My servants will shout joyfully.
—Isa. 65:14.

Jehovah wants his family to be happy. There are many reasons why we can be cheerful right now, even though we may be facing difficulties. For example, we are certain that our heavenly Father loves us dearly. We have an accurate knowledge of God's Word, the Bible. (Jer. 15:16) And we are part of a unique family made up of people who love Jehovah, love his high moral standards, and love one another. (Ps. 106:4, 5) We can remain happy because we have the sure hope that life will get even better in the future. We know that soon Jehovah will remove all the wicked and that under the direction of his Kingdom, the earth will be restored to Paradise. We also have the wonderful hope that those who have died will be raised to life and reunited with their loved ones. (John 5:28, 29) What a joy that will be! And most important, we are sure that soon everyone in heaven and on earth will give our loving Father the honor, praise, and devotion that he deserves. w20.02 13 ¶15-16

Against you—you above all—I have sinned.—Ps. 51:4.

If you commit a serious sin, do not try to cover the error. Instead, openly confess your sin to Jehovah in prayer. You will then begin to feel some relief from the anxiety caused by a guilty conscience. But if you want to restore your friendship with Jehovah, you need to do more than pray. You need to accept discipline. When Jehovah sent the prophet Nathan to expose King David's sin with Bath-sheba, David did not justify himself or try to minimize the sin. He immediately acknowledged that he had sinned not only against Bath-sheba's husband but, above all, against Jehovah. David accepted the discipline from Jehovah, and Jehovah forgave him. (2 Sam. 12:10-14) If we have committed a serious sin, we need to talk to those whom Jehovah has appointed to shepherd us. (Jas. 5:14, 15) And we must avoid the urge to justify ourselves. The sooner we accept and apply whatever discipline we receive, the sooner we will regain our peace and joy. w20.02 24-25 ¶17-18

Ten men out of all the languages of the nations . . . will take firm hold of the robe of a Jew, saying: "We want to go with you, for we have heard that God is with you people."
—Zech. 8:23.

The “ten men” represent those who have the hope of living forever on earth. They know that Jehovah has blessed the group of anointed ones represented by the “Jew” and feel that it is an honor to worship him along with them. Even though it is not possible to know the name of each individual member of the anointed on earth today, those who hope to live on earth can “go with” the anointed. How? Today’s text answers. Note that the Bible verse mentions one Jew. But “you” and “you people” refer to more than one person. This means that this Jew is not just one person but represents the whole group of anointed ones. Those who are not anointed serve Jehovah along with the anointed. However, they do not view the anointed as their leaders, realizing that Jesus fills the role of Leader. —Matt. 23:10. w20.01 26 ¶1-2

By this all will know that you are my disciples—if you have love among yourselves.—John 13:35.

Jesus said that his true disciples would be clearly identifiable if they showed the same sort of love that he displayed. That statement was true in the first century, and it is true today. How important it is that we overcome any challenges and show love for one another! Ask yourself: ‘What can I learn from brothers and sisters who have continued to show love for one another despite challenges?’ Human imperfection makes it difficult for us to show intense love for one another. Even so, we must try to imitate Christ. Jesus taught us the importance of making peace with a brother who has something against us. (Matt. 5:23, 24) He emphasized that we need to maintain good relations with others if we are to please God. Jehovah is happy when we do our best to make peace with our brothers. He will not accept our worship if we hang on to resentment and refuse even to try to make peace.

—1 John 4:20. w20.03 24 ¶1-4

We distinguish the inspired statement of truth from the inspired statement of error.—1 John 4:6.

Satan, “the father of the lie,” has deceived people since the start of human history. (John 8:44) Some of his lies include false teachings about death and about life after death. Those teachings form the basis for many popular customs and superstitions. Why are so many humans deceived? Satan’s lies about death exploit the way we naturally feel about death. Because we were created to live forever, we do not want to die. (Eccl. 3:11) We consider death an enemy. (1 Cor. 15:26) Despite Satan’s efforts, the truth about death has not been kept hidden. In fact, more people than ever now know and proclaim what the Bible teaches about the condition of the dead and the hope for the dead. (Eccl. 9:5, 10; Acts 24:15) These truths comfort us, sparing us needless fear and uncertainty. w19.04 14 ¶1; 15 ¶5-6

Go on carrying the burdens of one another, and in this way you will fulfill the law of the Christ.

—Gal. 6:2.

Jehovah God loves his worshippers. He always has, and he always will. He also loves justice. (Ps. 33:5) So we can be sure of two things: (1) It pains Jehovah when his servants are treated unfairly. (2) He will make sure that justice is served. The Law that God gave Israel through Moses was built on love. It promoted justice—justice for all, even vulnerable ones. (Deut. 10:18) That Law reveals how deeply Jehovah cares about his worshippers. The Mosaic Law ended in 33 C.E. when the Christian congregation was established. Would Christians be without the benefits of a law that is built on love and promotes justice? By no means! Christians had a new law—the law of the Christ.” Jesus did not write down a law code for his followers, but he did give them instructions, commands, and principles to live by. “The law of the Christ” includes everything Jesus taught. w19.05 2 ¶1-3

The God of all comfort . . . comforts us in all our trials.
—2 Cor. 1:3, 4.

