Christ has been raised from the dead.—1 Corinthians 15:12.

Belief in the resurrection of Jesus is central to our Christian hope. Early in the apostle Paul's discussion of the resurrection, he brought up three realities. They are (1) "Christ died for our sins." (2) He "was buried." (3) He "was raised up on the third day according to the Scriptures." (1 Corinthians 15:3, 4) What do Jesus' death, burial, and resurrection mean for us? The prophet Isaiah foretold that the Messiah would be "cut off from the land of the living" and be "given a burial place with the wicked." More was involved, though. Isaiah added that the Messiah would carry "the sin of many people." Jesus did this by providing the ransom. (Isaiah 53:8, 9, 12; Matthew 20:28; Romans 5:8) So the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus provide a solid basis for our hope of being set free from sin and death and being reunited with our loved ones who have died. w20.12 2-3 paragraphs 4-6; 5 paragraph 11

I, if anyone, do have grounds for confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinks he has grounds for confidence in the flesh, I have more.—Philippians 3:4.

The apostle Paul preached often in Jewish synagogues. In the synagogue in Thessalonica, for example, “for three sabbaths he reasoned with [the Jews] from the Scriptures.” (Acts 17:1, 2) Paul likely felt comfortable in the synagogue. He was raised as a Jew. (Acts 26:4, 5) Paul could relate to the Jews, so he was able to preach to them with confidence. (Philippians 3:5) After Paul was forced by persecutors to flee Thessalonica and then Beroea, he arrived in Athens. Once again, “he began to reason in the synagogue with the Jews and the other people who worshipped God.” (Acts 17:17) While preaching in the marketplace, however, Paul now had a different audience. Among his listeners were philosophers and other Gentiles who viewed Paul’s message as a “new teaching.” They said to him: “You are introducing some things that are strange to our ears.”—Acts 17:18-20. w20.04

When I wish to do what is right, what is bad is present with me.—Romans 7:21.

Do not condemn yourself if you are struggling with a weakness. Remember that none of us can earn a righteous standing before God. We all need God's undeserved kindness by means of the ransom. (Ephesians 1:7; 1 John 4:10) And we can turn to our brothers and sisters—our spiritual family—for encouragement! They may provide a listening ear when we need to talk and offer reassuring words that can cheer us up. (Proverbs 12:25; 1 Thessalonians 5:14) Joy, a sister in Nigeria who has battled with discouragement, says: "Where would I be without the brotherhood? My brothers and sisters are proof that Jehovah answers my prayers. I have even learned from them how to encourage others who are downhearted." We need to keep in mind, though, that our brothers and sisters may not always know when we need encouragement. So we may need to take the initiative to approach a mature fellow believer and open up about our need for help. w20.12 23-24 paragraphs 7-8

I have called you friends.—John 15:15.

Usually, the first step in building a close friendship with someone you meet is to spend time with the person. As you talk to each other, sharing thoughts and experiences, you become friends. When it comes to building a close friendship with Jesus, however, we face challenges. One of them is that we have not met Jesus personally. Many Christians in the first century faced the same challenge. Even so, the apostle Peter observed: “Though you never saw him, you love him. Though you do not see him now, yet you exercise faith in him.” (1 Peter 1:8) So it is possible to form a close relationship with Jesus without having met him personally. Also, we are not able to speak to Jesus. When we pray, we direct our thoughts to Jehovah. True, we do pray in Jesus’ name, but we do not talk directly to him. In fact, Jesus does not want us to pray to him. Why not? Because prayer is a form of worship, and only Jehovah should be worshipped. (Matthew 4:10) Even so, we can express our love for Jesus.

[God] will make you firm, he will make you strong.—1 Peter 5:10.

The runners in the Greek games had to overcome challenges, such as tiredness and pain. But all they had to rely on was their training and their own strength. We are like those runners in that we receive training in how to run the race we are in. But we have an advantage over the literal runners. We can draw on an unlimited source of power. If we rely on Jehovah, he promises not only to train us but also to make us strong! The apostle Paul had to deal with many challenges. In addition to being insulted and persecuted by others, he at times felt weak and he had to cope with what he called “a thorn in the flesh.” (2 Corinthians 12:7) But rather than view those challenges as a reason for giving up, he saw them as an opportunity to rely on Jehovah. (2 Corinthians 12:9, 10) Because Paul adopted this viewpoint, Jehovah helped him through all his trials. w20.04 29 paragraphs 13-14

No man can come to me unless the Father . . . draws him.—John 6:44.

We have the unseen treasure of “working together” with Jehovah and the heavenly part of his organization. (2 Corinthians 6:1) We do so whenever we share in the disciple-making work. Paul said of himself and those who share in this work: “We are God’s fellow workers.” (1 Corinthians 3:9) When we participate in the Christian ministry, we are also Jesus’ fellow workers. Recall that after commanding his followers to “make disciples of people of all the nations,” Jesus said: “I am with you.” (Matthew 28:19, 20) And what about the angels? What a blessing it is to be directed by angels as we declare “everlasting good news ... to those who dwell on the earth”! (Revelation 14:6) With such heavenly support, what is being accomplished? As we sow the Kingdom message, some seeds fall on receptive hearts and grow. (Matthew 13:18, 23) Who causes those seeds of truth to grow and become fruitful? Jesus explains that in today’s text. w20.05 30 paragraphs 14-15

Stop being molded by this system of things.—Romans 12:2.

