt? Jehovah’s people today need to avoid putting their trust in political powers, thinking that such powers will provide lasting security. Even in our thoughts, we need to remain “no part of the world.” (John 15:19; Jas. 4:4) The political system may seem strong, but like ancient Egypt, it is as fragile as a piece of straw. How shortsighted it would be to invest our hope in mortal humans rather than in the almighty Sovereign of the universe!—Read Psalm 146: 3-6.

The Nations “Will Have to Know”

²⁸ Several times in the book of Ezekiel, Jehovah states that the nations “will have to know that I am Jehovah.” (Ezek. 25:17) Those words certainly came true in ancient times when Jehovah executed judgment on the enemies of his people. But they will have a greater fulfillment in our day. In what way?

²⁹ Like God’s people in ancient times, we are surrounded by nations that consider us to be as defenseless as a lone sheep. (Ezek. 38:10-13) As will be discussed in Chapters 17 and 18 of this publication, the nations will soon launch a vicious, all-out attack on God’s people. But when they do, they will be taught the meaning of real power. They will be forced to know Jehovah—to recognize his sovereignty—when he destroys them at the battle of Armageddon.—Rev. 16:16; 19:17-21.

³⁰ By contrast, Jehovah will keep us safe, and he will bless us. Why? Because we have taken the opportunity now to prove that we know Jehovah by trusting in him, by obeying him, and by giving him the pure worship he deserves.—Read Ezekiel 28:26.

YOUR PLACE IN PURE WORSHIP

- 1 Why should it not surprise us if family members oppose our worship of Jehovah?

KEY STATEMENTS IN THE BOOK OF EZEKIEL

“Son of Man”

MORE THAN 90 OCCURRENCES

More than 90 times, Ezekiel is referred to as “son of man.” (Ezek. 2:1) Jehovah thus reminds him that even though he has received great privileges, he is only an earthling man. Significantly, in the Gospel accounts, Jesus is referred to as “Son of man” some 80 times, showing that he became completely human and was not an angel merely materializing in human form.—Matt. 8:20.

“. . . Will Have to Know That I Am Jehovah”

MORE THAN 50 OCCURRENCES

More than 50 times, Ezekiel records God’s statement that people “will have to know that I am Jehovah,” emphasizing that Jehovah is the only one worthy of receiving pure worship.—Ezek. 6:7.

“Sovereign Lord Jehovah”

217 OCCURRENCES

The expression “Sovereign Lord Jehovah” appears 217 times, giving the divine name the prominence it deserves and stressing that all creation is subordinate to Jehovah.—Ezek. 2:4.

21 Keep On Seeking First the Kingdom

(Matthew 6:33)

1. Something precious to Jehovah,
Bringing him such keen delight,
Is his Kingdom by Christ Jesus,
Which will set all matters right.

(CHORUS)

*Keep on seeking first the Kingdom
And Jehovah's righteousness.
Sing his praise among the nations,
Serving him in faithfulness.*

2. Why be anxious for tomorrow,
'Will we hunger, will we thirst?'
For our God will make provision
If we seek his Kingdom first.

3. So declare the Kingdom good news;
Help deserving ones to see
That their hope is in Jehovah
And in his Theocracy.

137 Faithful Women, Christian Sisters

(Romans 16:2)

1. Sarah and Esther, Mary, Ruth, and others—
All these were capable women, loyal wives.
Godly devotion was foremost in their lives.
They were faithful women, ones we know by name.
There were others favored by Jehovah;
Nameless in the record, their faith was just the same.
2. Goodness and courage, loyal love and kindness—
Lovable qualities in all humankind,
Virtues these excellent women bring to mind.
They were fine examples we appreciate.
In the same way now our Christian sisters
Show a faithful spirit we all can imitate.
3. Mothers and daughters, sisters, wives, and widows,
Willingly laboring, glad to do your part.
Modest your bearing, submissive is your heart,
Having God's approval, may you never fear.
Christian sisters, may Jehovah keep you
Firm in your conviction, your prize is drawing near.