Humans have a natural need for comfort and a remarkable ability to provide it. For instance, when a little child falls and skins his knee while playing, he may run to Mommy or Daddy, crying. The parents cannot heal the wound, but they can comfort the child. They may ask what happened, wipe away his tears, offer soothing words and affection, and perhaps apply some medicine or a bandage. Before long, the child stops crying and may even resume playing. In time, the wound will heal. Sometimes, though, children are hurt in far worse ways. Some are sexually abused. The abuse can be inflicted on a single occasion, or it may go on for years. In either case, the abuse can leave deep emotional scars. In some cases, the offender is caught and punished. In others, the abuser may seem to escape justice. But even if justice is swift, the harmful effects of the abuse may last well into adulthood. w19.05 14 ¶1-2

Consider others superior to you.
—Phil. 2:3.

Today, many people who are considered wise would ridicule the Bible's counsel about self-importance. They would say that considering others superior to you would make you vulnerable and that others would take advantage of you. But what fruitage has the self-centered attitude promoted by Satan's world produced? Are selfish people happy? Do they have happy families and genuine friends? Do they have a close friendship with God? From what you have seen, which produces the best results—following the wisdom of this world or the wisdom found in God's Word? (1 Cor. 3:19) People who follow the advice of those whom the world views as wise are like a tourist who asks a fellow tourist for directions when both of them are lost. Jesus said regarding the "wise" men of his day: "Blind guides is what they are. If, then, a blind man guides a blind man, both will fall into a pit." (Matt. 15:14) Truly, the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. w19.05 24-25 ¶14-16

They will gather his chosen ones together.—Matt. 24:31.

In recent years, the number of those partaking at the Memorial has been going up. Do we need to worry about this? No. "Jehovah knows those who belong to him." (2 Tim. 2:19) Unlike Jehovah, the brothers who count the number of those partaking at the Memorial do not know who truly is anointed. So the number includes those who think that they are anointed but are not. For example, some who used to partake later stopped. Others may have mental or emotional problems that make them believe that they will rule with Christ in heaven. Clearly, we do not know exactly how many anointed ones are left on earth. There will be anointed ones in many parts of the earth when Jesus comes to take them to heaven. The Bible does say that during the last days, there will be a small number of anointed ones left on earth. (Rev. 12:17) But it does not say how many of them will be left when the great tribulation begins. w20.01 29-30 ¶11-13

Protect Your Precious Inheritance

Caleb protected his inheritance by driving out powerful enemies (Jos 15:14; it-1 1083 ¶3)

Not all Israelites protected their inheritance from corrupting influences (Jos 16:10; it-1 848)

Jehovah helped those who truly wanted to protect their inheritance (De 20:1-4; Jos 17:17, 18; it-1 402 ¶3)

Jehovah offers all Christians the precious inheritance of everlasting life. To safeguard our inheritance, we strengthen ourselves against temptation by means of Bible study, Christian meetings, the field ministry, and prayer.

ASK YOURSELF, 'Am I protecting my inheritance?'

58 Hal'hul, Beth-zur, Ge'dor, 59 Ma'a-rath, Beth-a'noth, and El-te-kon—six cities and their settlements.

60 Kir'i-ath-ba'al, that is, Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim,^l and Rab'bah—two cities and their settlements.

61 In the wilderness, Beth-ar'a-bah,^m Mid'din, Se-ca'cah, 62 Nib'shan, the City of Salt, and En-ged'iⁿ—six cities and their settlements.

63 As for the Jeb'u-sites^o who were dwelling in Jerusalem,^p the men of Judah were not able to drive them away,^q so the Jeb'u-sites continue dwelling with the people of Judah in Jerusalem to this day.

16 And the land that fell by lot^r to the descendants of Joseph^s was from the Jordan at Jer'i-cho to the waters east of 15:47 *That is, the Mediterranean. 16:1 *Or "was allotted."

Jer'i-cho, through the wilderness going up from Jer'i-cho into the mountainous region of Beth'el.^a 2 It extended from Beth'el belonging to Luz and continued to the boundary of the Ar'chites at At'a-roth, 3 then it went down westward to the boundary of the Japh'le-tites as far as the boundary of Lower Beth-ho'ron^b and Ge'zer,^c and it ended at the sea.

4 So Joseph's descendants,^d Ma-nas'seh and E'phra-im, took possession of their land.^e 5 The boundary of the descendants of E'phra-im by their families was as follows: The boundary of their inheritance to the east was At'a-roth-ad'dar,^f as far as Upper Beth-ho'ron,^g 6 and the boundary extended to the sea. Mich-me'thath^h was on the north, and the boundary went around east to Ta'a-nath-shi'löh, and it passed on the east to Ja-no'ah. 7 Then it went down from Ja-no'ah to At'a-roth and Na'a-rah and reached to Jer'i-choⁱ and extended to the Jordan. 8 From Tap'pu-ah/ the boundary continued westward to the Wadi of Ka'nah, and it ended at the sea.^k This is the inheritance of the tribe of E'phra-im by their families; 9 the descendants of E'phra-im also had enclave cities in the midst of the inheritance of Ma-nas'seh,^l all the cities and their settlements.