Millions of families today have been divided by divorce. Even families who stay in the same house may become virtual strangers. “Mom, dad, and the kids are all disconnected from each other and connected to a computer screen, tablet, smartphone, or video game console,” says one family counselor. “Although these families live under the same roof, they barely know each other.” We do not want to be molded by the world’s loveless spirit. Instead, we need to cultivate tender affection not only for our family members but also for those who are related to us in the faith. (Romans 12:10) What is tender affection? It is a term that specifically describes the warm friendship between close family members. That is the kind of love we should cultivate for our spiritual family, our Christian brothers and sisters. When we show tender affection, we help maintain the unity that is a vital part of true worship.—Micah 2:12. w21.01 20 paragraphs 1-2

David’s War Strategy

David sought escape from Saul (1Sa 27:5-7; it-1 41)

David protected Judah’s boundaries (1Sa 27:8, 9; w21.03 4 ¶8)

David did not reveal complete details to Achish (1Sa 27:10-12; it-2 245 ¶6)

In our day, the authorities may restrict our Kingdom activity and question us about our brothers. At such times, it is wise to remain silent so as not to put our brothers at risk.—Pr 10:19; 11:12; Ec 3:7.

We Are Jehovah's Army!

(Joel 2:7)

1. We are Jehovah's army,
Under Christ, his Son.
Though we're opposed by Satan,
We are marching as one.
We keep serving faithfully,
Preaching far and near;
We remain determined
With no hint of fear.

(CHORUS)

*We are Jehovah's army;
With his Christ we're one,
Joyfully declaring,
"God's rule has begun."*

2. We are Jehovah's servants,
Searching for his sheep,
Those who are lost and scattered,
Those who sigh and who weep.
These we try to find and feed
With repeated calls;
These we keep inviting
To our Kingdom Halls.

(Chorus)

3. We are Jehovah's army,
Under Christ's command,
Fully equipped for battle,
Each one firmly will stand.
Cautious though we need to be,
Upright we remain.
In the face of danger,
Truth we will maintain.

(CHORUS)

*We are Jehovah's army;
With his Christ we're one,
Joyfully declaring,
"God's rule has begun."*

1 SAMUEL 27-29

27 However, David said in his heart: “One day I will perish by Saul’s hand. The best thing for me is to escape to the land of the Phi-lis'tines; then Saul will give up looking for me in all the territory of Israel, and I will escape from his hand.”

² So David rose up with the 600 men who were with him and went over to A'chish the son of Ma'och, the king of Gath.

⁵ Then David said to A'chish: “If I have found favor in your eyes, let them give me a place in one of the cities of the countryside, so that I may live there. Why should your servant live in the royal city with you?” ⁶ So A'chish gave him Zik'lag on that day. That is why Zik'lag belongs to the kings of Judah down to this day.

⁷ The length of time that David lived in the countryside of the Phi-lis'tines was a year and four months. ⁸ David would go up with his men to raid the Gesh'ur-ites, the Gir'zites, and the A-mal'ek-ites, for they were inhabiting the land that extended from Te'lam as far as Shur and down to the land of Egypt. ⁹ When David would attack the land, he preserved neither man nor woman alive, but he took the flocks, herds, donkeys, camels, and clothing, after which he would return to A'chish. ¹⁰ Then A'chish would ask: “Where did you make a raid today?” David would reply: “Against the south of Judah” or “Against the south of the Je-rah'me-el-ites” or “Against the south of the Ken'ites.” ¹¹ David did not spare alive any man or woman to be brought to Gath, saying: “That they may not tell them about us and say, ‘This is what David did.’” (And that was his practice the whole time he lived in the countryside of the Phi-lis'tines.) ¹² So A'chish believed David, saying to himself: ‘He has certainly become a stench among his people Israel, so he will always be my servant.’

28 In those days the Phi-lis'tines assembled their armies for war against Israel. So A'chish said to David: “You know, of course, that you and your men will go out into battle with me.” ² At that David said to A'chish: “You surely know what your servant will do.” A'chish said to David: “That is why I will appoint you as my permanent bodyguard.”

³ Now Samuel had died, and all Israel had mourned him and had buried him in Ra'mah, his own city. And Saul had removed the spirit mediums and the fortune-tellers from the land.

⁴ The Phi-lis'tines assembled and went and set up camp in Shu'nem. So Saul assembled all Israel, and they set up camp in Gil-bo'a. ⁵ When Saul saw the camp of the Phi-lis'tines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly. ⁶ Although Saul would inquire of Jehovah, Jehovah never answered him, either in dreams or by the U'rim or through the prophets. ⁷ Finally Saul said to his servants: “Find me a woman who is a spirit medium, and I will go and consult her.” His servants replied: “Look! There is a woman who is a spirit medium in En-dor.”

⁸ So Saul disguised himself and put on other garments and went to the woman by night with two of his men. He said: "Use divination, please, by acting as a spirit medium, and bring up for me the one whom I designate to you."