Understanding Headship in the Congregation

“The Christ is head of the congregation, he being a savior of this body.”—EPH. 5:23.

SONG 137

Faithful Women, Christian Sisters

PREVIEW

What is the role of sisters in the congregation? Is every brother the head of every sister? Do elders and family heads have the same type of authority? In this article, we will consider these questions in the light of examples found in God’s Word.

WE LOVE being part of Jehovah's family. Why is our family so peaceful and united? One reason is that all of us do our best to respect the headship arrangement that Jehovah has put in place. In fact, the better we understand the headship arrangement, the more united we become.

² In this article, we will consider the subject of headship as it applies to the congregation. Among other things, we will answer the following questions: What is the role of sisters? Is it true that every brother is the head of every sister? Do elders have the same type of authority over brothers and sisters as a family head has over his wife and children? First, let us consider how we should view sisters.

HOW SHOULD WE VIEW SISTERS?

³ We appreciate our sisters who work hard to care for their family, to preach the good news, and to support the congregation. We can deepen our appreciation for them by considering the way that Jehovah and Jesus view them. We will also benefit from considering how the apostle Paul treated women.

1. What is one reason why Jehovah's family is united?
 2. What questions will we answer in this article?
 3. How can we deepen our appreciation for the work that our sisters accomplish?

4 The Bible indicates that Jehovah values women as well as men. For instance, it reveals that in the first century, Jehovah gave holy spirit to women as well as to men and empowered them to perform miraculous works, such as speaking in different languages. (Acts 2:1-4, 15-18) They both have been anointed by holy spirit with the prospect of ruling with Christ. (Gal. 3:26-29) Women as well as men will receive the reward of everlasting life on earth. (Rev. 7:9, 10, 13-15) And both men and women are assigned to preach and teach the good news. (Matt. 28:19, 20) In fact, the book of Acts recognizes the work of a sister named Priscilla who, along with her husband, Aquila, helped to explain the truth more correctly to the well-educated man Apollos.—Acts 18:24-26.

5 Jesus gave women honor and respect. He did not follow the custom of the Pharisees, who looked down on women and who would not even speak to them in public, let alone discuss the Scriptures with them. Instead, he included women in the deep spiritual discussions that he had with his other disciples.* (Read

* See paragraph 6 of the article “Give Christian Women Your Support,” published in the September 2020 issue of The Watchtower.

4. How does the Bible indicate that Jehovah values women as well as men?

5. What does Luke 10:38, 39, 42 reveal about Jesus’ attitude toward women?

Luke 10:38, 39, 42.) He also allowed women to accompany him on his preaching tours. (Luke 8:1-3) And Jesus gave them the privilege of announcing to the apostles that he had been raised from the dead.—John 20:16-18.

⁶ The apostle Paul specifically reminded Timothy to honor women. Paul told him to treat “older women as mothers” and to view “younger women as sisters.” (1 Tim. 5:1, 2) Paul did much to help Timothy become a mature Christian, but he acknowledged that it was Timothy’s mother and grandmother who had first taught Timothy “the holy writings.” (2 Tim. 1:5; 3: 14, 15) Paul specifically greeted sisters by name in his letter to the Romans. He not only noticed the work sisters did but also expressed appreciation for them as Christian ministers.—Rom. 16:1-4, 6, 12; Phil. 4:3.

⁷ As the preceding paragraphs show, there is no Scriptural basis for thinking that sisters are inferior to brothers. Our loving and generous sisters are a real asset, and the elders rely on their help to promote peace and unity in the congregation. But some questions need answering. For instance: Why does Jehovah require a sister to wear a head covering on certain occasions? Since only brothers are appointed

6. How did the apostle Paul show that he respected women?

7. What questions will we now consider?

Single ones who no longer live with their parents are under Jesus' headship
(See paragraph 8)

as elders and ministerial servants, does this imply that every brother is the head of every sister in the congregation?