10 But they did not drive away the Ca'naan-ites who were dwelling in Ge'zer,^m and the Ca'naan-ites continue to dwell among E'phra-im to this dayⁿ and have been subjected to forced labor.^o

17 Then the lot^p fell for the tribe of Ma-nas'seh,^q because he was Joseph's firstborn.^r Since Ma'chir,^s the firstborn of Ma-nas'seh and the father of Gil'e-ad, was a man of war, he received Gil'e-ad and Ba'shan.^t 2 And the lot fell for the rest

These were the descendants of Ma-nas'seh the son of Joseph, the males according to their families.^b 3 But Ze-lo-phe-had^c the son of He'pher, the son of Gil'e-ad, the son of Ma'chir, the son of Ma-nas'seh, did not have sons, only daughters, and these were the names of his daughters: Mah'lah, Noah, Hog'lah, Mil'cah, and Tir'zah. 4 So they presented themselves before El-e-a'zar^d the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the chieftains, saying: "It was Jehovah who commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers."^e So at the order of Jehovah, he gave them an inheritance among the brothers of their father.^f

5 There were also ten allotments that fell to Ma-nas'seh apart from the land of Gil'e-ad and Ba'shan, which were on the other side* of the Jordan,^g 6 for the daughters of Ma-nas'seh received an inheritance along with his sons, and the land of Gil'e-ad became the property of the rest of the descendants of Ma-nas'seh.

7 And the boundary of Ma-nas'seh was from Ash'er to Mich-me'thath,^h which faces She'chem,ⁱ and the boundary continued toward the south* to the land of the inhabitants of En-Tap'pu-ah. 8 The land of Tap'pu-ah^j became Ma-nas'seh's, but Tap'pu-ah on Ma-nas'seh's boundary belonged to the descendants of E'phra-im. 9 And the boundary went down to the Wadi of Ka'nah, southward to the wadi. There were cit-

11 In the territories of Is'sa-char and Ash'er, Ma·nas'seh was given Beth-she'an and its dependent* towns, Ib'le-am^d and its dependent towns, the inhabitants of Dore^e and its dependent towns, the inhabitants of En-dor^f and its dependent towns, the inhabitants of Ta'a-nach^g and its dependent towns, and the inhabitants of Me-gid'do and its dependent towns, three of the heights.

12 But the descendants of Ma·nas'seh were not able to take possession of these cities; the Ca'naan-ites persisted in dwelling in this land.^h 13 When the Israelites grew strong, they subjected the Ca'naan-ites to forced labor,ⁱ but they did not drive them out* entirely.^j

14 The descendants of Joseph said to Joshua: "Why have you given us* as an inheritance only one lot^k and one allotment? "Protect Your Precious Inheritance": (10 minutes)

Caleb protected his inheritance by driving out powerful enemies

Joshua 15:14: So Caleb drove out from there the three sons of Anak: Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai, descendants of Anak.

it-1 1083 paragraph 3

As Israel's campaign in southern Canaan continued, the inhabitants of Hebron, including their king (evidently Hoham's successor), were devoted to destruction. (Joshua 10:36, 37) However, although the Israelites under Joshua broke the power of the Canaanites, it appears that they did not immediately establish garrisons to hold on to their conquests. Evidently while Israel was warring elsewhere, the Anakim reestablished themselves at Hebron, making it necessary for Caleb (or the sons of Judah under Caleb's leadership) to wrest the city from their control sometime afterward. (Joshua 11:21-23; 14:12-15; 15:13, 14; Judges 1:10) Originally assigned to Caleb of the tribe of Judah, Hebron was afterward given a sacred status as a city of refuge. It also served as a priestly city. However, "the field of the city [Hebron]" and its settlements were Caleb's hereditary possession.—Joshua 14:13, 14; 20:7; 21:9-13.

Not all Israelites protected their inheritance from corrupting influences

Joshua 16:10: But they did not drive away the Canaanites who were dwelling in Gezer, and the Canaanites continue to dwell among Ephraim to this day and have been subjected to forced labor.

The use of "forced labor" (Hebrew, mas) was evidently quite common in Bible times, with conquered peoples frequently being constituted slaves. (Deuteronomy 20:11; Joshua 16:10; 17:13; Esther 10:1; Isaiah 31:8; Lamentations 1:1) As slavish forced laborers, the Israelites, under the immediate oversight of Egyptian chiefs who tyrannized over them, engaged in building the storage places of Pithom and Raamses. (Exodus 1:11-14) Then, upon entering the Promised Land, instead of following through on Jehovah's command to drive out all the Canaanite inhabitants of the land and devote them to destruction, the Israelites forced them into task work, slavish labor. This had the bad effect of luring Israel into the worship of false gods. (Joshua 16:10; Judges 1:28; 2:3, 11, 12) King Solomon continued levying the descendants of these Canaanites, that is, of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, for slavish forced labor.—1 Kings 9:20, 21.