⁹ However, the woman said to him: "You must know what Saul did, how he removed the spirit mediums and the fortune-tellers from the land. Why, then, are you trying to trap me to have me put to death?" ¹⁰ Saul then swore to her by Jehovah, saying: "As surely as Jehovah is alive, you will not incur any guilt in this matter!" ¹¹ At this the woman said: "Whom should I bring up for you?" He replied: "Bring up Samuel for me." ¹² When the woman saw "Samuel," she cried out at the top of her voice and said to Saul: "Why did you trick me? You are Saul!" ¹³ The king said to her: "Do not be afraid, but what do you see?" The woman replied to Saul: "I see one like a god coming up out of the earth." ¹⁴ At once he asked her: "What does he look like?" to which she said: "It is an old man coming up, and he is clothed in a sleeveless coat." At that Saul realized that it was "Samuel," and he bowed low with his face to the ground and prostrated himself.

¹⁵ Then "Samuel" said to Saul: "Why have you disturbed me by having me brought up?" Saul replied: "I am in great trouble. The Phi-lis'tines are fighting against me, and God has departed from me and no longer answers me, either through the prophets or in dreams; so that is why I am calling on you to let me know what I should do."

¹⁶ And “Samuel” said: “Why do you inquire of me now that Jehovah has departed from you and has become your adversary? ¹⁷ Jehovah will do for himself what he foretold through me: Jehovah will rip the kingdom out of your hands and give it to one of your fellow men, David. ¹⁸ Because you did not obey the voice of Jehovah and you did not execute his burning anger against the A·mal'ek·ites, that is why Jehovah is doing this to you this day. ¹⁹ Jehovah will also give both Israel and you into the hand of the Phi-lis'tines, and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. Jehovah will also give the army of Israel into the hands of the Phi-lis'tines.”

²⁰ At once Saul fell full length on the ground and became very much afraid because of “Samuel’s” words. And there was no strength left in him, because he had not eaten food all day and all night. ²¹ When the woman came to Saul and saw that he had been greatly disturbed, she said to him: “Here your servant has obeyed what you said, and I risked my life and did what you told me to do. ²² Now, please, listen to what your servant has to say. Let me set before you a piece of bread; then eat so that you will have some strength to go on your way.” ²³ But he refused and said: “I am not going to eat.” However, his servants and also the woman kept urging him. Finally he listened to them and got up from the ground and sat on the bed. ²⁴ The woman had a fattened calf in the house, so she quickly slaughtered it and took flour and kneaded dough and baked it into unleavened bread. ²⁵ She served them to Saul and his servants, and they ate. After that they rose up and left during the night.

29 The Phi-lis'tines assembled all their armies at A'phek, while the Israelites were camping by the spring in Jez're-el.² And the lords of the Phi-lis'tines were passing by with their hundreds and their thousands, and David and his men were marching at the rear with A'chish.³ But the princes of the Phi-lis'tines said: "Why are these Hebrews here?" A'chish replied to the princes of the Phi-lis'tines: "This is David, the servant of King Saul of Israel, who has been with me for a year or more. I have not found any fault in him from the day he deserted to me until today."⁴ But the princes of the Phi-lis'tines became indignant at him, and they said to him: "Make the man go back. Let him return to the place where you assigned him. Do not let him go down with us into the battle, so that he will not turn against us during the battle. For what better way to put himself in favor with his lord than with the heads of our men?"⁵ Is this not the David about whom they sang when they danced, saying:

'Saul has struck down his thousands,
And David his tens of thousands'?"

⁶ So A'chish summoned David and said to him: "As surely as Jehovah is living, you are upright, and I am pleased to have you go on the campaign with my army, for I have not found any fault with you from the day you came to me until today. But the lords do not trust you."⁷ So return in peace, and do not do anything to displease the lords of the Phi-lis'tines."⁸ However, David said to A'chish: "Why, what have I done? What fault have you found in your servant from the day that I came to you until today? Why should I not come with you and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?”⁹ A'chish answered David: “From my standpoint, you have been as good as an angel of God. But the princes of the Phi-lis'tines have said, ‘Do not let him go up with us into the battle.’¹⁰ Now get up early in the morning with the servants of your lord who came with you; rise up and leave early in the morning as soon as it is light.”

¹¹ So David and his men rose up early in the morning to return to the land of the Phi-lis'tines, and the Phi-lis'tines went up to Jez're-el.