IS EVERY BROTHER THE HEAD OF EVERY SISTER?

⁸ The short answer is no! A brother is not the head of all sisters in the congregation; Christ is. (Read Ephesians 5:23.) In the family, the husband has authority over his wife. A baptized son is not the head of his mother. (Eph. 6:1, 2) And in the congregation, the elders have only limited authority over sisters and brothers. (1 Thess. 5:12; Heb. 13:17) Single women who no longer live with their father and mother continue to respect their parents and the elders.

8. According to Ephesians 5:23, is every brother the head of every sister? Explain.

However, like the men in the congregation, they have only one head, Jesus.

⁹ It is true, however, that Jehovah has appointed men to take the lead in teaching and worship in the congregation, and he has not given women that same authority. (1 Tim. 2:12) Why? For the same reason that he has appointed Jesus as head of the man—to keep good order in his family. If because of circumstances a sister must fill a role that is normally cared for by a brother, then Jehovah requires that she wear a head covering.* (1 Cor. 11:4-7) Jehovah asks this of sisters, not to demean them, but to give them a way to show respect for the headship principle that he has put in place. With those facts in mind, let us now answer the question: How much authority do family heads and elders have?

THE ROLES OF FAMILY HEADS AND ELDERS

¹⁰ Elders love Christ, and they love the “sheep” whom Jehovah and Jesus have placed under their

* See the box “When Should a Sister Wear a Head Covering?”

9. Why do sisters at times need to wear a head covering?

10. Why might an elder be inclined to make rules for the congregation?

When Should a Sister Wear a Head Covering?

To know if she should wear a head covering, a sister would need to answer these three questions:

- 1 Does the activity require that a sister pray publicly or teach from the Bible while a baptized brother is present?—1 Cor. 11:4, 5.
- 2 Even if a baptized male is not present, would this assignment normally be done by a baptized brother?—1 Tim. 2:11, 12; Heb. 13:17.
- 3 If the sister is married, is her husband present while she publicly prays for others or teaches them from the Bible?—1 Cor. 11:3.

If the answer to any of those questions is yes, then a sister should wear a head covering. If the answer to all those questions is no, then she does not need to wear a head covering.*

* For a detailed discussion of this topic, see the book “Keep Yourselves in God’s Love,” pp. 209-212.

care. (John 21:15-17) With good intentions, an elder might think of himself as a fatherlike head in the congregation. He may reason that if a family head has the right to make rules to protect his family, an elder can make rules that he hopes will protect God's sheep. And some brothers and sisters may encourage elders to act as their spiritual head by asking them to make decisions for them. But do elders in the congregation and family heads have the same authority?

¹¹ The apostle Paul implied that there are some similarities between the role of a family head and that of an elder. (1 Tim. 3:4, 5) For example, Jehovah wants family members to obey the head of the family. (Col. 3:20) And he wants those in the congregation to obey the elders. Jehovah expects both family heads and elders to make sure that those under their care are spiritually healthy. Both also care for the emotional needs of those under their authority. And like good family heads, elders make sure that those under their care receive help in times of crisis. (Jas. 2:15-17) In addition, Jehovah expects elders and family heads to promote his standards and not to “go beyond the things that are written” in the Bible.—1 Cor. 4:6.

11. How are the roles of family heads and elders similar?

Elders care for the spiritual and emotional needs of the congregation. Jehovah has given them the responsibility to keep the congregation morally clean

(See paragraphs 11-12)

¹² However, there are also significant differences between the role of an elder and the role of a family head. For instance, Jehovah has assigned the elders to act as judges, and he has given them the responsibility of removing unrepentant sinners from the congregation.—1 Cor. 5:11-13.