Jehovah helped those who truly wanted to protect their inheritance

Deuteronomy 20:1-4: "If you go to war against your enemies and you see their horses and chariots and troops that outnumber yours, do not be afraid of them, for Jehovah your God who brought you up out of the land of Egypt is with you. When you are about to go into battle, the priest should approach and address the people. He should tell them, 'Hear, O Israel, you are about to do battle with your enemies. Do not be fainthearted. Do not be afraid or be terrified or tremble because of them, for Jehovah your God is marching with you to fight for you against your enemies and to save you.'

Joshua 17:17, 18: So Joshua said this to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and Manasseh: "You are a numerous people, and you have great power. You will not receive only one lot, but the mountainous region will also be yours. Although it is a forest, you will clear it, and it will be the extremity of your territory. For you will drive away the Canaanites, even though they are strong and have war chariots with iron scythes."

it-1 402 paragraph 3

Though so many of the Canaanites survived the major conquest and resisted subjugation, it could still be said that "Jehovah gave Israel all the land that he had sworn to give to their forefathers," that he had given them "rest all around," and that "not a promise failed out of all the good promise that Jehovah had made to the house of Israel; it all came true." (Joshua 21:43-45) All around the Israelites the enemy peoples were cowed and offered no genuine threat to their security. God had stated earlier that he would drive the Canaanites out "little by little" so that the wild beasts would not multiply in a suddenly desolated land. (Exodus 23:29, 30; Deuteronomy 7:22) Despite the superior war equipment of the Canaanites, including war chariots with iron scythes, any failure of the Israelites finally to take certain areas could not be charged to Jehovah's account as a failure on his part to fulfill his promise. (Joshua 17:16-18; Judges 4:13) Rather, the record shows that the Israelites' few defeats were due to unfaithfulness on their part.—Numbers 14:44, 45; Joshua 7:1-12.

Jehovah offers all Christians the precious inheritance of everlasting life. To safeguard our inheritance, we strengthen ourselves against temptation by means of Bible study, Christian meetings, the field ministry, and prayer.

Ask yourself, 'Am I protecting my inheritance?'

Spiritual Gems

Joshua 17:15, 18—How do we know that ancient Israel was heavily forested?

Joshua 17:15: Joshua replied to them: "If you are such a numerous people, go up to the forest and clear out a place for yourself there in the land of the Perizzites and the Rephaim, since the mountainous region of Ephraim is too cramped for you."

Joshua 17:18: but the mountainous region will also be yours. Although it is a forest, you will clear it, and it will be the extremity of your territory. For you will drive away the Canaanites, even though they are strong and have war chariots with iron scythes."

w15 7/15 32

The Bible states that certain areas of the Promised Land were forested and that trees were "plentiful." (1 Kings 10:27; Joshua 17:15, 18) Yet, on seeing the deforested condition of large portions of the land today, skeptics may wonder if that could ever have been the case.

The book Life in Biblical Israel explains that "forests in ancient Israel were much more extensive than they are today." The natural cover of the highlands consisted mainly of Aleppo pine (Pinus halepensis), evergreen oak (Quercus calliprinos), and terebinth (Pistacia palaestina). In the Shephelah, an area that includes the foothills between the central mountain range and the Mediterranean Coast, the sycamore fig (Ficus sycomorus) was also abundant.

The book Plants of the Bible states that some localities in Israel are now entirely devoid of trees. What contributed to this? Explaining that it was a gradual process, the book says: "Man has persistently interfered with the natural vegetation, mainly in order to expand his farming and pasture area, but also to obtain building materials and fuel for his fire."

HOW TO OFFER THE ENJOY LIFE FOREVER! BROCHURE ON THE INITIAL CALL

Similar to our tracts, the back cover of the brochure includes an intriguing question. Try the following:

- ▶ Ask the multiple-choice question
- ▶ Read the Bible's answer at Psalm 37:29
- ▶ Discuss the points under "What That Can Mean for You." If time allows, read the scriptures and highlight the artwork
- ▶ Offer to answer the question posed near the bottom of the page, and begin discussing the first lesson

FOCUS AND GOALS FOR EACH SECTION

LESSONS	FOCUS	STUDENT GOALS
1 01-12	Consider how the Bible can help you and how you can come to know its Author	Encourage the student to read the Bible, prepare for the study, and start attending meetings

Protect Your Precious Inheritance

Caleb protected his inheritance by driving out powerful enemies (Jos 15:14; it-1 1083 ¶3)

Not all Israelites protected their inheritance from corrupting influences (Jos 16:10; it-1 848)

Jehovah helped those who truly wanted to protect their inheritance (De 20:1-4; Jos 17:17, 18; it-1 402 ¶3)

Jehovah offers all Christians the precious inheritance of everlasting life. To safeguard our inheritance, we strengthen ourselves against temptation by means of Bible study, Christian meetings, the field ministry, and prayer.