"David's War Strategy": (10 minutes)

David sought escape from Saul

1 Samuel 27:5-7: Then David said to Achish: "If I have found favor in your eyes, let them give me a place in one of the cities of the countryside, so that I may live there. Why should your servant live in the royal city with you?" So Achish gave him Ziklag on that day. That is why Ziklag belongs to the kings of Judah down to this day. The length of time that David lived in the countryside of the Philistines was a year and four months.

it-1* 41

Twice when David was in flight from Saul he found refuge in the domain of King Achish. On the first occasion, when suspected of being an enemy, David feigned insanity, and Achish let him go as a harmless idiot. (1 Samuel 21:10-15; Psalm 34: Superscription; 56: Superscription) On the second visit David was accompanied by 600 warriors and their families, and so Achish assigned them to live in Ziklag. During the year and four months that they were there Achish believed that David's band was making raids on Judean towns, whereas David was actually pillaging the Geshurites, Girzites, and Amalekites. (1 Samuel 27:1-12) So successful was the deception that Achish actually made David his personal bodyguard when the Philistines were organizing an attack on King Saul, and only at the last moment, upon the insistence of the other "axis lords" of the Philistines, were David and his men sent back to Ziklag. (1 Samuel 28:2; 29:1-11) When David became king and warred against Gath, Achish apparently was not killed. He lived into Solomon's reign.—1 Kings 2:39-41; see GATH.

David protected Judah's boundaries

1 Samuel 27:8, 9: David would go up with his men to raid the Geshurites, the Girzites, and the Amalekites, for they were inhabiting the land that extended from Telam as far as Shur and down to the land of Egypt. When David would attack the land, he preserved neither man nor woman alive, but he took the flocks, herds, donkeys, camels, and clothing, after which he would return to Achish.

w21.03 4 paragraph 8

Consider another challenge that David faced. After he was anointed to be king, David had to wait many years before he was officially enthroned as king of Judah. (1 Samuel 16:13; 2 Samuel 2:3, 4) During that interval, what helped him to wait patiently? Instead of becoming paralyzed by discouragement, David focused on what he could do. For example, while living as a fugitive in Philistine territory, David seized the opportunity to fight against Israel's enemies. In doing so, he protected the boundaries of the territory of Judah.—1 Samuel 27:1-12.

David did not reveal complete details to Achish

1 Samuel 27:10-12: Then Achish would ask: "Where did you make a raid today?" David would reply: "Against the south of Judah" or "Against the south of the Jerahmeelites" or "Against the south of the Kenites." David did not spare alive any man or woman to be brought to Gath, saying: "That they may not tell them about us and say, 'This is what David did.'" (And that was his practice the whole time he lived in the countryside of the Philistines.) So Achish believed David, saying to himself: 'He has certainly become a stench among his people Israel, so he will always be my servant.'

it-2 245 paragraph 6

While malicious lying is definitely condemned in the Bible, this does not mean that a person is under obligation to divulge truthful information to people who are not entitled to it. Jesus Christ counseled: "Do not give what is holy to dogs, neither throw your pearls before swine, that they may never trample them under their feet and turn around and rip you open." (Matthew 7:6) That is why Jesus on certain occasions refrained from giving full information or direct answers to certain questions when doing so could have brought unnecessary harm. (Matthew 15:1-6; 21:23-27; John 7:3-10) Evidently the course of Abraham, Isaac, Rahab, and Elisha in misdirecting or in withholding full facts from nonworshippers of Jehovah must be viewed in the same light.—Genesis 12:10-19; chapter 20; 26:1-10; Joshua 2:1-6; James 2:25; 2 Kings 6:11-23.

In our day, the authorities may restrict our Kingdom activity and question us about our brothers. At such times, it is wise to remain silent so as not to put our brothers at risk.—Proverbs 10:19; 11:12; Ecclesiastes 3:7.

1 Samuel 28:15—Whom did Saul “see” on this occasion?

1 Samuel 28:15: Then “Samuel” said to Saul: “Why have you disturbed me by having me brought up?” Saul replied: “I am in great trouble. The Philistines are fighting against me, and God has departed from me and no longer answers me, either through the prophets or in dreams; so that is why I am calling on you to let me know what I should do.”

w10 1/1 20 paragraphs 5-6

Think about it. The Bible states that at death a person “goes back to his ground” and that “his thoughts do perish.” (Psalm 146:4) Both Saul and Samuel knew that God condemned contact with spirit mediums. Why, Saul had earlier taken the lead in ridding the land of spiritistic practices!—Leviticus 19:31.

Reason on the matter. If faithful Samuel were still alive as a spirit, would he violate God’s law and cooperate with a spirit medium in order to meet Saul? Jehovah had refused to talk with Saul. Could a medium, in effect, force God Almighty to communicate with Saul by means of dead Samuel? No. Clearly, this “Samuel” was not God’s faithful prophet in any form. It was a spirit—a wicked demon pretending to be dead Samuel.

Initial Call: Suffering—Jas 1:13

Good morning. My name is Francisco, and this is Shane. May I ask your name? Ian. It's nice to meet you, Ian. We're discussing a question that many people ask about God. God? I don't think I believe in God. You're certainly not alone in questioning whether God exists. But may I ask, Have you always felt that way? Well, I used to believe in God. I was raised that way, but then everything fell apart. My mother got sick, and my father left us. It was just me and my brother trying to take care of Mom until she died. I'm very sorry to hear that, Ian. Me too. I can relate in some ways. My family went through a similar situation. I just don't understand why God would do that to us. We're good people. We went to church every Sunday. We never hurt anyone. Let me assure you, you're certainly not the first to feel that way. Many people have struggled to understand why bad things happen. The Bible's answer may surprise you. In fact, that's one of the reasons we're here today. The question we've been discussing from the Bible is, How do we know that our suffering is not punishment from God? Really? Yes. Please notice what we read here at James 1:13: “When under trial, let no one say: ‘I am being tried by God.’ “For with evil things God cannot be tried, nor does he himself try anyone.” Notice the first part of this verse. When we face trials, we may feel like we’re being tried, or tested, by God. But is that really the case? Notice the second part of the verse. Would you agree that if God exists, he cannot be tested by evil? Of course. That would be impossible! We agree. And what comforting assurance do we find in the end of the verse? That God does not try us with evil? Exactly! Of course, a logical question is, If God isn’t the cause of our suffering, who or what is? Next time we’re here, let’s discuss the principal reason why we suffer. OK.