¹³ On the other hand, Jehovah has given family heads some authority that he has not given to elders. For instance, he has authorized a family head both to make and to enforce rules for his family. (Read Romans 7:2.) For example, a family head has the right to decide at what time his children should arrive home at night. He also has the authority to discipline his children if they fail to obey that rule. (Eph. 6:1) Of course, a loving family head consults with his wife

12-13. As indicated at Romans 7:2, how are the roles of family heads and elders different?

Family heads have been given authority by Jehovah to take the lead in their family. Before making decisions, a loving family head will consult with his wife

(See paragraph 13)

before making rules in the household; after all, the two of them are “one flesh.”*—Matt. 19:6.

RESPECT CHRIST AS HEAD OF THE CONGREGATION

¹⁴ By means of the ransom, Jehovah purchased the lives of each individual in the congregation and, potentially, of all humankind. (Read Mark 10:45; Acts 20:28; 1 Cor. 15:21, 22) So it is fitting that he

* For a discussion of who should decide in which congregation a family will serve, see paragraphs 17-19 of the article “Respect the Place of Others in Jehovah’s Congregation,” published in the August 2020 issue of The Watchtower.

14. (a) In light of what is said at Mark 10:45, why is it fitting that Jehovah has appointed Jesus as head of the congregation? (b) What is the role of the Governing Body? (See the box “The Role of the Governing Body.”)

Jesus, under Jehovah's headship, gives direction to the Christian congregation appointed Jesus, who gave his life as a ransom, as head of the congregation. As our head, Jesus has the authority to make and to enforce rules that govern the conduct of individuals, of families, and of the entire congregation. (Gal. 6:2) But Jesus does more than just make rules. He feeds and cherishes each one of us.—Eph. 5:29.
(See paragraph 14)

¹⁵ Sisters show that they respect Christ by following the direction given by the men he has appointed to take care of them. A sister named Marley, who lives in the United States, sums up the view of many sisters. She says: “I really value my place as a wife and as a sister in the congregation. I constantly have to cultivate the right attitude toward Jehovah’s headship arrangement. But my husband and the brothers

15-16. What do you learn from the comments made by a sister named Marley and a brother named Benjamin?

The Role of the Governing Body

The members of the Governing Body are not masters over the faith of their brothers and sisters. (2 Cor. 1:24) They recognize Jesus Christ as the head of the Christian congregation, and they agree wholeheartedly with the Lord's admonition to his disciples: "All of you are brothers." (Matt. 23:8) At the same time, they love their brothers and sisters very much and do their best to care for their needs. Under the headship of Christ Jesus, the members of the Governing Body provide helpful direction to organize Jehovah's people worldwide. They appoint Branch Committee members and circuit overseers. (Eph. 4:7-13) In turn, circuit overseers appoint congregation elders. (Acts 14:23; Titus 1:5) The Governing Body also takes very seriously its responsibility to provide spiritual food and instruction from God's Word. The Governing Body does so through letters, printed guidelines and publications, JW Broadcasting® programs as well as through schools, meetings, conventions, and assemblies. (Acts 15:22-35) And when a natural disaster or some other calamity strikes, the members of the Governing Body, moved by heartfelt love for their brothers and sisters, immediately take action to ensure that practical help will be provided.*

* For a full discussion of the role of the Governing Body, see the July 15, 2013, issue of The Watchtower, pp. 20-25.

in the congregation have made that easier for me because they respect me and express their appreciation for the work I do.”

¹⁶ Brothers show that they understand the headship arrangement by respecting and honoring sisters. Benjamin, a brother who lives in England, says: “I have learned so much from sisters’ comments at the meetings and from their tips on how to study and how to be effective in the ministry. I think the work that they do is very valuable.”

¹⁷ When all in the congregation—men, women, family heads, and elders—understand and respect the principle of headship, the congregation enjoys peace. And more important, we bring praise to our loving heavenly Father, Jehovah.—Ps. 150:6.

17. Why should we respect the headship principle?

HOW WOULD YOU ANSWER?

- How should we view sisters in the congregation?
- Is every brother the head of every sister? Explain.
- How are the roles of family heads and elders different?