Share the Good News That a Better World Is Near!

During November, we will make a special effort to share the good news that a better world is near. (Ps 37:10, 11; Re 21:3-5) Adjust your schedule to share fully in this campaign. If you sign up to serve as an auxiliary pioneer for the month, you may choose a 30- or 50-hour requirement.

Prepare to share a scripture regarding the new world with as many people as possible. When selecting a Bible verse, consider what would appeal to people in your territory. If someone expresses interest on the initial call, give him a copy of the public edition of The Watchtower No. 2 2021. Then, follow up on interest as soon as possible and try to start a Bible study using the Enjoy Life Forever! brochure. What a joy to be fully occupied in sharing “good news of something better”!—Isa 52:7.

7. Why do we heed the warning to “get out” of Babylon the Great?

8-10. What important requirement of pure worship helps us to understand Jehovah’s feelings about involvement in false religion? Illustrate.

the languages were confused in ancient Babel, or Babylon, all manner of false religious doctrines have been spread abroad, spawning an endless variety of religions. How fitting that “Babylon the Great” derives her name from the city of Babylon, a breeding ground for false religions! (Gen. 11:1-9) Hence, all these religions may be seen as “daughters” of one organization, one great prostitute. Satan often uses such religions to lure people into spiritism, idolatry, and other God-dishonoring beliefs and customs. No wonder God’s people are warned regarding that corrupt, world-spanning organization: “Get out of her, my people, if you do not want to share with her in her sins”!—Read Revelation 18:4, 5.

7 Have you heeded that warning? Remember, it is Jehovah himself who created humankind to have a “spiritual need.” (Matt. 5:3) That need can properly be filled only by means of the pure worship of Jehovah. Servants of Jehovah naturally want to keep as far away from spiritual prostitution as possible. But Satan the Devil has a different aim. He loves to lure God’s people into the snare of this form of prostitution. All too often, he has succeeded. By Ezekiel’s day, God’s people had a long history of getting involved in spiritual prostitution. We do well to examine that history, for it can teach us much about Jehovah’s standards, his justice, and his mercy.

“You Became a Prostitute”

8 In the book of Ezekiel, Jehovah uses the illustration of the prostitute in an especially personal way. Ezekiel was inspired to record, in two vivid passages, Jehovah’s feelings of hurt and betrayal on account of the disloyal and immoral behavior of his people. Why would he compare them to prostitutes?

9 To understand the answer, we must first recall a vital requirement regarding pure worship that we discussed in Chapter 5 of this publication. In the Law to Israel, Jehovah stated: “You must not have any other gods besides me [or, “in defiance of me,” ftn.]. . . . I, Jehovah your God, am a God who requires exclusive devotion.” (Ex. 20:3, 5) He later stressed the same truth in this way: “You must not bow down to another god, for Jehovah is known for requiring exclusive devotion. Yes, he is a God who requires exclusive devotion.” (Ex. 34:14) Jehovah could hardly have made the matter any clearer. We cannot worship Jehovah acceptably unless we worship him exclusively.

Ancient Babel, later called Babylon, spawned all manner of false religious practices, doctrines, and organizations
SEE PARAGRAPH 6

10 For the sake of illustration, we might think of a marriage. Both husband and wife have the right to expect a certain kind of exclusivity. If either mate were to give romantic or sexual attention to someone outside the marriage, the other mate would rightly feel jealous and betrayed. (Read Hebrews 13:4.) Similarly, when it comes to worship, Jehovah properly feels betrayed when his own people, dedicated exclusively to him, turn to false gods. He expresses this sense of personal betrayal forcefully in Ezekiel chapter 16.

11 The 16th chapter of Ezekiel contains what is by far Jehovah's longest speech in the book—and one of his longest prophetic utterances in all of the Hebrew Scriptures. Jehovah focuses on the city of Jerusalem as representing unfaithful Judah. He relates the sad and shocking story of her origin and betrayal. She began as a helpless foundling, unclean and uncared for. Her parents were the pagan Canaanites of the land. Indeed, Jerusalem was long under the control of a Canaanite tribe, the Jebusites, until David conquered the city. Jehovah took pity on that foundling, cleaning her up and providing for her. In time, she became like a wife to him. In fact, the Israelites who eventually inhabited the city were in a covenant relationship with Jehovah, one that they had voluntarily entered into back in the days of Moses. (Ex. 24: 7, 8) After Jerusalem became the capital of the land, Jehovah blessed, enriched, and beautified her, much as a wealthy and powerful husband might favor his wife with lovely ornaments.—Ezek. 16:1-14.