Use Current Events in Your Ministry

In his ministry, Jesus drew lessons from current events. (Lu 13:1-5) You too can use current events to stir people's interest in the Kingdom message. After mentioning the high cost of living, a natural disaster, civil unrest, drug addiction, or something similar, ask a thought-provoking question. You might ask: "Do you think we'll ever see an end to . . . ?" or "What do you think is the solution to . . . ?" Then, share a Bible verse related to the topic. If the person shows interest, direct his attention to a video or a publication in our Teaching Toolbox. As we strive to touch the hearts of people in our territory, may we "do all things for the sake of the good news." —1Co 9:22, 23.

What topics may appeal to people in your territory?

We Will Keep Enduring

(Matthew 24:13)

1. How can we endure

When trials come, as Jesus said?
Through his pain he saw
The joy of better things ahead.
God's promise, God's justice,
Were thoughts on which he fed.

(CHORUS)

*We need to have endurance.
Our faith we must defend.
His love is our assurance.
So we will keep enduring to the end.*

2. Though the passing years

May bring us sorrow, bring us pain;
There beyond the tears,
We see the life that we can gain.
To be there, feel free there,
Determined we remain.

(Chorus)

3. We will not give up

Nor see the need for doubt or fear.
Faithfully we'll serve
Until Jehovah's day is here.
Let's keep on enduring.
That time is very near.

David’s War Strategy

David sought escape from Saul (1Sa 27:5-7; it-1 41)

David protected Judah’s boundaries (1Sa 27:8, 9; w21.03 4 ¶8)

David did not reveal complete details to Achish (1Sa 27:10-12; it-2 245 ¶6)

In our day, the authorities may restrict our Kingdom activity and question us about our brothers. At such times, it is wise to remain silent so as not to put our brothers at risk.—Pr 10:19; 11:12; Ec 3:7.

Firm Under Opposition

At John 15:20, Jesus said: “A slave is not greater than his master. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you.” How will we react when we are mistreated? How will we find the strength to endure? We have a record of faithful servants of old. We know that Jehovah’s people can endure. But we also have the record of Jehovah’s Witnesses in modern times. The following video draws on footage from two previously released videos by the organization. It highlights two outstanding examples: our brothers in Germany during World War II and our brothers in the former Soviet Union in the years that followed the war. It also reveals the tactics that enemies of the truth consistently use—to no avail—against Jehovah’s people. Reviewing and meditating on the examples of these faithful brothers and sisters will prepare us for what lies ahead, will fill us with courage, and will strengthen our faith. On January 30, 1933, Adolf Hitler comes to power. Hitler gave the people jobs. He restored their faith in the fatherland. He is hailed as their savior. But the Witnesses could not give to a man what they believed belonged to God. Thus, a battle line was drawn over a simple greeting—“Heil Hitler.” Jehovah’s Witnesses refused to say “Heil Hitler” because it meant “Salvation comes from Hitler.” At his job in a steel mill, one Witness faced this test. I was the only one among 2,000 who did not raise my hand and did not return the German salute—every day running the gauntlet, since I was required to give the German salute, and I simply said, “Good day.” Children were drawn into the battle. Six-year-old Paul Gerhard Kusserow, like other Witness children, was pressured by students and teachers. As soon as I entered school, the head teacher and the pupils confronted me and tried to make me say, “Heil Hitler.” More than 800 children were taken away from their Witness parents by the Gestapo. In one German state after another, the police shut down meetings of the Witnesses and prohibit their door-to-door preaching. At first, there were nasty words, sometimes a beating, but soon enough, it led to the first arrests. Starting in 1937, Jehovah’s Witnesses were given a purple triangle as a sign. Jehovah’s Witnesses were the only religious group that made up a separate category of inmates. The Jehovah’s Witnesses received especially severe treatment. The goal was to destroy this religious group; there were to be no more Witnesses in Germany. The Nazis, obsessed with breaking the Witnesses’ stubborn commitment, made them an extraordinary offer. Each Witness could buy his freedom for a price: his signature and his faith. Witnesses in prisons and camps were repeatedly handed a piece of paper and a pen. Very few signed. When I was to be released from prison, I was given a paper to sign.

It required that I give up my faith and recognize the German government as the highest authority, place myself under the Hitler government, and consider the Bible as a false doctrine. I said, “That’s out of the question!” The unity among the sisters and the brothers—that gave us so much strength. It was our aim to endure under all circumstances. We never prayed to be set free. We prayed for strength to endure. Everything else was unimportant. What mattered was standing up for Jehovah’s name. On February 19, 1951, the head of the security police presented a secret plan to Stalin. All of Jehovah’s Witnesses—including infants and pregnant women—would be exiled. The plan was code-named “Operation North.” Stalin approved it. Interestingly, the Witnesses were offered a way to avoid deportation. The man in charge of the deportation of our family tried to persuade Father to sign a paper renouncing the organization of Jehovah’s Witnesses. Few Witnesses, if any, accepted this offer. Once in Siberia, the Witnesses were dropped off at settlements along the rail lines. The majority of the Witnesses were forced to cut trees. We recalled the time when the Israelites lived in Egypt and how they were forced to work. We prayed, “God, make our faith stronger so that this work, which is beyond our strength, will not shake us.” Stalin’s death in 1953 brought hope of relief. But relief would be a long time in coming. The new regime went on in the same course. They arrested and sentenced us. Most arrested Witnesses were sentenced to labor camps. In court, they could not expect a fair trial. Guilty verdicts had already been decided upon. Under the Khrushchev administration, special “reeducation” camps were set up, designed to turn inmates from their beliefs. During this period, propaganda films designed to discredit Jehovah’s Witnesses were distributed throughout the USSR. Whoever has studied persecution in the past has seen that in one way or another, persecution is always built on a lie. The victim is slandered. Besides using propaganda, for many years, the KGB recruited informers to infiltrate Witness congregations. For instance, in 1968, the KGB district director offered Nikolai Bychkov an assignment. He requested me to spy on Jehovah’s Witnesses. One Witness booklet that compared the teaching of evolution with the Bible changed the KGB informer’s viewpoint. No one could answer that question: how life appeared. In the Bible, I could find answers to those questions. In Khabarovsk in 1984, Nikolai Bychkov, now a baptized Witness, and several fellow believers were accused of anti-Soviet activities. But the all-out attack on the Witnesses’ faith backfired on the persecutors. In Germany and in Soviet times, they thought that you could get rid of an idea by using extreme violence. But it turned out that when an idea is strong, it makes people strong. So the outcome was just the opposite of what was expected. In March 1991, Jehovah's Witnesses were legally registered in Russia. I think it is frightening only if you've never faced difficulties. But once you face them, you know that special strength. When we rely on Jehovah—we ask for his guidance; we ask for his help—we will always get it. In addition to horrible physical treatment, God's people faced slander, outright lies, and fabrications, even in the form of propaganda films. Opposers attempted to infiltrate our brotherhood with informants. But as we saw in the example of Nikolai Bychkov, such devious plans are in vain when pitted against the truth from God's Word. As Professor Nikolai Gordienko noted, "When an idea is strong, it makes people strong." What idea can be stronger than the reality of our Father, Jehovah; his reigning King, Jesus Christ; and his Kingdom, now poised to thwart all opposition? And so, what people can possibly be stronger than Jehovah's people? As our brothers in Russia and other areas of the earth face renewed opposition and as we all face the prospect of being mistreated just as our Master, Jesus, was, we are determined to stand firm and remain faithful no matter what the enemies of truth attempt.

The Bible Gives Hope

People around the world deal with problems that cause them to feel sadness, anxiety, and even pain. Have you ever faced a situation that made you feel those things? Perhaps you are suffering because of an illness or because someone you love has died. You may ask yourself, 'Will life ever get better?' The Bible provides a reassuring answer to that question.

1. How does the Bible give hope?

The Bible not only explains why the world is filled with problems but also shares the good news that these problems are temporary and will soon be gone. The Bible's promises can "give you a future and a hope." (Read Jeremiah 29:11, 12.) Those promises help us to cope with our present problems, to have a positive attitude, and to find lasting happiness.

2. What kind of future does the Bible describe?

The Bible describes a future time when "death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore." (Read Revelation 21:4.) The problems that can make life seem hopeless today—such as poverty, injustice, sickness, and death—will no longer exist. The Bible promises that humans will be able to enjoy life forever in Paradise on earth.

3. How can you build up your trust in the hope the Bible gives?

Many people hope for good things to happen, but they cannot be sure that their hopes will ever be fulfilled. What the Bible promises is different. We can build up our trust in what it says by "carefully examining the Scriptures." (Acts 17:11) As you study the Bible, you will be able to decide for yourself whether you can believe what it says about the future.

SONG 29

Living Up to Our Name

PREVIEW

To qualify for baptism, we must be willing to make changes in our personality. This article will help us to see what traits make up the old personality, why we need to strip off those traits, and how we can do it. The next article will examine how we can continue putting on the new personality even after we get baptized.

WHAT was your life like before you began studying the Bible with Jehovah’s Witnesses? Many of us would be frightened to think about it. Our outlook and personality were likely shaped by the values of this system of things—by the world’s standards of right and wrong. If so, we “had no hope and were without God in the world.” (Eph. 2:12) A Bible study changed all of that!

² As you studied the Bible, you discovered that you have a heavenly Father who loves you very much. You realized that if you wanted to please Jehovah and become part of his family of worshippers, you would have to make significant changes in your lifestyle, outlook, and thinking. You would have to learn to live by his high standards.—Eph. 5:3-5.