12 Note what happened next. Jehovah said: “You began to trust in your beauty, and you became a prostitute because of your fame. You lavished your acts of prostitution on everyone passing by, and your beauty became his.” (Ezek. 16:15) In the days of Solomon, Jehovah so blessed and enriched his people that Jerusalem became a most splendid city, surely outstanding in all the ancient world. (1 Ki. 10:23, 27) But disloyalty began to creep in. Solomon, seeking to please his many foreign wives, began polluting Jerusalem with the worship of pagan gods. (1 Ki. 11:1-8) And some of his successors to the throne did even worse, polluting the whole land with false worship. How did Jehovah feel about such acts of prostitution and betrayal? He said: “Such things should not take place, nor should they ever happen.” (Ezek. 16:16) But his wayward people sank even deeper into depravity!

11. What did Jehovah relate about Jerusalem and her origin?

12. How did disloyalty creep into the history of Jerusalem?

Solomon allowed his foreign wives to pressure him into polluting Jerusalem with idolatry

SEE PARAGRAPH 12

13 Imagine Jehovah's pain and revulsion as he exposed the wickedness of his chosen people: "You took your sons and your daughters whom you had borne to me, and you sacrificed these to idols to be devoured—have your acts of prostitution not gone far enough? You slaughtered my sons, and you offered them as sacrifices by making them pass through the fire." (Ezek. 16:20, 21) The unspeakable horror of such deeds shines a light on the wicked heart of Satan. How he loves to lure Jehovah's people into such revolting practices! But Jehovah sees all. God can undo even the worst of satanic atrocities, and he will exact justice.—Read Job 34:24.

14 Jerusalem, however, did not have the sense to be appalled by her own wickedness. She continued her prostitution. Jehovah said that she was even more shameless than other prostitutes because she actually paid others to commit immorality with her! (Ezek. 16:34) God said that Jerusalem was just like her "mother," the pagan tribes that once dominated the land. (Ezek. 16:44, 45) Continuing the family illustration, he said that Jerusalem's older sister was Samaria, who preceded her into a life of religious prostitution. God also mentioned a second sister, Sodom, used proverbially here because it had long since been destroyed for its arrogance and utter depravity. Jehovah's point was that Jerusalem outdid both of her sisters, Samaria and even Sodom, in terms of wickedness! (Ezek. 16:46-50) God's people ignored countless warnings and continued in their revolting course.

15 What would Jehovah do? He promised Jerusalem: "I am collecting together all the lovers you have given pleasure to" and, "I will give you into their hand." The former pagan allies of his people would destroy her, stripping her of her beauty and valuable things. "They will stone you and will slaughter you with their swords," he said. What was Jehovah's purpose in executing this judgment? It was not the extermination of his people. Rather, it was this: "I will bring an end to your prostitution." God added: "I will satisfy my rage against you, and my indignation will turn away from you; and I will be calm and no longer feel offended." As was discussed in Chapter 9 of this publication, Jehovah's long-term purpose was to bring about the restoration of his people after their exile. Why? He said: "I myself will remember the covenant that I made with you in the days of your youth." (Ezek. 16:37-42, 60)

13. God's people in Jerusalem were guilty of what wickedness?

14. Who were Jerusalem's two sisters in Jehovah's illustration, and who proved to be the most wicked of the three?

15. What was Jehovah's purpose in executing judgment on Jerusalem, offering what hope?

Some Israelites sacrificed their children to false gods, such as Molech “Taste” Jehovah’s Goodness—How?

SONG 117

The Quality of Goodness

PREVIEW

Jehovah is the Source of goodness. He provides good things for everyone—even wicked people. But he especially likes to do good things for his faithful worshippers. In this article, we will review how Jehovah expresses his goodness to his servants. We will also examine how those who expand their ministry may experience Jehovah’s goodness in a special way.

“Taste and see that Jehovah is good; happy is the man who takes refuge in him.”—PS. 34:8.

IMAGINE being offered something to eat that you have never tried before. You could learn something about it by looking at it, smelling it, getting the recipe, or asking others for their opinion about it. However, the only way to know for sure whether you like it is to taste it for yourself.

² We can learn something about Jehovah’s goodness by reading the Bible and our publications as well as by hearing others talk about the blessings they have received from Jehovah. But we will gain a real understanding of how good Jehovah is when we “taste” his goodness for ourselves. (Read Psalm 34:8.) Let us illustrate one way we can do that. Suppose we want to engage in some form of the full-time ministry, but in order to reach that goal, we will need to simplify our life. Perhaps we have often read Jesus’ promise that if we put Kingdom interests first, Jehovah will provide the things we really need, but we personally have never experienced the fulfillment of that promise. (Matt. 6:33) Nevertheless, with faith in Jesus’ promise, we reduce our expenses, cut down on our secular work, and focus on our ministry. As we do so, we learn through our own experience that Jehovah really does care for our needs. We “taste” Jehovah’s goodness personally.

³ Jehovah is “good to all,” even to those who do not know him. (Ps. 145:9; Matt. 5:45) But especially

1-2. According to Psalm 34:8, how can we learn about Jehovah’s goodness?

3. In line with Psalm 16:1, 2, who receive Jehovah’s goodness?

those who love Jehovah and serve him with their whole soul receive many blessings from him. (Read Psalm 16:1, 2.) Note just some of the ways that we benefit from Jehovah's goodness.