³ Our Creator and heavenly Father, Jehovah, has the right to determine how members of his family should behave. And he requires that before we get baptized, we put forth effort to “strip off the old personality with its practices.”* (Read Colossians 3:

* EXPRESSION EXPLAINED: To “strip off the old personality” means to get rid of attitudes and tendencies that displease Jehovah. That should begin before baptism.—Eph. 4:22.

1. What was your life like before you began studying the Bible?
2. What did you discover as you studied the Bible?
3. According to Colossians 3:9, 10, what does Jehovah want us to do, and what will we discuss in this article?

9, 10.) This article will help those who want to get baptized to answer three questions: (1) What is “the old personality”? (2) Why does Jehovah urge us to strip it off? (3) How can we do so? For those of us who are already baptized, this study will help us to prevent characteristics of the old personality from reappearing.

WHAT IS “THE OLD PERSONALITY”?

⁴ A person who is controlled by “the old personality” generally thinks and acts in a fleshly way. He may be selfish, prone to anger, unthankful, and proud. He may enjoy viewing pornographic material and watching immoral or violent movies. No doubt he has some good qualities, and he may feel guilty about the bad things he says or does. But he lacks the motivation to change his thinking and conduct.—Gal. 5:19-21; 2 Tim. 3:2-5.

⁵ We are imperfect, so none of us can completely remove all bad thoughts and desires from our heart and mind. At times, we will do or say something that we will regret. (Jer. 17:9; Jas. 3:2) But when we strip

4. How does a person act when he is controlled by “the old personality”?

5. What reasonable view should we have when it comes to stripping off the old personality? (Acts 3:19) off the old personality, fleshly attitudes and practices no longer control us. They no longer identify who we are as a person.—Isa. 55:7; read Acts 3:19.

⁶ Jehovah urges us to get rid of wrong thinking and bad habits because he loves us very much and wants us to enjoy life. (Isa. 48:17, 18) He knows that those who give in to wrong desires hurt themselves and those around them. It pains him to see us hurt ourselves and others.

⁷ Some of our friends and family may at first ridicule us for trying to make changes to our personality. (1 Pet. 4:3, 4) They may say that we have the right to do whatever we want and that we should not allow

6. Why does Jehovah urge us to strip off the wrong thinking and bad habits of the old personality?

7. According to Romans 12:1, 2, what choices do we have?

others to tell us what to do. But those who reject Jehovah's standards are not actually being independent. In reality, they are allowing the world dominated by Satan to mold them. (Read Romans 12:1, 2.) We all face a choice: Either we keep our old personality, which is shaped by sin and Satan's world, or we allow Jehovah to transform us into the best person we can be at present.—Isa. 64:8.

HOW CAN YOU “STRIP OFF” THE OLD PERSONALITY?

⁸ Jehovah knows that it will take time and effort for us to avoid wrong thinking and bad habits. (Ps. 103: 13, 14) However, through his Word, his spirit, and his organization, Jehovah gives us the wisdom, strength, and support that we need to change who we are. No doubt he has already helped you. Let us now consider some of the practical steps you can take that will allow you to make further progress in stripping off the old personality and qualifying for baptism.

⁹ Use the Bible to examine yourself closely. God's Word acts like a mirror; it can help you to analyze the way that you think, speak, and act. (Jas. 1:22-25)

8. What help can we count on to avoid wrong thinking and bad habits?

9. What can God's Word help you to do?

Your Bible teacher and other mature Christians can offer you guidance. For instance, they can use the Scriptures to help you identify your strengths and your weaknesses. They can teach you how to find Bible-based information that offers practical advice on how to overcome bad habits. And Jehovah is always ready to come to your aid. He knows best how to help you; he knows what is in your heart. (Prov. 14:10; 15:11) So get into the habit of praying to him and studying his Word each day.

¹⁰ Be convinced that Jehovah's standards are best. We can benefit from everything that Jehovah asks us to do. Those who live by his standards gain self-respect, a purpose in life, and genuine happiness. (Ps. 19:7-11) In contrast, those who ignore Jehovah's standards suffer the consequences that come from practicing the works of the flesh. Note what a man named Elie says about rejecting God's standards. He was raised by parents who love Jehovah. But while in his teens, Elie chose bad associates. He was drawn into a lifestyle that included drug abuse, immorality, and theft. Elie says that he found himself becoming increasingly angry and violent. "Basically, I did everything that I had been taught not to do as a Christian," he admits. However, Elie did not forget what he had learned in his youth. Eventually, he began studying the Bible again. He worked hard to get rid of his bad habits and got baptized in 2000. How has living by Jehovah's standards benefited him? Elie says: "I now have peace of mind and a clean conscience."* As this experience shows, those who reject Jehovah's standards hurt themselves. Even then, Jehovah is willing to help them to change.

¹¹ Learn to hate what Jehovah hates. (Ps. 97:10) The Bible reveals that Jehovah hates "haughty eyes, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood." (Prov. 6:16, 17) He also "detests violent and deceptive people." (Ps. 5:6) Jehovah hates these attitudes and actions so much that he wiped out all the wicked in Noah's day because they had filled the earth with violence. (Gen. 6:13) Consider another example. Through the prophet Malachi, Jehovah said that He hates those who treacherously scheme to divorce their innocent marriage partner. God rejects their worship and will call them to account for their conduct.—Mal. 2:13-16; Heb. 13:4.

* For more details, see the article "The Bible Changes Lives—I Needed to Return to Jehovah," published in the April 1, 2012, issue of The Watchtower.

11. What things does Jehovah hate?

Doing something that Jehovah says is bad should be as repulsive as eating rotten food (See paragraphs 11-12)

¹² Jehovah wants us to “abhor what is wicked.” (Rom. 12:9) The word “abhor” describes a strong emotional response; it means to hate something intensely, to be disgusted by it. Imagine the strong response you would have if you were asked to eat a plate of rotten food. The very thought might make you feel sick. In a similar way, even the thought of doing something that Jehovah says is bad should be repulsive to us.

¹³ Safeguard your thinking. Our thoughts influence our actions. That is why Jesus taught us to reject thoughts that can lead us to commit a serious sin. (Matt. 5:21, 22, 28, 29) We want to be pleasing to our heavenly Father, do we not? How important it is, then, that we immediately reject any bad thoughts that come to our mind!

12. What does it mean to “abhor what is wicked”?

13. Why must we safeguard our thinking?

¹⁴ Control your speech. Jesus said: “Whatever comes out of the mouth comes from the heart.” (Matt. 15:18) Yes, our speech reveals a lot about who we are on the inside. So ask yourself these questions: ‘Do I refuse to lie, even if telling the truth will cause me trouble? As a married person, am I careful not to flirt with those of the opposite sex? Do I avoid immoral speech like the plague? Do I reply in a calm manner when someone upsets me?’ You will find it helpful to reflect on those questions. Your speech might be likened to seams in a garment. If you try your best to remove abusive, lying, and immoral speech from your conversation, you will find it easier to strip off the old personality.

¹⁵ Be willing to take decisive action. The apostle Paul used a powerful word picture to teach us just how serious we must be about changing our lifestyle. He wrote that we must nail our old personality “to the stake.” (Rom. 6:6) In other words, we want to follow Christ’s example. We need to kill off attitudes and practices that Jehovah hates. Only if we take these steps will we gain a clean conscience and have the prospect of enjoying everlasting life. (John 17:3; 1 Pet. 3:21) Remember that Jehovah will not change his standards to suit us. Instead, we need to change who we are and conform to his standards.—Isa. 1:16-18; 55:9.

14. What does our speech reveal, and what questions should we answer?

¹⁶ Continue to fight fleshly weaknesses. Even after you get baptized, you will need to continue to fight fleshly desires. Note the experience of a man named Maurício. While young, he started living a homosexual lifestyle. Eventually, he met Jehovah’s people and began studying the Bible. After making changes in his life, he got baptized in 2002. Even though he has now served Jehovah for many years, Maurício says: “I must admit that I have had to fight improper desires at times.” He does not let this discourage him. Instead, he says: “I take courage in knowing that by choosing not to act on those desires, I can be pleasing to Jehovah.”*

* For more details, see the article “The Bible Changes Lives—‘They Were Very Kind to Me,’” published in the May 1, 2012, issue of The Watchtower.

16. Why must you be determined to continue fighting fleshly weaknesses?

The Bible Changes Lives

In 2008, The Watchtower began publishing a series entitled “The Bible Changes Lives.” These articles relate real-life accounts of people who made major changes to qualify for baptism. Many similar articles and video interviews can now be found on jw.org. If you are struggling to overcome a bad habit or to change an aspect of your personality, these experiences can encourage you. In this series, you will likely find a story about someone who overcame challenges similar to the ones that you face. You can locate these articles by looking in the Research Guide for Jehovah’s Witnesses under the subject “The Bible,” then “Practical Value,” and then “‘The Bible Changes Lives’ (Watchtower series).” Or you can type “The Bible Changes Lives” in the search box on jw.org.

17 Pray for Jehovah’s help, and rely on his spirit, not on your own strength. (Gal. 5:22; Phil. 4:6) We must be determined if we are to strip off the old personality and keep it off. Consider the experience of a woman named Nabiha. Her father abandoned her when she was just six years old. “It caused me tremendous emotional pain,” she says. As she grew up, Nabiha became increasingly angry and aggressive. She got involved in drug trafficking, was arrested, and spent some years in prison. Witnesses who visited the prison began studying the Bible with her. Nabiha started to make serious changes. “Some of my vices were easy for me to give up,” she says. “But quitting smoking was another story.” Nabiha struggled for more than a year and was eventually able to break the addiction. How did she do it? “Above all,” she says, “it was incessant prayer to Jehovah that enabled me to quit.” She now tells others: “I’m confident that if I could make changes in order to please Jehovah, anyone can!”*

17. What did you find encouraging about Nabiha’s experience?

YOU CAN QUALIFY FOR BAPTISM!

¹⁸ In the first century, some of the men and women whom Jehovah chose to be corulers with Christ had once been dominated by bad practices.