4 Each time we apply what we learn from Jehovah, we see the good effects in our life. As we learned about him and came to love him, he helped us overcome thinking and practices that once separated us from him. (Col. 1:21) And when we dedicated ourselves to Jehovah and got baptized, we experienced his goodness even more as he gave us a good conscience and drew us into a close friendship with him.—1 Pet. 3:21.

5 We continue to experience Jehovah's goodness as we engage in the ministry. Are you a shy person? Many of Jehovah's people are. Perhaps before you became one of Jehovah's servants, you could never have imagined yourself knocking on the door of a perfect stranger and sharing an unpopular message with him. Yet, today you do that on a regular basis. What is more, with Jehovah's help, you have learned to enjoy the preaching work! You have felt Jehovah's support in a number of ways. He has helped you to keep calm when faced with an opposer. He has also helped you to recall just the right scripture to share with an interested householder. And he has given you the strength to continue when you have been met with indifference in the territory.—Jer. 20:7-9.

4. How does Jehovah show his goodness to those who begin to draw close to him?
 5. How do we experience Jehovah's goodness in our ministry?

6 Jehovah has also shown us his goodness by training us for the ministry. (John 6:45) At our midweek meeting, we listen to well-thought-out sample conversations, and we are encouraged to use them in the ministry. At first, we may be a bit apprehensive about trying something new, but when we do, we may find that the new approach appeals to those in our territory. We are also encouraged at meetings and conventions to engage in forms of the ministry that we might never have tried before. Once again, that will mean leaving our comfort zone, but when we do, we give Jehovah something to bless. Let us consider some of the blessings that result when we explore new ways to give Jehovah our best, regardless of our circumstances. Then let us review ways in which we might expand our ministry.

JEHOVAH BLESSES THOSE WHO PUT THEIR TRUST IN HIM

7 We draw even closer to Jehovah. Consider the example of an elder named Samuel,* who serves with his wife in Colombia. This couple enjoyed pioneering in their home congregation, but they wanted to expand their ministry by helping a congregation that had a greater need. To reach that goal, they had to make some sacrifices. “We applied Matthew 6:33 and stopped making unnecessary purchases,” says Samuel. “But the hardest step was leaving our apartment

* Some of the names have been changed.

6. How is the training that Jehovah provides evidence of his goodness?
7. What blessing do we receive when we endeavor to expand our ministry?

behind. It was designed just for us, and it was mortgage-free.” In their new assignment, the couple found that they were able to live on just one-sixth of their former income. “We have seen how Jehovah guides our steps and answers our prayers,” says Samuel. “We feel his approval and love in ways that we never experienced before.” Are you able to expand your ministry in some way? If so, you can be sure that you will draw closer to Jehovah and that he will care for you.

—Ps. 18:25.

8 We find joy in our service. Note the comments from Ivan and Viktoria, a married couple who serve as pioneers in Kyrgyzstan. They kept their life simple so that they could volunteer for any assignment, including construction projects. Ivan says: “We got fully absorbed in each project. Even though we were tired at the end of the day, we had a sense of peace and satisfaction, knowing that we had spent our energy in the Kingdom work. We also found great joy in the friendships and the warm memories we gained.”—Mark 10:29, 30.

9 We find joy in Jehovah’s service even when we have challenging circumstances. For example, Mirreh, an elderly widow in West Africa, retired from working at her medical practice and started pioneering. Mirreh has advanced arthritis and can only spend an hour at a time in the house-to-house ministry. But she is able to spend more time in public witnessing. She has many return visits and Bible studies, some of whom she contacts by telephone. What motivated Mirreh to reach out? “My heart overflows with love for Jehovah and Christ Jesus. And I frequently pray that Jehovah help me to do as much as I can in his service.”

—Matt. 22:36, 37.

10 We receive additional training from Jehovah. Kenny, a pioneer who serves in Mauritius, found this to be true. When he learned the truth, he left university, got baptized, and entered the full-time ministry. He says, “I try to live by the words of the prophet Isaiah, who said: ‘Here I am! Send me!’” (Isa. 6:8) Kenny has worked on a number of construction projects, and he has also helped to translate Bible-based publications into his mother tongue. “I received training that taught me the skills I needed to accomplish my assignments,” says Kenny. But he learned more than just technical information. He adds, “I learned about my limitations and the qualities I need to develop to become a better servant of Jehovah.” (Read 1 Peter 5:10.) Why not examine your circumstances and see if you can make yourself available to receive additional training from Jehovah?

11 Even experienced Witnesses benefit from training when they try a new form of service. During the COVID-19 pandemic, the elders in a congregation in South Korea wrote: “Some who once thought they could not participate in field service because of their health now do so through videoconferencing. Three sisters in their 80's learned the new technology and began to share in the arrangement almost every day." (Ps. 92:14, 15) Would you like to expand your ministry and taste Jehovah's goodness even more? Consider some steps you can take that will help you reach that goal.

HOW YOU CAN REACH OUT

12 Learn to rely on Jehovah. He promises to shower us with blessings when we trust in him and give him our best. (Mal. 3:10) A sister in Colombia named Fa-

12. What does Jehovah promise to those who rely on him?

biola saw Jehovah fulfill this promise in her case. She wanted to serve as a regular pioneer soon after she got baptized. However, her husband and three children relied on her income. So when she was eligible to retire, she prayed intensely to Jehovah for help. She says: "It normally takes a long time to process a pension, but mine was approved just one month after I had applied for it. It was like a miracle!" Two months later she enrolled as a pioneer. She is now in her 70's and has been pioneering for over 20 years. During that time, she has helped eight people to the point of baptism. She says: "Although I feel weak at times, Jehovah helps me every day to keep my schedule."

How did Abraham and Sarah, Jacob, and the priests who crossed the Jordan River show trust in Jehovah?
(See paragraph 13)

¹³ Benefit from the examples of those who relied on Jehovah. The Bible is filled with examples of individuals who exerted themselves in Jehovah's service. In many instances, those servants of Jehovah had to take the first step before they received special blessings from Jehovah. For example, it was only after Abraham left his home—"although not knowing where he was going"—that Jehovah blessed him. (Heb. 11:8) It was only after Jacob wrestled with the angel that he received a special blessing. (Gen. 32:24-30) When the nation of Israel was about to enter the Promised Land, it was only after the priests stepped into the raging Jordan River that the people were able to cross over.—Josh. 3:14-16.

¹⁴ You can also benefit from the examples of modern-day Witnesses who have relied on Jehovah and reached out. For instance, a brother named Payton and his wife, Diana, enjoyed reading about brothers and sisters who had expanded their service to Jehovah, such as those described in the series "They Offered Themselves Willingly."* Payton says: "When we read their experiences, we felt as if we were watching someone enjoy a delicious meal. The longer we watched, the more we wanted to 'taste and see that Jehovah is good.'" Eventually, Payton and Diana moved to serve where the need was greater. Have you read this series? and Witnessing in Isolated Territory—Ireland that are published on jw.org? This material may help you to look for ways that you can expand your service.

¹⁵ Choose the right association. We are more inclined to try a new dish if we spend time with those who enjoy it. Similarly, if we associate with those who build their life around serving Jehovah, we are more likely to look for ways to expand our service to God. A couple named Kent and Veronica found that to be true. "Our friends and family encouraged us to try new avenues of service," says Kent. "We realized that by associating with those who seek the Kingdom first, we gained the confidence to try something new." Kent and Veronica now serve as special pioneers in Serbia.

¹⁶ Make sacrifices for Jehovah. We do not need to give up all comforts in order to please Jehovah. (Eccl. 5:19, 20) However, if we were to hold back from doing more in God's service just to avoid making personal sacrifices, we could make the same mistake as the man in Jesus' illustration who created a comfortable life for himself but ignored God. (Read Luke 12:16-21.) A brother named Christian, who lives in France, says, "I was not giving the best of my time and energy to Jehovah and my family." He and his wife decided to pioneer. But to reach that goal, they had to leave their jobs. To support themselves, they started a small cleaning business, and they learned to be content with less. Was the sacrifice worth making? Christian says, “We enjoy a more meaningful ministry now and enjoy seeing Bible students and return visits learn about Jehovah.”

16. As shown by Jesus' illustration found at Luke 12:16-21, why should we be willing to make sacrifices?

17 Be willing to try new types of service. (Acts 17:16, 17; 20:20, 21) Shirley, a pioneer in the United States, had to adjust her ministry during the COVID-19 pandemic. At first, she hesitated to try telephone witnessing. Once she received training during the visit of the circuit overseer, though, she began regularly sharing in this form of witnessing. She says: “In the beginning, it was scary, but now I really enjoy it. We’re reaching more people than we did in the house-to-house work!”

18 Make a plan and act. When we face challenges, we prayerfully do our best to use our thinking ability to come up with a plan of action. (Prov. 3:21) Sonia, who serves as a regular pioneer with a

18. What can help us to face challenges as we try to expand our ministry?

Romany-language group in Europe, says: “I like to write my plans down on paper and keep that paper somewhere visible. I have a drawing of a traffic intersection on my dresser. When I have a decision to make, I look at that intersection and think about which direction my decision will take me.” Sonia tries to keep a positive view of the challenges she faces. “Each new circumstance,” she says, “can be like a wall that blocks me or a bridge that helps me—it depends on my attitude.”

19 Jehovah blesses us in many ways. We can show how much we appreciate those blessings by doing all we can to bring him praise. (Heb. 13:15) That may include exploring new ways to expand our ministry, putting us in line for additional blessings. Each day, let us look for ways to “taste and see that Jehovah is good.” Then we will be like Jesus, who said: “My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to finish his work.”—John 4:34.

19. What should be our resolve?

DO YOU REMEMBER?

- What must we do in order to experience Jehovah’s goodness in a special way?
- How does Jehovah show his goodness to those who reach out?
- What can help us to reach out in Jehovah’s service?
